Worship in the Chapel

There is something special about our Chapel! You witnessed it if you were in worship on Sunday. Our voices soared, our children led us, and we gathered at the table of Holy Communion. It was a glorious service of worship! That isn't to take away from the Sanctuary in any way. Our Sanctuary is magnificent. But the Chapel is special. The month of June will be wonderful in the Chapel. On June 22, we will have a service to celebrate the Chapel, to tell some stories and to anticipate the new opportunities.

Even though this will be a short summer in the Chapel, as we make way for construction to begin in July, we are laying the foundation for much more time in the Chapel. As a multi-use space, it will continue to serve as a worship space. It will also be our gathering space for meals, events, speakers, celebrations, receptions and meetings. Get ready to spend more time in this wonderful space!

This Sunday is Pentecost Sunday. Pentecost is a threshold in the church calendar. It marks the transition from Eastertide to Ordinary Time. A flash of red between white and green. It gathers up the glorious alleluias from Easter, wraps them in the Holy Spirit, and sends us out into the 'ordinary' places of the world. Pentecost is a high moment for the church; indeed, it is the birth of the church. It is a chance to remember our roots, to hear our story again and to feel the fiery power of the Spirit sending us “to Jerusalem, all Judea and Samaria and to the ends of the earth.” May it be so for us!

Summer Kick-Off Luncheon

From starting the day with fresh Krispy Kreme donuts, to a favorite summer meal of hot dogs, chips, watermelon, ice cream, and homemade cookies, NDBCers kicked off summer with food, fellowship, and fun. The waterslide was a major hit! Thanks to the Children's and Hospitality Teams for a delightful day!

Celebration!

We are delighted to announce a wedding in our congregation! On May 16, Simon Goodhead and Sarah Diercks were married at Callanwolde with our own Scott Hovey officiating. We hear it was lovely and fun! The children, Blythe, Mary, James and Grace, along with family from here and across the pond, danced the night away! Their NDBC friends send congratulations and best wishes to this sweet family.

Chapel Pews Available

In preparation for the updating of the Chapel, we will be donating our pews to Atlanta Habitat for Humanity. Removal is scheduled for July 11. Some NDBC members have asked if they could have a pew for their homes, and the answer is an emphatic “yes!”

Contact Jordan Clark if you are interested, and make your plans to remove your pew—either an 8’ or 16’ section—between June 30 and July 10. If you need assistance in moving your pew, contact Susan Harlan who may be able to help with your delivery arrangements.

Free Items

Stop by room 204 and the room at the back of the Chapel to shop for items you (or someone you know) can use. We are cleaning out the hospitality items and several rooms in preparation for the Kiddos renovation. The price is right - free- so check out the table and photos in room 204. New shipments arrive weekly! First come, first served. The free sale ends on July 13, and everything left will be donated.

McCammon is the author of The Exvangelicals: Loving, Living, and Leaving the White Evangelical Church, a 2024 book that is part memoir and part journalism, about the movement of people who grew up inside the powerful evangelical Teach Me Something!

All are invited! Adult Ed is sponsoring a Sunday morning Church School series each week at 9:30 AM with the theme, "Teach Me Something!" We are meeting in the Art & Soul classroom through August 24 (except August 10, when we will meet in the Chapel), and will have a wide variety of speakers and topics. This week Cathy Wooten will lead us with "Telling It Slant: Growing Faith by Reading Literature." Cathy, a 40-year member of NDBC, has a longtime passion for reading literature. She retired in 2021 from Emory University, where she served as director of communications for Oxford College.
