You are not Alone: God is Speaking to You

- What is something that you identified with from Sergio's testimony last Sunday?
 - He continuously heard from God.
 - Through his former co-worker who invited him to church.
 - Through the pastor the first time he went to church who seemed to design the sermon for Sergio.
 - The preacher from Mexico who had the prophetic word for the "man in Philadelphia" to go to church.
- Everyone Answer: Share something that was hard that you believe God was telling you to do.
 - Were you obedient to His voice or did you shy away?
 - How do you know it was God speaking to you?
 - How do you discern His voice from other voices we hear in the world?
- Read Acts 9:1-19
 - In your own words, what did Saul hear from God? What did Ananias hear from God?
 - In what ways can you identify with the message that Saul heard from God?
 - In what ways can you identify with the message the Ananias heard from God?
 - Make a list of why it might have been hard for Saul to obey God's voice.
 - Make a list of why it might have been hard for Ananias to obey God's voice.
- In his teaching, Pastor Dave taught us that one of the components of being able to hear God's voice is to "Practice Hearing Him".
 - What do you think it means to practice hearing?
 - What are some disciplines you have instilled in your life to actively listen to God?
 - How do you daily practice the presence of God in all of your daily scenarios?
 - What do you think it means to dedicate time and space to God?
- As a group, practice at least for 1 minute of silence, listening to God.
