

Lunchbox Notes From Jesus

Send your kids off to school each day with a fun reminder that Jesus loves them and is always with them.

These Lunchbox Notes From Jesus are taken from the book "Notes From Jesus," and are meant to be an uplifting note from their best friend. Plus, there's room on the back for you to write your own note of encouragement!

Note: Please print front and back so the notes line up correctly. Then simply cut them out and they're ready to use.

A square box with a teal border containing seven horizontal teal lines, spaced evenly for writing.

A square box with a yellow border containing seven horizontal yellow lines, spaced evenly for writing.

A square box with a yellow border containing seven horizontal yellow lines, spaced evenly for writing.

A square box with a red border containing seven horizontal red lines, spaced evenly for writing.

Handwriting practice box with a red border and seven red horizontal lines.

Handwriting practice box with a teal border and seven teal horizontal lines.

Handwriting practice box with a teal border and seven teal horizontal lines.

Handwriting practice box with a yellow border and seven yellow horizontal lines.

Handwriting practice box with a yellow border and seven yellow horizontal lines.

Handwriting practice box with a red border and seven red horizontal lines.