THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Luke 18:9-14

Every now and then readers of these reflections write letters in which they object to something. Years ago, this Gospel of Luke 18 prompted such an email. A man wrote to me: "I find it deeply offensive that you suggest we are still sinners once we are God's sons and daughters." His objection stirred in me a profound awareness of the paradox at the heart of our faith. Are we sinners or beloved children of God?

In this Gospel (Luke 18:9-14), a tax collector appears as one who has missed the mark. His sins have isolated him. His breast-beating is not an act of self-flagellation for pride's sake but a heartfelt admission of his failure and unworthiness. Remarkably, Jesus honors the candid humility of the parable's penitent. Why? Because we are always in need of mercy, always. But even more, perhaps because on the cross, Jesus will fully embrace a similar place of humiliation and rejection. He will enter into the most shameful, offensive place of the sinner so that we might "go home justified."

There is a sacred tension in admitting that we are sinners and yet have profound hope. We are beloved sons and daughters of God, growing precisely through our honest acceptance of failure. When we cry, "Have mercy on us" during Mass or when we repeat the "Jesus Prayer" in quiet moments, or in the confessional, we embrace our imperfections as fertile ground for divine grace. In doing so, we follow Christ's example — finding true exaltation in the humble acknowledgment of our human frailty.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, November 2nd Readings

Wis 3:1-9/Ps 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6/Rom 5:5-11 or Rom 6:3-9/Jn 6:37-40

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, November 2nd

- Our wisdom writer speaks of just souls resting peacefully in God's loving hands. Can you think of a more peaceful image of death?
- Paul teaches the Romans that with Jesus' resurrection, "death no longer has any power over him," or us, as believers. Does this belief help you through times of grieving from the loss of a loved one?
- Jesus taught the crowds that anyone who believes in him will have eternal life and be raised from the dead on the last day. How do others know you believe in Jesus?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

SACRED HEART OF JESUS ICON

Our local Knights of Columbus Council is providing us with an opportunity to be part of a beautiful devotion.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus icon will be making its way across the country with several stops in Lake Country. This is a reproduction of a 1767 image by Pompeo Batoni and bears the blessing of Pope Francis.

The icon will be here on Sunday, October 26 following all Masses through Tuesday, October 28 at Noon.

This is a beautiful opportunity to pause in prayer and grow in devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS DAY

The Feast of All Saints is celebrated on November 1. On this day we gather up all the saints who do not have their own dedicated saint's day and remember them in prayer as guideposts for how to live a faith-filled, holy life. The feast falls on a Saturday this year. It is not a holy day of obligation, and it will be celebrated at the Saturday 8:30am Daily Mass.

The Feast of All Souls is our opportunity to remember the faithfully departed. We are encouraged to attend Mass, pray for the souls in Purgatory, and visit the graves of our loved ones. All Souls is considered a sequel to All Saints. This year it falls on a Sunday. We will observe our normal Sunday Mass schedule, and we will have incense at the 9:00 am, 11:00 am, and 6:00 pm Masses. At 1:00 pm we will have a prayer service at the St. Charles Cemetery on Hill Street.

Here at St. Charles we celebrate the Candlelight Memorial Mass on November 3 at 7:00 pm. This is an opportunity for those who have lost loved ones throughout the past year to come and pray for them. There will be a table with candles to light for your loved one. Names will be read out loud while a slide show plays to remember those who have passed. This Mass is open for all to attend no matter when your loss took place. There will be a reception following the Mass from 8:00pm- 9:00 pm in the Borromeo Hall.

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Paper Towels, Progresso or Campbell's Chunky Soups (not Chicken Noodle), Dinty Moore Beef Stew, Cleaning Supplies

In today's Gospel on the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the tax collector's prayer allows God to pour mercy into his heart. When we pray and give alms to the poor, we allow God's mercy to be poured into their hearts. We are reminded that we cannot do this on our own, but we must constantly seek the Lord's loving guidance and strength.

Recently the school children of St. Charles donated food and hygiene items to our pantry. We appreciate their generosity and the generosity of their families.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located on the Church grounds at 313 Circle Drive, and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you know of someone in need of our services or if you would like to become a member of SVDP, please call us at 262-367-0800.
