Don't you think we could all use a little more kindness?

There is a local movement working to spread kindness. The movement is called Kind30, and it is based on a very simple idea: to show intentional kindness each day through the month of October. This movement began here in Buckhead last year and already many churches, schools, and businesses are eager to engage again. No need to register. No cost involved. Only encouragement to do an act of kindness each day.

Kind30 has built this program around the month of October because October 10 is World Mental Health Day. Kind30 believes that kindness plays a part in our mental health. The more we offer kindness, the more kindness becomes part of our world.

I encourage you to visit kind30.org. As October gets closer, we will provide suggestions, opportunities, and information.

Let's spend October exploring and enacting kindness!

Wednesday Discussions

Our Wednesday discussions continue. The third Wednesday of the month (September 17) will be our pop-up theological discussion at 6:00 PM. I will have a journal article available on Sunday (and will also email a digital copy).

Triple E: Hither and Yon Stories and Illustrations from the Travels of Donette Lee

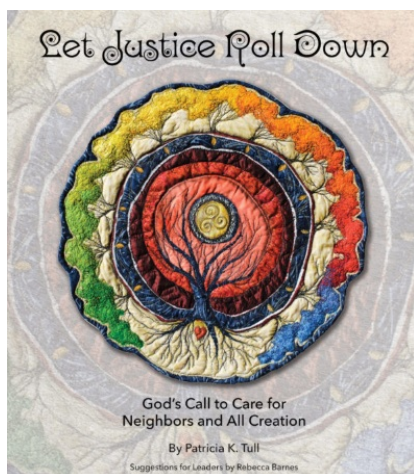

The September meeting of Triple E — Northside Drive's monthly lunchtime programs to Engage, Enrich and Enjoy — showcased member Donette Lee's traveling memoirs.

Donette's retelling of stories behind her published book, Hither and Yon, created from her own sketches, photographs and collected mementos, delighted her audience.

The Hospitality for which NDBC is known shown ever brighter in the newly imagined Chapel space.

Art & Soul Fall Schedule

The Art & Soul Church School class is beginning a new nine-week study on Sunday, September 14. The curriculum is: Let Justice Roll Down, written by Rev. Dr. Patricia K. Tull and published by Presbyterian Women in the Presbyterian Church. Each lesson can be studied on a stand-alone basis, so missing sessions is no excuse to stay away.

This week we begin with Lesson 1: "Environmental Justice." Hartwell Dew will lead the discussion. Books are available in the Art & Soul classroom. Please join us.

Special Documentary Screening: Refuge | September 28

Ahavath Achim Synagogue's Response to Antisemitism and Hate Committee cordially invites you to join us for a special screening of the powerful documentary Refuge, followed by a thought-provoking panel discussion on Sunday, September 28. This event will feature the film's producer, Erin Bernhardt, and Chris Buckley, a former white nationalist featured in the film.

Event Details:

- Film: Refuge - a documentary filmed right here in Clarkston, GA
- Panel Discussion: Featuring producer Erin Bernhardt and Chris Buckley
- Registration Deadline: Wednesday, September 24
- Cost: Free to attend (registration required)
- Location: Provided upon registration

Out of the Ashes: Our Story in Song | October 4

Come join The Trey Clegg Singers on Saturday, October 4, at 7 PM in the Sanctuary.

"Out of the Ashes" is more than a concert title—it's a journey. The program invites you to walk through grandeur, grief, resilience, and renewal. The music will move from the ceremonial to the intimate, from lament to unshakable joy. In each act, we travel deeper into the human spirit—hearing how voices, cultures, and stories rise together to tell one unbroken story of hope.

Tickets are $25.00 and can be purchased online or at the door.
