SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY / SUNDAY, JANUARY 18, 2026 / 10 AM

Rooted in Love, Lighting the Way

Welcome to worship, welcome to Red Clay, welcome home!

We're glad you're here. If needed, a family area with CCTV is in the narthex near the front doors, and our nursery is open for young children. Restrooms are available by exiting out the side door near the pulpit and turning left. After worship, join us for Coffee Hour in Founders Hall by the main parking lot. Please silence your cell phone as we enter into worship.

GATHER

LIGHTING OF THE PEACE CANDLE

(a silent prayer)

God of grace and mercy, as we await the Prince of Peace, we come to you with hearts yearning for the day when your peace reigns in the world. May your light dispel the darkness of discord, and may nations unite in the pursuit of harmony and justice. Inspire our leaders with wisdom and compassion that they may work for the well-being of all. Amen.

CHIMING OF THE HOUR

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

One: The Lord be with you.

Many: And also with you.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

(Micah 6:8)

One: God has told us what is good.

Many: To do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with our God.

One: God is good.

Many: All the time.

One: All the time!

Many: God is good. Let us worship God together!

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN 679

Let the Whole Creation Cry

"Your procession has come into view, O God, the procession of my God and my King into the sanctuary. In front are the singers, after them the musicians; with them are ones playing tambourines... there is the little tribe of Benjamin, leading them." (Psalm 68:24)

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

One: Good and gracious God, we can say you are good not because our lives are easy, but because you are faithful.

Many: Yet we confess that we do not always trust your goodness. We turn from what gives life toward what is smaller, quicker, and easier to control. We settle for lesser goods when we lose sight of what truly matters.

One: Forgive us, O God. Remind us again of this truth: that you judge it better to bring good out of evil than to allow no evil to exist.

Many: Reorder our loves. Turn us again toward your goodness. Through Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd, who leads us home. Amen.

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON

One: Hear the good news: In Jesus Christ, God's goodness comes near, meets us in our weakness, and does not let us go.

Many: Thanks be to God.

HYMN

Come, Great God of All the Ages

*1. Come, great God of all the ages; make your earthly mission known;
speak through every deed and person; let your way and will be shown.*

*Guide the church to true commitment; give direction now, we ask;
fit us for the work of building; dedicate us to the task.*

*2. Come, O come, in celebration, household of the one true God;
in commitment and rejoicing let us go where Christ has trod;
As we act in faith and reverence, let us, Lord, the future see;
place us in the church triumphant, now and for eternity.*

CHORAL BENEDICTION Let There Be Peace on Earth (All are invited to sing)

*Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me;
let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.*

With God our creator, we are family.

Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now.

With every step I take, may this be my solemn vow:

To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally.

Let there be peace on earth, and let it begin with me.

A NOTE ON THE LOGO

Our church has "roots" in the community that date back to 1722. We have been a good neighbor when we were surrounded by farmland up until now when we are surrounded by the suburbs. Our history helps us remember a time when people helped one another out because that was the right thing to do. We hope to be a sign that this kind of community can still exist. We also believe that, in order for that community to exist, we need to stay "rooted" in the Good News that God has chosen to love us - not because of who we are, but because of who God is. We call that grace.

That is where the "rays" come in. We hope to extend our love, and the love we know from the graciousness of God, in many ways today. This means engaging in friendships with those that Jesus would have made friends with - those that feel isolated for any number of reasons. We know we will never be perfect at that, but we will try! We are especially aware that churches have long held back from friendship with others based on age, economics, sexuality, race, disability, and the list goes on. We seek to be something different than that. There are so many stories about how Jesus entered into life-affirming friendships with those that others wouldn't. We seek to be like Jesus.

Right there, in the center of it all, is the cross. For us, the cross is a "Tree of Life." It represents how God broke into this world to establish a new way of being alive. It symbolizes how God calls us to love with freedom, with recklessness even, if it means connecting the world to the wonder of God's transformative presence.

679 Let the Whole Creation Cry

(Psalm 148)

1 Let the whole cre - a - tion cry, "Glo - ry to the Lord on high."
 2 Men and wom-en, young and old, raise the an - them loud and bold;

Heaven and earth, a - wake and sing, "Praise to our al - might-y King."
 join with chil - dren's songs of praise; wor-ship God through length of days.

Praise God, an - gel hosts a - bove, ev - er bright and fair in love;
 From the north to south-ern pole let the might-y cho - rus roll:

sun and moon, up - lift your voice; night and stars, in God re - joice!
 "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly One, glo - ry be to God a - lone!"

Originally this text was more than twice as long as the present version because it followed Psalm 148 in directing additional parts of the created order to praise God. This wide-ranging text is set here to a suitably expansive and well-crafted 17th-century chorale melody.

God, You Spin the Whirling Planets 23

1 God, you spin the whirl-ing plan-ets, fill the seas and
2 You have called us to be faith-ful in our life and 3 God, your word is still cre-at-ing, call-ing us to spread the plain, mold the moun-tains, fash-ion blos-soms, call forth min-is-try. We re-spond in grate-ful wor-ship joined in life made new. Now re-veal to us fresh vis-tas where there's sun-shine, wind, and rain. We, cre-at-ed in your im-age, one com-mu-ni-ty. When we blur your gra-cious im-age, work to dare and do. Keep us clear of all dis-tor-tion.

would a true re-flec-tion be of your jus-tice, fo-cus us and make us whole. Healed and strength-ened Pol-ish us with lov-ing care. Thus, new crea-tures grace, and mer-cy and the truth that makes us free.

as your peo-ple, we move on-ward toward your goal.
in your im-age, we'll pro-claim Christ ev-ery-where.
