Easter Continues...

The season of Easter continues. We call it Eastertide, and its seven weeks take us to Pentecost. The celebration of the resurrection and the implications for our lives cannot be contained in one glorious day!

Over the next many weeks, we will continue to grapple with what it means that resurrection is at the heart of our faith. With an act of great impossibility at the center of our faith, then we are free to dream and imagine other impossibilities becoming possible. I can imagine a lot! What can you imagine?

Heather and I will be away this weekend to celebrate our anniversary. The Rev. Dr. Priscilla Eppinger will preach on Sunday with Sadaf Erastus assisting as Worship Leader.

Our organist, Melinda Clark, has been recovering well from her hip surgery and is planning to rejoin us on Sunday, May 4. We are excited for her return. We are also so grateful to Mack Beverly for his extended time with us. This Sunday will be his final Sunday. Please be sure to thank him for doing such a wonderful job as he has filled in for Melinda during her time away.

May Term Seminars

Our Lenten devotional discussions were great. We met in person and online on Wednesdays at 6:00 PM. Several topics for further work rose from our discussions. We will continue our Wednesday discussions into May. Each session will have an article or chapter that we will discuss. I will have hard copies of the chapter/article available on the Sunday prior to our discussion. I will also email the reading.

All sessions will take place in the Art and Soul room and online:

Wednesday, May 14 @ 6:00 PM

Contemplative Prayer

Read: Marjorie J. Thompson, Soul Feast, Chp 3, Communication and Communion with God

Wednesday, May 21 @ 6:00 PM

Intercessory Prayer

Read: Walter Wink, Engaging the Powers, Chp 16, Prayer and the Powers

Wednesday, May 28 @ 6:00 PM

Introduction to Howard Thurman

Read: Parker Palmer, "Listening for the Voice of Vocation" in Anchored in the Current: Discovering Howard Thurman as Educator, Activist, Guide and Prophet, ed. Gregory C. Ellison II
