THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 1:18-24

A priest friend recently told me a remarkable story. One of his cousins reported having a vivid dream in which an angel told him the family needed to exhume their grandmother's body from a cemetery in New York and return it to her birthplace in Romania. She had been dead nearly ten years. As you might expect, the family thought it was, well, crazy. But astonishingly they exhumed her body. It was incorrupt, showing no signs of decomposition. That experience sparked healing, faith, and reconciliation throughout the family.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Joseph also receives a dream. He's confused, afraid. But in the quiet of sleep, God speaks: "Do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home" (Matthew 1:20). When he wakes, Joseph acts. He doesn't overanalyze or dismiss the message. He trusts and acts.

God still speaks — not necessarily through literal dreams but through those deeper intuitions of the heart. St. Ignatius of Loyola taught that God's voice draws us into peace, courage, and love. But we have to listen to it. Advent is a time for stillness. As we prepare for Christ's coming, we're invited to enter that quiet space where God's voice can be heard.

When and how do you become most receptive to God? Is it in silence? In prayer? In nature? At Mass? This week, go there. Be still. Listen. And like Joseph, have the courage to act on what God shows you.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, December 28th Readings

Eccl 3, 2-6. 12-14/Col 3, 12-21 o 3, 12-17/Sal 128, 1-2. 3. 4-5/Mt 2, 13-15. 19-23

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, December 28th

- Sirach emphasizes the importance of children honoring and respecting their parents. What are some of your favorite memories of your parents?
- Paul taught the Colossians that families should show mutual respect and love toward one another. How do you encourage these virtues in your family?
- We hear how the Holy Family faced some very dangerous circumstances early on. Can you think of some challenges your family has had to overcome?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

Merry Christmas

Fr. Ken, Fr. Aaron and the St. Charles Staff would like to wish you and your family a very Merry Christmas!

*Thank you for being a part of our community
and for your support throughout the year.
From our family to yours, we wish you many blessings during Advent and beyond!*

CHRISTMAS 2025

Hello Everyone —

After a season of watching and waiting, at the Christmas Midnight Mass we hear the wonderful words:

“The people who have walked in darkness have seen a great light.”

Isaiah 9:1

Can you imagine for a moment being a part of the nativity scene? Forget the sanitized view born from nativity plays — beautiful though they are — the stable is a dark and muddy place. It is quaint and almost forgotten. In this humble place a cry pierces the night: an infant is born and swaddled in rags. For all intents and purposes, this could be any baby in any place in the world. But what unfolds in this scene is a miraculous birth that forever changed the world. The Savior of the world is not a king born in a grand palace with finery, but an infant born of poor parents in a modest stable.

It’s hard for us to imagine who would take offense at a baby born in a manger — a defenseless infant in such a lowly place. Yet even then, some did. And still today, many turn away. But God holds nothing back. He enters our darkness, our “stables,” our forgotten places. Jesus comes to us not as a princely dignitary who rules with power and decree, but as one meek and humble of heart, bringing light to our darkness and inviting us into a life of humility, gentleness and grace.

Through his miracles and mercy, Jesus shows us that everyone — especially those pushed to the margins — is worthy of dignity and love. He continues to invite us to see his presence: in the beauty of creation, in the love of family and friends, and most profoundly, in the presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

My hope and prayer for you this Christmas is that your heart will be filled with the light of God’s inbreaking love — that the eternal Son may shine into your life, your heart and your family. May his light, which no darkness can overshadow, fill you with peace, joy and freedom that the world cannot give.

May God bless you, and Merry Christmas!

Most Reverend Jeffrey S. Grob
Archbishop of Milwaukee

Eucharistic Minister Training Information

The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ?

1 Corinthians 10:16

Training Dates: January 8, 10, 15, 17, 22 and 24

Looking forward as a parish, our goal is to return to communion under both species at all of the weekend Masses by Ash Wednesday, February 18, 2026. In order to make this goal a reality, we are in need of 80 additional parishioners to come forward and volunteer to serve as Eucharistic Ministers. Training is provided and you can choose one of six scheduled sessions in January.

Existing Eucharistic Ministers are encouraged to come as well. In order to register, scan the QR code below, which will take you to the Eucharistic Minister Registration Form.

You can also use the sign-up sheets in the church narthex. Thank you for your generous service to our parish.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL #3562 EXEMPLIFICATION CEREMONY

It is with great honor Council #3562 welcomed six members on November 12 into the Knights of Columbus brotherhood. Taking the pledge for becoming a knight involves embracing their core principles of charity, unity and fraternity. It was in 1882 that Father Micheal McGivney saw a need to help families at St. Mary's Church in New Haven, Connecticut that were displaced due to a death in the family or facing anti-Catholic sentiment which was prevalent at the time. Father McGivney saw how he could unite men of his parish in a common bond and purpose to protect these families and serve their community. Today, knights have a profound dedication to our Blessed Virgin Mary, pro-life and pro-family.

Why not join the largest Catholic men's organization in the world and see how you can make a difference with your family and community? Contact our membership director, Dale Sitek, at camperdale@gmail.com or 262-649-6853.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Bottled Fruit Juice, Baking Soda, Baking Powder, Canola Oil

In today's Gospel on the Fourth Sunday of Advent, we hear that Jesus will be named Emmanuel, which means "God is with us." The mystery of the birth of Jesus is supremely a mystery of love. May each Christmas find us more like Him, more holy, more humble, more happy and more full of God. Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring light into the darkness surrounding the heart of those living in poverty, bringing them the real, lasting deep joy of Christmas. We would like to express our gratitude for your benevolence toward our ministry of service to the poor. Have a peace filled Christmas week.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located on the Church grounds at 313 Circle Drive, and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you know someone in need of our services, please call us at 262-367-0800.

HOW TO GIVE: For monetary donations, please make checks payable to SVDP and drop off at the Parish Business Center. You may drop off food donations in the SVDP boxes in the Church narthex.

The food pantry will be closed when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will reopen the following week, weather permitting.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

January 18 - 26, 2026

This year's theme is "There is one body, and one spirit, just as you are called to the one hope of your calling."

The chosen passage for reflection is Ephesians 4:4, where the Apostle Paul reminds the early Christians in Ephesus of the unifying power of the Holy Spirit: "There is one body and one Spirit — just as you were called to one hope when you were called."

This verse calls believers to remember that, despite differences, all are part of the one Body of Christ and share a common hope through the Spirit.
