THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis, and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John and his brother James demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory" (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indignant reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way he does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But he does highlight their ignorance ("you do not know what you are asking"). Then he invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory but his cup of self-giving suffering love to be the "slave of all." The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear him call you to an even greater victory.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, October 27th Readings

Jer 31:7-9/Ps 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6 (3)/Heb 5:1-6/Mk 10:46-52

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, October 27th

- Jeremiah speaks of a joyful future awaiting those Israelites who were in captivity in Babylon. What are some things you are looking forward to with joy?
- Hebrews teaches us that God glorified Christ by making him the eternal "high priest." What are some gifts you have received from God?
- The blind man Bartimaeus pleaded to Jesus, and Jesus healed him, saying, "your faith has saved you." What worries or fears do you need to bring to the Lord?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

STEWARDSHIP OF PRAYER: THE ROSARY

In the midst of our busy lives, October strikes a peaceful note. Summer travel is over, and we're back into a routine. Crisp football weather and vibrant autumn colors abound, and the snow shovels remain out of sight. The holiday rush lies weeks in the future, with the simple pleasures of Halloween the only red-letter date on our calendars.

If October provides a bit of a lull in a hectic world, how appropriate that October is designated the month of the Rosary. The popularity of the Rosary has waxed and waned in recent years, but perhaps nothing testifies to the Rosary's strength and durability more than the example of James Foley, the American journalist beheaded by the terror group ISIL in 2014. A Marquette University graduate, Foley had earlier been captured and held captive in Libya. Released from that first captivity, he told his alma mater that prayer had seen him through the ordeal. "I began to pray the Rosary. It was what my mother and grandmother would have prayed."

Indeed, millions of Catholic women still sleep with the Rosary under their pillow or by their bedside. Next to the crucifix, it's probably the most common Catholic sacramental in our homes. Yet, sometimes, we neglect to pray the Rosary. Why? Perhaps it was those childhood Rosaries, with our minds wandering to the playground as we waited for the droning of repetitive prayers to end. But if it's just meaningless recitation, it's not what the Rosary is meant to be. Perhaps it's more of an adult prayer than we realize.

The Rosary presents a unique combination of recitation and meditation. The simple cadence it presents helps our minds give way to mystery. Does anything slow down our frantic lives like the slow recitation and meditation of this ancient prayer? Tradition tells us the Rosary was given to St. Dominic by Our Lady herself in the 12th Century. The Rosary has remained a popular devotion over the centuries, a favorite of popes and peasants alike. The Rosary, Pope Leo XIII declared, "is composed of two parts, distinct but inseparable — the meditation on the mysteries and the recitation of the prayers. It is thus a kind of prayer that requires not only some raising of the soul to God, but also a particular and explicit attention" (Incunda semper). October is the ideal time of year to once again savor the mysteries of the Rosary.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS) CORNER

Bringing our children to Mass

We would all love to see our children fully engaged during Mass. As parents, we know that while they might not look fully engaged, children are often watching, listening, and absorbing. More is going on inside than we can see. How about experiencing Mass with your child/ren in a new way? See through their eyes as you walk into the church and throughout the Mass.

1-3 year-olds

They may notice the overall beauty; praying, standing, kneeling, sitting; going to receive communion. Maybe comment on what you see; "We all sit," "Now we pray." Keeping it simple, without expecting a response, focuses them on what they are absorbing and experiencing.

6-8 year-olds

Observe them from time to time. Notice when they seem most focused, remembering each child's different ways of attention and that moving bodies can help to keep ears listening. After the Mass, you might wonder with them about a part you saw them noticing; "I wonder what that meant." Or "I wonder why the priest did that." Again, a response is not necessary. If they offer one, follow their lead. Wondering with them is powerful - it allows them to engage in their own profound encounter with God.

Children are great imitators. Model for them both in action during Mass and in your own wondering questions after. Maybe seeing through their eyes will bring a part of the Mass to you in a new and profound way.
