*Call to Worship

(Psalm 117)

One: Praise the Lord, all you nations:

All: Extol God, all you peoples.

One: For great is God's love toward us,

All: And the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever.

One: Praise the Lord. Let us worship and praise our God!

Anthem Show Us How to Love

Hearts open, minds awake, change us now for heaven's sake.

Leave us not alone in hatred's wake.

Show us how to love.

Hearts open, souls awake, rules we made we now must break.

With our very own lives at stake

We must learn to love.

Eyes open, shocked awake, much to learn from our mistakes.

Draw us closer in our heartache.

Show us how to love.

Unison Prayer of Confession

Loving God,

You have created each one of us with love and joy. We are wonderfully made. You have known us from the moment we came into being and your love will be with us our whole life long. Sometimes we forget about your love and we look to others for what we are to receive from you. When we feel bad about ourselves, we sometimes point out other people's mistakes just to make our own hearts feel better. Forgive us and remind us of your love that heals us and provides for our needs. Help us look for you always and keep up our courage and strength to know and trust you are truly good. Help us love others as we want to be loved for this is what you ask of us.

(a moment of silence)

Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

*Sung Response Hymn 469

Lord, listen to your children praying.

Lord, send your Spirit in this place.

Lord, listen to your children praying.

Send us love; send us power; send us grace.

*Passing of the Peace

One: The peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

*Hymn 658

Scripture

Matthew 7:1-12 NIV

¹“Do not judge, or you too will be judged. ²For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

³“Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? ⁴How can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? ⁵You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

⁶“Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

⁷“Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. ⁸For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

⁹“Which of you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? ¹¹If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him! ¹²So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.

LGPC Prays

Prayer is the primary work of God's people. It is a vital connection to God where we can hear from, listen to, and respond to the Lord. Here are some ways you can pray this week...

Comfort for the family of Nancy McNeill as they mourn her passing. A memorial service will be held in the Sanctuary on Saturday, June 20th at 1:00pm.

Mission Partners

Local: Manna Ministry - Pray for an increase in food donations considering the increased need during a time of decreased social service; pray also for new volunteers to gather donations each week to help fill crucial food needs in our community.

Lake Oswego Transitional Shelter Ministry (LOTSM) - Pray for the families served by "LOTSM" as they move toward self-sufficiency. Pray for another person from Lake Grove with a heart for supporting people in this process.

If you would like to receive or be included on the weekly churchwide prayer chain, please email: prayer@lakegrovepres.org.

SUNDAY, JUNE 28 AFTER WORSHIP
FELLOWSHIP HALL

For the Beauty of the Earth 14

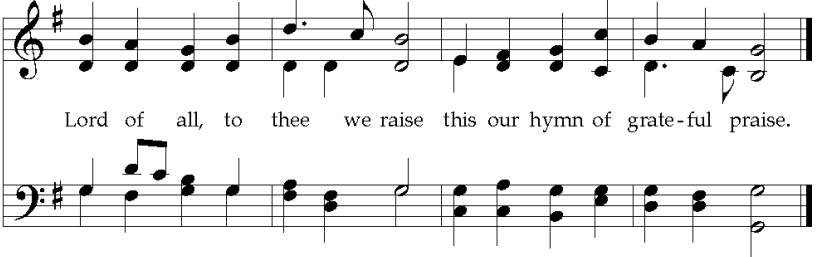

1 For the beau-ty of the earth, for the glo-ry of the skies,
 2 For the won-der of each hour of the day and of the night,
 3 For the joy of ear and eye, for the heart and mind's de-light,
 4 For the joy of hu-man love, broth-er, sis-ter, par-ent, child,
 5 For thy-self, best gift di-vine to the world so free-ly given;

for the love which from our birth o-ver and a-round us lies:
 hill and vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light:
 for the mys-tic har-mo-ny link-ing sense to sound and sight:
 friends on earth, and friends a-bove, for all gen-tle thoughts and mild:
 for that great, great love of thine, peace on earth and joy in heaven:

Refrain

Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grate-ful praise.

In the course of many revisions, the original eucharistic emphasis of this text has shifted to a hymn of thanksgiving for a wide range of human experience, with a Christological summation. It is set here to the tune that is customary in North America, though not elsewhere.

God Is So Good

658

1 God is so good; God is so good;
 2 God cares for me; God cares for me;
 3 God loves me so; God loves me so;
 4 God is so good; God is so good;

God is so good; God's so good to me.
 God cares for me; God's so good to me.
 God loves me so; God's so good to me.
 God is so good; God's so good to me.

The exact origins of this chorus celebrating God's providential care are not clear, but it seems to have arisen during the 1970s. Because the text changes so little, the slowly rising four-note pattern of the tune provides the primary source of energy within its five-note range.

A parish priest at St. Brendan's on the South Side of Chicago in the 1960s was very involved in the local Civil Rights movement and needed something for his youth choir to sing at ecumenical, interracial events. Finding nothing, he wrote this song in a single day.
