Lectio 365	Mobile App	Pray the Bible by meditating on the scriptures and asking God to speak through them. The app has short devotionals for morning and evening so you can open and close each day with God. Readings are divided into topical units, for example, "The Names of God." Available in written and audio format and devotionals can be downloaded a week in advance to be read or listened to later.	24-7 Prayer: An international, interdenominational prayer movement started in 1999, when a student-led prayer vigil went viral and groups all over the world joined in to pray. 24/7 Prayer offers another app for families with young children.	Find links to the app here.
Through the Bible in a Year	Printed Brochure	Undated list of 365 daily readings can be started at any time. Each day includes one reading from Old Testament and one reading from New Testament. The readings are divided into "logical" sections, ending at the end of a chapter or story, or major section heading.	Canadian Bible Society	Pick up a printed copy in the literature displays at church.
Disciplines	Printed Book and/or Digital Subscription	A year of dated daily scripture readings including a devotion, scripture overview and questions and suggestions for reflection. Each week is written by a single author on a particular theme. Uses the Revised Common Lectionary - a three-year cycle of scripture texts following the liturgical year.	Upper Room: A ministry of the United Methodist Church Board of Discipleship.	Purchase a digital subscription to receive each day's meditation in your email and to access an audio recording of each week's Gospel reading. Your subscription also allows you to view each day's reading on the Upper Room website. The digital subscription gives you immediate access to today's reading.
