THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This week we hear of the man who inquires of Jesus how to obtain eternal life. He rejects Jesus' invitation to sell his goods, give to the poor, and follow Jesus. Mark tells us this devastatingly sad line, "At this saying, his countenance fell and he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions" (Mark 10:22). The man's heart wasn't centered on Jesus but on his possessions. Perhaps Jesus intuited this. Now, we don't know if Jesus intended to actually make him go through with it, like God's call to test Abraham's willingness to sacrifice Isaac. But sadly, in this case the willingness was not there to entrust everything to Jesus. And this made the man deeply sad.

For most of us, the literal dispossessing of our goods is not our call. But as Christians, a consistent renouncing of them is. This week, especially if you're noticing a persisting sadness, I invite you to hear Jesus calling you to acknowledge that none of your possessions are finally yours. They are God's and on loan to you. We get so addicted to that stuffy and sad word, "mine." At Mass, we rehearse this attitude of joyful detachment by giving bread, wine, and money to the Lord, as if to say, "Lord, all I have is yours." And what we get back is a sadness-defeating joy beyond all description: knowing that He is ours, and we are His.

What possessions are pre-occupying you at the moment? Write them down. Intentionally offer them to the Lord at the next Mass you attend.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE Lectio Diving

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, October 20th Readings

Is 53:10-11/Ps 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22, (22)/Heb 4:14-16/ Mk 10:35-45 or 10:42-45

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings.

Reflection questions for Sunday, October 20th

- The prophet Isaiah sees how suffering can have a positive outcome. How do you help family members or friends who are struggling?
- The author of Hebrews encourages us to be confident in asking for "timely help" from the Lord. In what ways do you need the Lord's help today?
- Jesus teaches James and John that humility and service to others is what defines greatness in the kingdom of God. How might you be of service to a friend or co-worker this week?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

St. Charles Parish

Mass of Hope and Healing

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15TH AT 7:00 PM

The Mass is for individuals and families who have suffered the loss of a child during or after pregnancy or at any stage of life.

We welcome you to arrive early to record your child's name(s) in the book of remembrance in the Narthex and light a candle at the foot of the altar before Mass.

There will be a light reception in the Borromeo Hall following the Mass so you may enjoy fellowship and share stories.

ADORERS NEEDED

We would love to have you join us in our Perpetual Adoration Chapel! We are currently in need of a handful of Adorers to spend time with the Lord. Our UPDATED open time slots are as follows:

Mondays from 8-9 pm

Tuesdays from 8-9 am, 11 am-12 pm, and 4-5 pm

Wednesdays from 2-3 am, 4-5 am, and 9-10 am

Thursdays from 1-2 am, 5-6 am and 8-9 pm

Fridays from 6-7 pm

If you are interested in praying with us during these times, please visit the News story on our website.

BLESSING OF THE PETS

St. Charles celebrated the Feast of St. Francis with our annual Pet Blessing on October 6th. Many people bring their pets to the church to be blessed to honor St. Francis' feast day (October 4th) because of his love for animals as expressed in his Canticle of Creatures.

BE A HOLY DUSTER

Our church is kept clean by a group of parishioners who do weekly cleaning to keep St. Charles looking its best. We are in need of additional volunteers. Most of our cleaning is done on Tuesdays and Thursdays right after morning Mass, adjusted for funeral Masses or other activities. If Tuesday or Thursday morning does not work for you, there are tasks that may be done at other times or days. Sign up for one day a week, month, or when you are available. Please contact Lynn Rose with any questions or to sign up for a time that works for you at 262-894-9940, Irosecardenas@gmail.com or the Holy Dusters SignUpGenius on our website.

SHARE YOUR LOVE OF THE EUCHARIST

Eucharistic ministers are needed to bring JESUS to Heritage Lake Country, a senior living facility. This would only require a two-hour commitment on a Tuesday morning per month. Training is provided, and you will be paired up with another Eucharistic minister. If you feel called to serve in this gratifying ministry, please contact the Parish Office at 262-367-0800. Thank you!

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Montessori Religious Education

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS) CORNER

What is it? A window into a child's capacity for a relationship with God, particularly through their participation in the Mass. We hope to share some suggestions for nurturing the children's religious life - during Mass and within the family.

When I first heard about CGS, I thought it was another variation of the typical religious education program. Now that I have been immersed in it for a year, I see it is so much more. I began to observe children ages 1-12 in Mass and notice what they see, hear and experience. I watched in the atrium (classroom) and saw glimmers of the children's own relationships with God at a profound level. Seeing through their eyes focused me on what is most essential in Mass, the bible and our faith. I hope it, too, will deepen your experience in the Mass and with God and in your family.

Lisa Dedinsky, CGS Catechist

Our Literati Book Fair is coming soon! School students will be able to visit the fair and purchase items on November 1st, 4th, 6th and 7th, and parents are welcome to shop during Parent/ Teacher Conferences on Nov. 4th & 5th by the school library.

The Book Fair will also be open before and after all Masses on Saturday, November 2 and Sunday, November 3 in the Borromeo Hall entrance (old narthex area). This is a great opportunity for parishioners to start Christmas shopping while supporting our school!

For more information and/or to check out the online store, please visit the News story on our website.
