PRAYER REQUESTS

- Prayers for Larry Smith, and his son Clay, who are both healing from injuries.
- Continued prayers for Rick Jones as he recovers from surgery.
- Phoebe Lusk's teacher, Sandy Yates', as her cancer has returned and starts chemo. Pray for her treatment and for her class as she goes through treatment.
- Liz Lusk's friend, Cari Maxwell, is having a kidney transplant Nov. 3 at Mayo in Florida. Pray for her and her living donor to have a routine surgery and a quick recovery.
- Carol Hartman who is in the hospital, prayers for healing and recovery.
- Serval people in our congregation are seeking employment, please continue to pray for them.
- Prayers for Cindy Bacon, a friend of Diane Weigle's. Cindy's husband had an aortic dissection but most of his organs are failing. Prayers for healing.
- Bob McMurtrey, who is going through rehab at Mercy.
- Praise for the birth of Jane Evans McGill. Proud parents are Michael and Maggie, Grandparents are Patti and Russell McGill.

SCRIPTURE

NEHEMIAH 4:1-6

When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and was greatly incensed. He ridiculed the Jews, 2 and in the presence of his associates and the army of Samaria, he said, "What are those feeble Jews doing? Will they restore their wall? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they bring the stones back to life from those heaps of rubble—burned as they are?"

3 Tobiah the Ammonite, who was at his side, said, "What they are building—even a fox climbing up on it would break down their wall of stones!"

4 Hear us, our God, for we are despised. Turn their insults back on their own heads. Give them over as plunder in a land of captivity. 5 Do not cover up their guilt or blot out their sins from your sight, for they have thrown insults in the face of the builders.
6 So we rebuilt the wall till all of it reached half its height, for the people worked with all their heart.
