Scripture

Hebrews 12: 1-2 (NRSVue)

¹Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, ²looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

Sermon

Running the Race
Becca Sanders Bruner

*Doxology

Praise God from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him all creatures here below;
Praise Him above ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

Offertory We've Come This Far by Faith

Chorus:

We've come this far by faith, leaning on the Lord,
trusting in His holy Word, He never failed me yet.
Oh, can't turn around, we've come this far by faith.

Just the other day, I heard a man say
He didn't believe in God's Word,
But I can truly say that I have found the way,
And He's never failed me yet. Oh!

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.
Amen.

LGPCPrays

Prayer is the primary work of God's people. It is a vital connection to God where we can hear from, listen to, and respond to the Lord. Here are some ways you can pray this week...

Comfort for the family of Rev. Pete Stidd who passed away Sept 11. Memorial plans are pending.

MissionPartners

Praise the Lord for the many ways God has used our congregation in the mission field during its first 100 years of existence—from Lake Grove to “the end of the earth”. Ask God to continue to guide us in mission outreach, coming alongside the vulnerable with Food-Water-Shelter and the love and message of Christ.

Lake Grove Centennial Litany of Dedication

One: Holy are You, God Almighty, the one who was, and is, and is to come.

All: It is in You that we live, and move, and have our being.

One: By Your great love and mercy, You have made us alive in Christ, and called us to be one body united in Christ.

All: And so we are, each of us called to our part, equally valued, equally needed. Honoring all, we submit ourselves to Your way of sacrificial love, building up the body of Christ, and exhibiting Your love to the world.

One: You, God, establish the work of our hands and call us to live faithfully in the days we have been given.

All: With Your help, we will live these days with joy and wisdom, making the most of every opportunity to share Your grace, and making every effort to live a life worthy of our calling.

One: Standing on Your sure promises and faithfulness, we eagerly embrace the future and accept the responsibility of leading and living lives of worship and mission, discipleship and nurturing fellowship.

All: With Your help, we promise to seek You first and to love You with all our mind, heart, soul, and strength and to love our neighbors as ourselves.

One: We fix our eyes on Jesus...

All: ...the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, we lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and run with perseverance the race You have set before us.

One: To God be the glory!

All: Great is Your faithfulness!

Lake Grove Centennial Litany of Thanksgiving

One: Lord, You have been our refuge from one generation to another;

All: Before the mountains were brought forth, or the land and the sea were born, from eternity to eternity, You are God.

One: In Your eternal wisdom You planted a church on this site; and we thank You, O God, for the faithful saints who chartered and grew this congregation.

All: We give You thanks for their perseverance through economic hardship, times of war, and other calamities.

One: We thank You that we are part of Your universal Church, past, present, and future, and we also thank You for this particular place where we experience Your presence among us...

All: ...in Your Word faithfully proclaimed, in awe-inspiring music, in Sacrament, in fellowship, and in shared mission beyond these walls.

One: For these things we give You thanks, O God. For deacons, elders, and pastors who have led and loved us, equipping us for the work of ministry,

All: We give You thanks, O God. For disciples old and young who have been nurtured here in faith, walking in the ways of Jesus,

One: We give You thanks, O God. We stand upon their shoulders, grateful for their example, wanting to pass it on to the children of this church.

All: And we give You thanks for opportunities still before us, in worship and mission, in nurture, discipleship, and fellowship. Please give us boldness to embrace the future.

One: With hearts strengthened by the love of Christ, let all God's people confirm their gratitude together:

All: Hallelujah and Amen!

 4 Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly! Lord God Al-might-y!

Ear-ly in the morn-ing our song shall rise to thee.
 cast-ing down their gold-en crowns a-round the glass-y sea;
 though the eye of sin-ful-ness thy glo-ry may not see,
 All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea.

Much of the imagery of this hymn comes from Revelation 4:2–11, which its author, an Anglican bishop, knew as a reading appointed for Trinity Sunday. The tune, written specifically for this text, reinforces the Trinitarian theme by strong dependence on the D-major triad.

This African American gospel hymn can well be understood as an updated adaptation of Psalm 5:8, with the “enemies” of the psalm treated as the pressures and temptations of daily life. As with the psalms, the “I” here is understood to express a shared communal experience.

Written as a meditation on Lamentations 3:22–23, this text is one of the few hymns among the 1200 poems by this Methodist writer and pastor that has gained much currency. The tune that appears here was composed especially for these words, and the pairing has proved enduring.
