JUNE 15TH | 9:30 AM SANCTUARY

Welcome to Lake Grove Church!

We are traveling through an extraordinary time of worship, learning, growth, and hope this summer. We are grateful that you have chosen to join us on our journey as we look to God's Word for opportunities to grow in faith and service for Jesus and his church!

TODAY'S WORSHIP SERVICE

*please stand if able

Prelude Morning Has Broken arr. A. Royce Eckhardt

Welcome

Church Alive

*Call to Worship Adapted from Psalm 8 The Message One: God, brilliant Lord, yours is a household name. I look up at your macro-skies, dark and enormous, and wonder, why do you bother with us? Why take a second look our way?

All: Yet we've so narrowly missed being gods. You put us in charge of your handcrafted world, and made us stewards of sheep, cattle, and all animals out in the wild.

One: God, brilliant Lord,

All: Your name echoes around the world.

One: Let us worship our Creator God!

*Hymn 15

All Creatures of Our God and King (vs. 1, 2, 3, 6)

*Prayer of Adoration

Anthem Creation Sings Creation sings the Father's song, He calls the sun to wake the dawn And run the course of day, 'till evening falls in crimson rays. His fingerprints in flakes of snow, his breath upon this spinning globe; He charts the eagle's flight, commands the newborn baby's cry.

Hallelujah! Let all creation stand and sing. Hallelujah! Fill the earth with songs of worship, Tell the wonders of creation's King.

Creation gazed upon his face. The ageless One in time's embrace Unveiled the Father's plan of reconciling God to man. A second Adam walked the earth, whose blameless life would break the curse, Whose death would set us free to live with him eternally.

Creation longs for his return when Christ shall reign upon the earth. The bitter wars that rage are birthpains of a coming age. When he renews the land and sky, all heaven will sing and earth reply With one resplendent theme: the glory of our God and King!

Hallelujah! Let all creation stand and sing. Hallelujah! Fill the earth with songs of worship, Tell the wonders of creation's King.

Creation sings the Father's song. He calls the sun to wake the dawn. Let all creation stand and sing, hallelujah! arr. Lloyd Larson ©2017 Thankyou Music CCLI #207039

Unison Prayer of Confession

O blessed Trinity, in whom we know the Maker of all things, seen and unseen, the Savior of all, both near and far. We confess that we stumble when we attempt to understand the way you reveal yourself to us as the three-in-one God. Forgive our fickleness in seeking after you. By your Spirit, enable us to worship your divine majesty, so that with all the company of heaven, we may comprehend the fullness of your being and magnify your glorious name; through Christ our Lord. Amen

Assurance of Pardon

*Sung Response O for a thousand tongues to sing my great Redeemer's praise, the glories of my God and King, the triumphs of his grace!

* Passing of the Peace One: The peace of Christ be with you. All: And also with you.

Scripture

Genesis 1:1-5 NSRVue

<sup>1</sup>When God began to create the heavens and the earth, <sup>2</sup>the earth was complete chaos, and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God[b] swept over the face of the waters. <sup>3</sup>Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. <sup>4</sup>And God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup>God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

John 1:1-5 NSRVue

<sup>1</sup>In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. <sup>2</sup>He was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup>All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being <sup>4</sup>in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. <sup>5</sup>The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overtake it.

John 16:12-15 NSRVue

<sup>12</sup>"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. <sup>13</sup>When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. <sup>14</sup>He will glorify me because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. <sup>15</sup>All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

Next week's passage: Luke 8:26-39

Prayers of God's People & Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

6 O sisters, brothers, take your part, and worship God with humble heart. Alleluia! Alleluia! All creatures, bless the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Three in One! Sing praises! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Sometimes called "The Canticle of the Sun," this cosmic roll call allows human beings to give voice to all creation. One of the earliest religious poems in the Italian language, it is made even more expansive by this broad, repetitive melody with interspersed "Alleluias."

JESUS CHRIST: LIFE

Few songs of faith have supported people from cradle to grave like this one. The great theologian Karl Barth said that its opening two lines were a summary of all that he had learned. The composer formed the refrain from those lines when creating this universally used tune.

Addressing the first two stanzas to the singers of the hymn and the last three to God, this free paraphrase of Psalm 104 recasts the psalmist's imagery with baroque verve. Though it was first published in England, the tune has been more popular in North America than there.
