VERVE CITY CHURCH ACTIVITY GROUP LEADER EXPECTATIONS:

Your win: Create interest-focused experiences that introduce people to the possibility of exploring faith, and connect group members to community and opportunities to grow in their discipleship.

1. Collaborate with Verve City Church staff to propose and finalize group details:
 - Draft group description – what activity will create a bond for the unique group you lead?
 - Determine meeting schedule – minimum once a month; weekly or bi-weekly meetings preferred.
 - Determine costs for each group member (to be collected during registration) and coordinate purchasing of any supplies.
 - Communicate about any special requirements/equipment needed, etc.
2. Attend Activity group leader training.
3. Maintain a group roster and keep regular attendance records; be sure to notify Verve City Church staff when you have visitors and/or other roster changes.
4. Communicate regularly with group members about meeting logistics, and cultivate 1:1 and group-wide communication around the shared interest of your Activity and other life events of group members (i.e. birthdays, prayer requests, etc.)
5. Connect with your Coach on a regular basis to share updates, prayer requests, etc. Be proactive in scheduling 1:1s with your coach and look for opportunities to build relationships with other leaders in your huddle.
