GATHER

LIGHTING OF THE PEACE CANDLE (a silent prayer; by Howard Thurman)

When the song of the angels is stilled. When the star in the sky is gone. When the kings and princes are home. When the shepherds are back with their flock, the work of Christmas begins: to find the lost; to heal the broken; to feed the hungry; to release the prisoner; to rebuild the nations; to bring peace among others; to make music in the heart. Amen.

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 1      Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty

Your procession has come into view, O God, the procession of my God and my King into the sanctuary. In front are the singers, after them the musicians; with them there are ones playing tambourines... there is the little tribe of Benjamin, leading them." (Psalm 68:24)

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

One: Lord Jesus Christ, we remember with gratitude those people who have blessed the our lives.

(silence is kept).

We recognize how you have blessed our lives with the gift of the Holy Spirit so that our faith has miraculously and mysteriously grown.

Many: We confess the times we fail to involve ourselves in blessing the lives of others; the times when our personal agendas become more important than yours; the times when we have denied others the opportunity to expand their faith through our lack of interest or involvement; the times when our lives become so entangled with the values of the world that we forget what you have said and done and promised. Amen.

*SUNG RESPONSE                      Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing

*Come, Thou Fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing Thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount, I'm fixed upon it, mount of Thy redeeming love.*

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON (Psalm 32)

One: Blessed are those whose transgression is forgiven and whose sin is covered.

Many: They are happy, for the Lord declares them "not guilty" and there is no deception in their hearts.

*PASSING OF THE PEACE

Please greet those around you, wishing them "peace" or "the peace of Christ."

CHILDREN'S MOMENT & THE LORD'S PRAYER

We congratulate Liz Salter for completion of the Wood Badge, a leadership training program for Scout leaders. This presentation will be by Melissa Irwin.

*BENEDICTION

Born January 1st, 1956, in western Ireland, John O’Donohue loved the land of his birth and its Celtic roots. A deeply spiritual man, O’Donohue was ordained as a Roman Catholic priest in 1979, and went on to become a poet, author, activist, philosopher and speaker. His friends describe him as larger than life with a gift for friendship. John O’Donohue died suddenly just two days after his 52nd birthday. One of his books, To Bless the Space Between Us, is the inspiration for our sermon series and the source for the blessings used in today’s worship service.

Today, we offer a special welcome to all members of Cub Scout Pack 29 and Scout BSA Troop 29 & Troop 1029, and their families! We are thrilled to have you join us for worship!

Additionally, we welcome renowned jazz vocalist Abigail Flowers and jazz pianist extraordinaire Bill Alexson, both from Nashville, TN. Abigail was recently voted “Best Jazz Vocalist” by the Nashville Industry Music Awards. She and Bill performed a concert for Red Clay last evening... it was a treat!

Thanks to today’s worship participants:

Ian Irwin, Life Scout; Tatum Jackson, 1st Class Scout; Tanisha Kapadia, 2nd Class Scout; Riley Gilpin, Life Scout—Liturgists
Abigail Flowers and Bill Alexson—Music Ministry

A NOTE ON THE LOGO

Our church has "roots" in the community that date back to 1722. We have been a good neighbor when we were surrounded by farmland up until now when we are surrounded by the suburbs. Our history helps us remember a time when people helped one another out because that was the right thing to do. We hope to be a sign that this kind of community can still exist. We also believe that, in order for that community to exist, we need to stay "rooted" in the Good News that God has chosen to love us - not because of who we are, but because of who God is. We call that grace.

That is where the "rays" come in. We hope to extend our love, and the love we know from the graciousness of God, in many ways today. This means engaging in friendships with those that Jesus would have made friends with - those that feel isolated for any number of reasons. We know we will never be perfect at that, but we will try! We are especially aware that churches have long held back from friendship with others based on age, economics, sexuality, race, disability, and the list goes on. We seek to be something different than that. There are so many stories about how Jesus entered into life-affirming friendships with those that others wouldn't. We seek to be like Jesus.

Right there, in the center of it all, is the cross. For us, the cross is a "Tree of Life." It represents how God broke into this world to establish a new way of being alive. It symbolizes how God calls us to love with freedom, with recklessness even, if it means connecting the world to the wonder of God's transformative presence.

1 Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty!

Descant

4 Ho - - - ly,

1 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! Lord God Al - might - y!
2 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! all the saints a - dore thee,
3 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! though the dark-ness hide thee,
4 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! Lord God Al - might - y!

The first system of the musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is a vocal line in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time, starting with a descant of the word 'Ho' followed by a long note for 'ly'. The middle staff is a piano accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The bottom staff is a bass line with chords and moving lines. The lyrics are aligned with the notes.

ho - - - ly,

Ear - ly in the morn - ing our song shall rise to thee.
cast - ing down their gold - en crowns a - round the glass - y sea;
though the eye of sin - ful - ness thy glo - ry may not see,
All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea.

The second system of the musical score continues with three staves. The top staff is a vocal line in G major and 4/4 time, starting with a descant of the word 'ho' followed by a long note for 'ly'. The middle staff is a piano accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The bottom staff is a bass line with chords and moving lines. The lyrics are aligned with the notes.

Much of the imagery of this hymn comes from Revelation 4:2–11, which its author, an Anglican bishop, knew as a reading appointed for Trinity Sunday. The tune, written specifically for this text, reinforces the Trinitarian theme by strong dependence on the D-major triad.

ho - - - ly,

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! mer - ci - ful and might - y!
cher - u - bim and ser - a - phim fall - ing down be - fore thee,
on - ly thou art ho - ly; there is none be - side thee,
Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly! mer - ci - ful and might - y!

God in three per - sons, bless - ed Trin - i - ty.

God in three per - sons, bless - ed Trin - i - ty!
who wert, and art, and ev - er - more shalt be.
per - fect in power, in love and pu - ri - ty.
God in three per - sons, bless - ed Trin - i - ty!
