June 7 | Livestream and Order of Worship

A Summer of Hope

We started summer in style! Our worship in the Chapel this past Sunday was beautiful. From the hymns to the prayers to the choir's heavenly anthem, it was glorious worship. I was grateful for the opportunity to present the work that has been part of my life for the better part of the last three years. I pray that this work will be of enduring blessings to our church. And I felt very honored by the presentation of the new robe that marks my degree.

The final choir anthem of the season was spectacular. Please join me in thanking the choir for their dedication and work to present meaningful music each week. And tremendous thanks to Catherine Campbell for her interim time directing the choir!

The rain held off long enough to enjoy a great time of fellowship in the Pavilion. Many thanks to the Hospitality Team for a great meal!

I am also honored that all 10 copies of my thesis were taken. I will have more copies available this Sunday.

We will begin our time in the book of Revelation this Sunday. I encourage you to come with an open mind. Revelation tends to produce strong feelings- some would prefer to avoid it; some are just puzzled by it and some love it a bit too much! I believe that we will find a heartfelt (if not a bit dramatic) wrestling with world events meant to generate hope and confidence. (For those taking notes, we will utilize my CPT reading strategy- communal, plain sense of the text and 'this is that, then is now'). Join us in worship this Sunday!

Sanctuary Choir

The Adult Choir had their final rehearsal for the season on May 27 which concluded with a celebration of their commitment to the nine month music program at NDBC. Please thank a choir member when you can for their contribution (some for decades) to the beauty of Sunday services. What a joy it has been for me to have the privilege of being their director.

Choir Anthem

Many people were deeply moved by the anthem the choir sang on May 31 called "I Believe." It is based on a poem found carved on a cellar wall in Germany where Jewish people hid during the Holocaust.

"I believe in the sun even when it is not shining. I believe in love, even when I don't feel it. I believe in God, even when He is silent."

Summer Choir! For All Ages and Abilities!

Summer Choir will have 3 brief rehearsals (15 or 20 minutes) after the service on June 14, June 28, and July 12, for anyone interested in a little singing over the summer. We will meet by the piano in the Chapel with hopes of singing in service on July 19 and August 2. The music will be simple and manageable for all ages. So, if you would like to participate at any or all rehearsals, come on by!

Touching Taliaferro With Love June 7-10

It's Taliaferro Time! For twenty years, volunteers from NDBC have partnered with the community and other friends to provide summer camp for the children of Taliaferro County. Through Bible stories, crafts, board games, music, and recreation, we share God's love and our love with the children in this rural county.

Thank you for your prayers and support.

Habitat for Humanity Build | June 13 | 7:30 AM

I love that we have twenty hammers mounted on the wall of our education building. I would love it to become 21! I invite you to join me on Saturday, June 13, to lend our hands to the Habitat Interfaith Build. I have been working with some young adults both in our congregation and outside who are interested in doing good work. There are additional spots. If you are interested in joining us, talk with Scott.
