THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

3rd Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

"He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him." Mark 1:19-20

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME GOSPEL MEDITATION

We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable. Lying is a god-like power. Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first. But soon reality snaps back, and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie, I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins his ministry by proclaiming: "Repent!" We tend to think it means "stop doing bad things," but it doesn't. It literally means "go beyond the mind you have." Think in a new way. It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier. To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, "I'm done lying" and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, "I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words..." Repentance and truth-telling work together.

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well. The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous. Rather, it is freedom from falsehood and entrance into the real world. This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper. Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated: Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies.

~ Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, January 28th Readings

Sunday: Dt 18:15-20/Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 7-9 (8)/
1 Cor 7:32-35/Mk 1:21-28

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, January 28th

- Moses taught the Israelites that God would raise up a prophet like him to teach them the Lord's commands. But he also forewarned about false prophets. How can we avoid listening to false prophetic voices?
- Paul expresses his desire for the Corinthian believers to be free of anxiety so they can focus their attention and energies on Jesus. What distracts you from the Lord?
- Mark informs us that early in Jesus's public ministry his "fame spread" quickly throughout Galilee because of his powerful deeds, such as the healing of the demon-possessed man in today's reading. Is there something or someone in your life that you pray Jesus would heal?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

A GOOD TIME FOR FULFILLMENT

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

There are some things that always come at the worst time. I've never gotten a telemarketing call and thought, "This is a really convenient moment for me to listen to a sales pitch." I've never seen the compulsory software update notice flash on my computer screen when I didn't have a deadline I was struggling to meet. My kids never come down with the flu unless it's the weekend and the line at Urgent Care is stretching out the door.

And I never, ever feel the calm, persistent shoulder-tap of the Holy Spirit without thinking, "Now? Now is not a good time. Can you try again when I'm..."

But then I stop and think: when I am what? When I am stronger? When I am happier? When I am smarter? When I am a different person?

When God calls us, He calls the person He sees in front of Him. "Come on," He says, and He doesn't mean "When you're finished" or "When it's convenient" or "Think about it." He means now. This moment.

This is what Paul is saying when he writes that "the world in its present form is passing away." He is saying that your plans mean nothing, the kingdom of God is at hand. Abandon your nets, let your catch escape into the sea. You're not who you thought you were, and you don't need what you thought you needed.

Your sins do not define you. Your fears are not fate. Your inclinations do not govern you. Your life can be changed. We live in the time of fulfillment, and fulfillment is coming for you — ready or not.

"Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: 'This is the time of fulfillment.'" — Mark 1:14

DOES GOD FORGIVE ABORTION?

Question:

Can a person (the mother, father, or provider) ever be forgiven for an abortion?

Answer:

For people of faith, any conversation of human sinfulness should always lead us to reflect on God's loving mercy. Because God's mercy is greater than any sin, the Church is clear that even those involved in the sin of abortion can be reconciled with God and the Church. To help make this grace more available through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Pope Francis extended the permission to absolve someone of the sin of abortion to all priests in 2016.

Even with the grace and blessings of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the tragedy of abortion and the aftermath of abortion takes a toll on everyone involved. Ministries of outreach and support, such as Project Rachel, offer pastoral counseling, support groups, retreats, and other forms of care. As Christians, we are also called to help promote this healing and reconciliation in all its forms. To learn more, visit www.hopeafterabortion.com.

COLD & FLU SEASON

As we find ourselves in the midst of cold and flu season, we ask you to be mindful of others if you are feeling under the weather. Be sure to wash your hands and cough and/or sneeze into tissues or your arm to protect those around you from germs. If you are so ill that you cannot attend Mass, we recommend that you tune into our livestream instead. We thank you for your consideration in keeping our priests, staff, and community healthy throughout this winter!

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Chicken Broth, Laundry Detergent, Shampoo, Canned Chicken Breast, Pasta Sides, Manwich, Peaches

On this the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus says in the Gospel: "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." As disciples, we are called to continue God's work on earth. Taking care of God's poor is indeed living gospel values.

Have you considered answering the call to join the St. Charles Society of St. Vincent de Paul? As members of the SVDP, we are not simply "volunteers." Rather, ours is a vocation. It is more than a set of activities or membership in a club. Our vocation is a call from God, an invitation to follow a pathway towards the perfection that He wishes for us. You may not always recognize His voice, but when He calls you, you answer, and you pass His call to the "neighbor" by living your faith and loving the neighbor as yourself. If you are interested in becoming a member of the SVDP ministry of service to the poor and needy, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you are in need of assistance or know someone that is in need, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

The food pantry will be closed when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will open the following week, weather permitting.

DO YOU ENJOY SHARING GOD'S LOVE? Bring Communion to Those in Need!

There are many St. Charles parishioners who are homebound or reside at Heritage Lake Country Senior Living and are unable to celebrate the Holy Eucharist with others each week at Mass. For many of these individuals, it is the hardest part about being homebound. We are looking for volunteers to bring the Holy Eucharist to our fellow parishioners either at their home or at Heritage Lake Country residence. Do you enjoy sharing God's love? Please consider this most worthwhile ministry. For more information, please call Kerry Shannon at 262-696-4128 for Homebound Ministry or call Mary Walker at 262-370-5006 for the Heritage location. You can also contact the Parish Office at 262-367-0800.

This Monday, January 22, the Church in the United States observes the annual “Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children.” This day is set aside to pray for the legal protection of human life and to do penance for the violations to human dignity through abortion. We are called to observe this day through prayer and penance. More information: respectlife.org/january-22.

Healing after Abortion

If you or someone you know is suffering after abortion, confidential, compassionate help is available. Visit HopeAfterAbortion.org.

“There is such a wide spectrum of issues involving the protection of human life and the promotion of human dignity. Good people frequently disagree on which problems to address, which policies to adopt and how best to apply them. But for citizens and elected officials alike, the basic principle is simple: We must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing, of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. In other words, the choice of certain ways of acting is always and radically incompatible with the love of God and the dignity of the human person created in His image.”
