Homecoming

This Sunday is the final sermon in our Revelation series. Many of you have shared with me how meaningful this series has been. It is indeed timely as we see signs of empire all around us. Sunday's sermon is entitled, "Homecoming," as it pulls together all the themes into the greatest theme of all- coming home.

In preparation for this sermon, I want to encourage you to think about the theme of homecoming. What does home mean to you? Where is home? How does home feel? How does it feel when we can't be home or when home is missing someone? I will make the case on Sunday that coming home is one of the most important messages of the Bible and of our faith. Coming home is a longing placed deep within our spirits. Join us on Sunday for "Homecoming!"

Heather and I are leaving for a relaxing seaside vacation next week. We will leave on Monday, August 31, and return on Sunday, September 6. The Rev. Dr. Karen Massey will preach on Sunday, September 6. This will be our final Sunday in the Chapel. This is Labor Day weekend, so there will be no Church School- only the 11:00 AM service. The service will include Holy Communion.

Lydia will be traveling over Labor Day weekend and will be out of the office on Friday, September 4. Then, of course, the office will be closed on Monday, September 7, in honor of Labor Day.

Hospitality Ministry Team

Triple E | September 22 | 11:00 AM

The Triple E Team is planning another year of informative and entertaining gatherings for all curious, fun-loving and mature (most of the time) church members. Due to calendar and practical considerations, the first Triple E event of the new church year is set for Tuesday, September 22, not the second Tuesday of the month, as are all other meetings for the year. Make sure to place Tuesday, September 22 on your calendar and prepare for the best food and fellowship we can dish up!

Flower Donations for Sunday Worship

Fresh altar flowers for our Sunday morning worship services remind us of God's amazing beauty. Providing a flower arrangement is a spiritual and supportive way to celebrate special occasions or to honor and remember loved ones.

The cost of weekly flowers is $150, which includes tax and delivery expenses.

Please notify Virginia Gilbert, chair of the Flower Team, if you would like to donate flowers.

Please provide her the date and the details for the announcement in that Sunday's Order of Worship.
