SECOND SERVING

A Sermon Series on the Feeding of the 5,000

You know something is good when you go back for seconds. Especially this time of year. It's the season of an extra piece of Halloween candy and another helping around the Thanksgiving table.

For twenty years, four words have helped shape our life together at Red Clay: Belong. Nurture. Rejoice. Reach. They've been a good first serving for the 21st century—helping us grow as a community, deepen our faith, worship together, and carry God's love beyond our walls.

And when the first serving has been that good, you come back for seconds.

Beginning October 25, we'll spend four Sundays with the story of Jesus feeding the crowd in John 6 - a story of surprising abundance with a child at the center - and introduce four new words for the next season of ministry at Red Clay:

Follow. Discover. Worship. Share.

We're not starting over. We're coming back for more! John 6 reminds us that with Jesus as the host, there is always more than we imagined. So don't clear the table yet. There's a second serving yet to come.
