SCRIPTURE REFLECTIONS

who heals the brokenhearted.

5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME GOSPEL MEDITATION

Maybe I'm weird, but I like spending time in doctor's offices, confession lines in churches, auto repair shops, prison cells, and support groups of various kinds. It's refreshing to be with people who humbly admit something is wrong and forthrightly set out on a path toward a solution. When we ignore what is off kilter, we become alone and fragile. In places where people are honest and hopeful about brokenness, sturdy if subtle fellowship usually ensues.

Consider the image we see of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark. "...they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by a demon. The whole town was gathered at the door." The entire human community is afflicted in various ways, and so it gradually forms a strange new community around Jesus. The healer from Nazareth is like a sun of health around which orbits a throng of humanity absorbing his healing rays. These blessed souls can't fix themselves and become healthy, and they know it. But they have found in him the living source of all imaginable healing.

It's the Church, isn't it? A sin-sick community gathered and healed is what happens at the beginning of every Mass. We shuffle in through the door from everywhere and announce that we are not okay, and we can't fix it. In doing so, we are drawn into the orbit of the healing power of Christ — and into a renewed community with the whole human family. It's nothing to fear or rush. Maybe we can even learn to enjoy more how good it is to be in such a happy place.

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, February 11th Readings

Sunday: Lv 13:1-2, 44-46/Ps 32:1-2, 5, 11 (7)/ 1 Cor 10:31—11:1/Mk 1:40-45

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings.

Reflection questions for Sunday, February 11th

• We hear how ancient Israel was concerned about purity laws and the spread of disease, such as leprosy. How do you support people in your life who are suffering from disease or isolation?

• Paul encouraged the Corinthians to be selfless and kind to each other as a practical way of living out their faith. Is there a friend or co-worker who could benefit from your generosity toward them?

• The healed leper disobeyed Jesus' command to remain silent and as a result, Jesus had to stay outside towns and in "deserted places." How do you deal with people in your life who disappoint or frustrate you?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

Give God your Weakness and He'll give you His Strength

On January 4th, it was an honor for Council #3562 to welcome Brian Morrison, Bill Ryan, Geno Smith and Mark Wagner as third degree members in the Knights of Columbus. In 1882, our founder Father Michael McGivney saw in his church St. Mary's in New Haven, Connecticut the amount of families that were struggling with poverty, poor working conditions, premature death of heads of households and anti-Catholic Sentiment. Father McGiveny saw how he could unite men of his parish in a common bond and by a common purpose to protect these families and serve their community. Today the Knights of Columbus have over 2 million members worldwide, carrying on Father McGivney's vision. If you have an interest in becoming a Knight of Columbus, contact our membership Director Dale Sitek at 262-649-6853 or camperdale@gmail.com. Vivat Jesus
