THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
 LUKE 1:1-4, 4:14-21

A young couple in my parish told me they were expecting their second child, a baby boy. I knew that their five-year-old only child Emma had been desperately wanting to be a big sister for years, so I said, "Emma must have been so happy when you told her the news." "Actually," they said, "she burst into tears. She wanted a baby sister!" How often in life God wonderfully fulfills our desires and we are sad because we don't approve of the way he does it. We want to control the gift and the delivery method.

The same thing occurs in the Gospel this week when Jesus announces in his hometown that the promise of an Anointed One bringing glad tidings to the poor is "fulfilled in your hearing" (Luke 4:21). After a moment of elation, his fellow townsfolk realize this man is the way God is fulfilling his promises, and they erupt into a violent outburst. So Jesus departs. How sad for them.

Every single Sunday at Mass, including this one, some version of this happens to many of us. God's word announces the fulfillment of God's promises in Christ, and we easily overlook or disdain it. His way is almost never according to our narrow expectations. What's required of us is to set these aside and to embrace a new openness to God's gifts, no matter how he wishes to give them. God is fulfilling his promises the way He likes — why be sad?

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, February 2nd Readings

Next Sunday: Mal 3:1-4/Heb 2:14-18/Ps 24:7, 8, 9, 10/
 Lk 2:22-40 or 2:22-32

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, February 2nd

- Malachi prophesied a coming messenger who will purify those making offerings to the Lord. How do you prepare for Sunday worship?
- Hebrews teaches that Jesus was tested and suffered so that he could be merciful and understanding with our struggles and challenges. What are you facing this week that Jesus could help you with?
- Mary and Joseph received incredible news from Simeon and Anna about the infant Jesus at his presentation in the Temple. Who helps you process startling or unsettling information?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today’s reading from the Gospel of Luke offers us the first words of Jesus as he begins his public ministry. The words reflect his understanding of his Spirit-anointed mission. His words are his “Mission Statement.” Good stewards rejoice in being followers of Jesus. They realize that Jesus’ commission is their commission as well. They embrace it and adopt it as their own. We, too, have “glad tidings” to bring to a suffering world. This year, how will we fulfill Christ’s commission in the world in which he has placed us, using the gifts he has entrusted to us?

DEVOTIONS, EXPLAINED!

Connect With Tradition And Grow Your Faith

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE

Examination of Conscience, explained In Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians, the apostle writes that it is imperative for a Christian to reflect on his conscience before he partakes of Holy Eucharist: “Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup” (1 Corinthians 11:28). The practice of examining one’s conscience before seeking the Sacrament of Reconciliation thus dates to the very beginning of the Christian faith and was encouraged as a regular practice by many saints and founders of religious orders as a means of growing in virtue.

An examination of conscience, when it relates to the sacrament, simply means reflecting on one’s actions (and particularly the intentions behind those actions) since the penitent’s last absolution, making note of lapses in judgment that should be confessed. A good basis for this reflection can be the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes and the seven deadly sins.

Joy in life comes

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

These Evil Days

“Alas, that these evil days should be mine.”

If you’ve ever seen “The Lord of the Rings,” you might recognize this quote from “The Two Towers.” The words are spoken by King Theoden at the grave of his only son and heir as Theoden contemplates the coming war for Middle Earth, a war which has already claimed the life of his son, a war he wants no part of, a war that seems utterly hopeless and unwinnable.

These evil days.

You don’t have to be a fantasy enthusiast or even a Tolkien fan to identify with Theoden here. We have all experienced this same feeling of despair, perhaps increasingly in this age of technology and social media, when the ills of the whole world — violence, injustice, moral disorder and chaos — are in our faces, on our phones, looming over our days.

But when we despair like this, we forget an important truth: this is the time of fulfillment, and we are lucky enough to be living through it.

Yes, the world is broken. It was broken two thousand years ago, too, when Jesus stood up in the synagogue on the Sabbath and read the words of the prophet Isaiah: “He has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives... and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.”

Jesus didn’t come to fix the brokenness of the world. He came to fix our brokenness. He offers us not relief from the trials of life but an answer to the question of how to live in joy, in love and in purpose in the midst of these evil days.

CANDLEMAS AND BLESSING OF THE THROATS

The weekend of February 1 and 2 is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. As Catholics, we also celebrate the Feast of Candlemas, which comes 40 days after Christmas. All parishioners are invited to bring candles from home to be blessed at the beginning of every weekend Mass. As we take our candles home and enjoy their beautiful light, we are reminded that Christ is the Light of the World.

Monday, February 3 is the Feast of St. Blaise. According to legend, Bishop Blaise cured a young boy who was choking on a fish bone during the fourth century. Here at St. Charles, we will have a Throat Blessing on Monday at the 8:30 a.m. Daily Mass. We will also hold throat blessings on Tuesday at the 8:30 a.m. School Mass as well as on Thursday at the 9 a.m. School Mass. All parishioners are invited to attend and receive this special blessing.

EVENTS & NEWS AT ST. CHARLES PARISH SCHOOL

Catholic Schools Week: Please join St. Charles and Catholic schools around the nation in celebrating Catholic Schools Week from Sunday, January 26 through Saturday, February 1! Students and staff have different themed dress down days every day, participate in fun activities, and will even celebrate an all-school Mass at St. Josaphat Basilica in Milwaukee. Stay tuned for photos of these events in a future bulletin and keep our school community in your prayers!

Support Our School: A great way to support our school and show your appreciation for Catholic education throughout Catholic Schools Week is to prayerfully consider donating to our Annual Development Fund (ADF)! The ADF helps bridge the gap between the actual cost to educate a child at St. Charles and the current tuition. Annually, about 10% of our families receive assistance with tuition. We want to ensure that all students are able to attend St. Charles no matter their family's financial situation. We are hoping to reach our goal of $50,000 by the end of June. Thank you for continuing to support the mission of St. Charles Parish School!

Increase our zeal for ensuring that all children and families can benefit from an authentic Catholic education, and that Catholic schools grow in their ability to nurture the souls and form the minds of its students for generations to come.

We ask this through the intercession of Our Lady, Mother of Catholic Schools.

Amen.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Single Toothbrushes, Paper Towels, Toilet Paper, Jelly, Mayonnaise, Cleaning Supplies

In this Sunday's Gospel on the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus reads the words of scripture: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor." In the month of December, we had 114 families come to the Food Pantry, and we provided assistance to families for utility bills and rent.

A special thank you to St. Catherine's Parish in Mapleton for the food drive they held for our pantry. I would also like to thank all those that donate the items in the barrels at the back of church and for all the monetary donations. Your donations help us provide services to the needy people in our community.

The St. Charles SVPD Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you know of someone in need of our services, please call us at 262-367-0800.

The food pantry will be closed when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will reopen the following week, weather permitting.
