THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

LUKE 3:15-16, 21-22

In my second year of theology studies, I went to confession to a priest visiting the seminary for a three-day retreat. My heart wasn't in it. I was going through the motions. I confessed my sins and waited for his response. The priest said, "For your penance, I'd like you to go into the chapel and repeat the words 'You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased' (Luke 3:22) until they mean something to you." Easy penance, I thought.

But to my surprise, I struggled to say those words. I sensed a strong interior resistance blocking them. How could God be well-pleased with me? He couldn't be, I thought. A battle within me ensued. Two hours later, the resistance vanished, and I found myself able to speak and claim as my own those marvelous words. I emerged from the chapel with a new, deep, peaceful conviction that I was indeed God's beloved son.

Those words are a precious gift from heaven to all of us. Jesus' baptism, which we celebrate this week, offers them to us. Are we willing to receive these words anew? Many things can block this deepening of our baptismal identity: failings, sins, disappointments, traumas, problems, and so on. Yet God's love is always greater. This week I challenge you to prayerfully repeat these words over yourself — or perhaps over someone you're struggling to love — until those words find a home in your heart.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, January 19th Readings

Is 62:1-5/Ps 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10 (3)/1 Cor 12:4-11/Jn 2:1-11

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, January 19th

- Isaiah spoke of God's delight in Jerusalem and desire to see Israel as His spouse. What married couples do you know who genuinely take delight in each other?
- Paul taught the Corinthians that the gifts of the Holy Spirit to individuals are meant to benefit and unify the community. What gifts do you have that you think benefit others?
- After all the wine was consumed, Jesus turned water into wine for the bride and groom at the wedding. When have you received an unexpected gift from someone?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

FROM FR. ARIEL

Dear St. Charles Family,

As you may know, I was assigned to St. Charles for three years, and my assignment here ends this upcoming May. Typically, after the end of their first assignment, priests of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee are sent to another parish to be pastors or fulfill other priestly roles. In my case, Jeffrey Grob, the new Archbishop of Milwaukee, has asked me to be his personal secretary and Master of Ceremonies. I also have been appointed part-time vocations promoter, so I will be working with our very own Fr. Michael Malucha. This appointment comes with a great deal of surprise and excitement but not without some sadness. While I wish I could stay at St. Charles longer, I am being called to serve and share my gifts in this new position, which will require me to do a lot of learning. Archbishop Grob has graciously agreed to let me stay here until the end of May as I gradually transition into my new position. Please pray for me throughout this time. Thank you for all your prayers and support, and please know that I am still here until May and will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

THURSDAY MORNING MEN'S GROUP

The Thursday Morning Men's Group invites all men of the parish to join this semester for a leadership course training on how to "Reach More" people in your life. If you've been desiring to have a greater impact on the lives of those around you, this is for you! The group meets at 5:30am on Thursday mornings for breakfast, videos and discussion starting January 16th. Hope to see you there!

ADORERS NEEDED

We would love to have you join us in our Perpetual Adoration Chapel! We are currently in need of a handful of Adorers to spend time with the Lord. Our open time slots can be viewed online. If you are interested in praying with us during these times, please visit the News story on our website.

Archbishop Grob is being installed at the Cathedral on January 14. We will be welcoming him here at the parish with a very special Welcome Mass on Thursday, January 30 at 6:00pm. We invite all parishioners to consider attending this Mass so Archbishop Grob can receive a warm St. Charles welcome and experience the beauty of our liturgies. A reception will follow in Borromeo Hall. The sacrament of Reconciliation will be cancelled that afternoon.

THANK YOU KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS!

St. Charles Parish School would like to thank the Knights of Columbus for their continued financial support to enrich the academic and spiritual lives of our students. Over the last several years, the Knights of Columbus have fulfilled requests to supplement math, reading and STEM curriculum resources to meet the diverse and growing needs of our students. We are especially grateful for their financial support for our middle school students to embark on a pilgrimage this spring to The National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion, the first and only approved Marian apparition site in the US. We prayerfully anticipate the many seeds of faith this spiritual encounter will plant in the hearts of our youth. Thank you Knights of Columbus for your generous and continued support.
