Hello Dayspring Parents!

Summer is approaching quickly! This year at Summer Quest we have many new fun and exciting activities that my staff and I are eager to share with you. Each week has its own theme and each day consists of fun crafts and activities that relate to that theme.

Field trips are still tentative, but know that we are working on confirming them! Tentatively, field trips will be scheduled on Thursdays. Please keep that in mind when you schedule your days- and field trips costs will be separate from the daily charge.

Lastly, we are looking for paper towel rolls, toilet paper rolls, and empty water bottles for some of the crafts. If you have these around your house, please feel free to bring them in!

As always, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me. My email is Brianna.l.stanford@gmail.com.

Thank you for your support as we work together to make this summer fun for our students!
