Lunch and Learn: Marc and Kim Wyatt | November 2

Marc and Kim are good friends and longtime ministry partners. They have served as CBF field personnel for many years- first in Thailand, then many years in Ottawa, Canada and then finally in the Triangle (Raleigh, Durham, Chapel Hill) of North Carolina. The focus of their work has been with refugees and immigrants. During their time in Canada, the Wyatts helped set up a number of Matthew Houses, places of welcome for newly arrived immigrants. They brought this vision to NC and set up the Welcome House (now with many locations).

A Welcome House is the first home for immigrants and refugees. It is often the first 'home' after arriving at the airport. Families may stay a week or maybe a month until they find their own place. But their time at the Welcome House is an important time of transition. The Wyatts, along with local CBF churches, provide hospitality- food, transportation, care.

The Wyatts will be with us on Sunday, November 2. You are invited to join a Lunch and Learn in the Chapel after the service. They will share many stories about their ministry and ways that we, too, can join in the important Gospel work of welcoming the stranger.

Smokelore: A Short History of Barbecue in America

"I've always wondered why we say something is as American as apple pie. Nothing against apple pie, but history tells us that apples came from Asia by way of Europe and that the British fancied baking them into pies long before anyone on this side of the Atlantic did. If you're looking for a food that truly represents the New World, you would be hard pressed to find a better one than barbecue."

Sarah McCammon is coming! | November 9

Our rescheduled date is Sunday, November 9, at 4:00 PM. Make plans to join us for this relevant discussion about the state of the church. Sarah will speak about her NYT bestseller book The Exvangelicals. Copies of the book are available in the Narthex for $10. And don't forget to bring your copy to get it signed.

This event will be an opportunity to show off our new Chapel space to friends and neighbors. The content is extremely relevant to our current religious and political climate but is not partisan. Sarah's book is very personal and offers hope to those who have found the Christian evangelical world to be inhospitable and incompatible with the teachings of Jesus.

Tickets are $15 and are available on our website.

Art & Soul: Let Justice Roll Down

The Art & Soul Church School class will continue this week with the discussion on Let Justice Roll Down, written by Rev. Dr. Patricia K. Tull.

This week we will discuss Lesson 6: "Climate Change." Jordan Clark will lead the discussion. Please join us.

Missions Opportunities

Sunday, September 21 through October 30 -- Impact Church Food Pantry Diaper Drive

Patti Clark has presented us with an opportunity to help the Impact Church food pantry in East Point. They provide food they get from the Atlanta Food Bank to their community. However, they often hear of non-food needs such as diapers and other baby items, which cannot be purchased with SNAP funds and are even harder to come by for their clients. Needed items include diapers of all sizes. Target brand diapers are good and less expensive than some of the major brands. Smaller size packages are best for them so they do not have to separate and re-package the diapers before handing them out.

Other baby necessities requested are size 4T-5T pullups, diaper rash cream, baby wipes (and more baby wipes!). Costco has large boxes of baby wipes with nine packages of baby wipes inside. We will be collecting your items in the Narthex or they can be left in Room 202, The Gathering Spot. Links for Costco and Target are below.

Thursday, October 23 -- The AGAPE Center

Northside Drive volunteers will serve dinner to three groups of students who participate in the afterschool programs, approximately 150 children kindergarten to 6th grade. The time is 5 PM to 7:30 PM; however, if you can't do the full 2 ½ hours, we have slots for 5 PM to 6:15 PM and 6:15 PM to 7:30 PM. Please contact Catherine Campbell to sign up at: cdcn@aol.com.

More missions opportunities are being planned as well. We are looking forward to another work day at Urban Recipe and ways for our children and youth to be involved and inspired. Thank you for your continued support and commitment to our missions activities.

Lil Kiddos Soft Play Zone

Sign Up for Trunk or Treat

Please consider decorating your car's trunk and passing out candy (no nuts please) to about 50-75 kids. This is a wonderful time to have fun with our church family, to introduce ourselves to visitors from the community, and to get to know our Kiddos' families. Our own Cali Almeida is the DJ this year!

There is a sign-up sheet on the Narthex table, or contact Virginia Gilbert at 770 617-1809, or email her at gilbertva3@gmail.com. If you are decorating a trunk, please arrive between 3:15 and 3:30 PM to get in the line of decorated trunks. Please join us even if you can't decorate a trunk. Volunteers are also needed to help with set up and tear down. We hope to see you there! Don't miss out on this fun event!
