THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

LUKE 2:22-40

What is the secret to sharing in God's power to overcome our difficulties? Mary teaches us this in the prophecy of her pierced heart. This Sunday, the old man Simeon prophesies that when her son faces opposition, Mary's soul will be pierced by a sword. The seemingly pointless agony of a mother helplessly watching her son be mocked, tortured, killed and then cruelly desecrated in death by a spear — somehow this piercing of her heart releases a power by which "the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed" (Luke 2:35). What to make of this?

Whatever problems we currently face, the deepest threat is finally that evil thoughts are hidden in the human heart: hatred, envy, pride, lust, greed and so on. Behind every tyrant's injustice, for example, is a heart unpierced by love. Evil hides in our hearts. Mary's pierced heart, and its suffering love for her son, reveals and scatters these evil thoughts and replaces them with love, forgiveness, generosity and peace.

This week, I invite us to ponder Mary's pierced heart. Her heart is quietly at work for us in the Church and world, exposing our evil thoughts and making a path for her son's divine love. This is how she gently cooperates in our salvation. Closed hearts are our biggest problem; love-pierced hearts are the ultimate power to overcome every difficulty.

Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, February 9th Readings

Is 6:1-2a, 3-8/Ps 138:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 7-8 (1c)/1 Cor 15:1-11
or 15:3-8, 11/Lk 5:1-11

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, February 9th

- Isaiah eagerly accepted God's call to serve once his sin was removed. What helps you be open to serve others?
- Paul reminds the Corinthians of the Gospel message he proclaimed to them about Jesus's death and resurrection appearances. What do you think makes preaching successful?
- In Jesus' call of the first disciples, we see Peter's obedience and humility. How might you put these virtues into practice this week?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman of ©LPI

Mini Reflection: The oldest trick of the devil is to distract us from thinking about our hearts. It's not hard for him to do — there are so many other things we could be doing. So, do we have the courage to look to our own hearts, to come face to face with our own choices, our own true selves?

The Thoughts of Many Hearts

When Simeon cradles the infant Messiah in his arms, he speaks of salvation and glory and revelation. He speaks of his own death. He speaks of the fulfillment of God's promise to all people.

But most memorable, in my opinion, are his words about the hearts of men. This Child, he says, will be the way "the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Perhaps you're like me. Perhaps you don't enjoy scrutinizing yourself, your actions, your intentions. You don't like reflecting on why you feel or react the way you do, and you really don't enjoy measuring those feelings and reactions against what you know they could be.

It's exhausting to sit with God, your heart in your hands, both of us looking at it, talking about it. So far too often, I opt out.

The oldest trick of the devil, you see, is to distract us from thinking about our hearts. It's not hard for him to do. There are so many other things I could be doing, after all. Answering emails. Catching up on laundry. Scrolling Facebook. Worrying about inflation and the election. Stressing about my kid's dance recital and next week's busy schedule.

But where is God truly at work? Where is the place God will point to when my life on Earth has come to its close?

It is the very depths of my heart. The place where I am my most authentic self, for better or worse. The place where all my pretensions crumble away, and I am alone with the truth of who I am and what I choose to do.

Am I brave enough to look into the depths of my own heart?

CHRISTIAN STEWARDS: "BLESSED, GRATEFUL, GIVING"

By Leisa Anslinger

Many years ago, I was given a handcrafted wall plaque that reads, "thankful, grateful, blessed." It has been hanging in my kitchen ever since and has accompanied my husband and I through multiple moves, to multiple kitchens. I have seen other wall hangings and greeting cards with the same three words, in the same order: thankful, grateful, blessed.

While I am often drawn to reflect on these three words and their deep spiritual meaning, it has always seemed to me that the words are "misplaced," in reverse order. First, we are blessed. The initiative is always on the part of God. In fact, we are and will always be more richly blessed than we can begin to comprehend. God loves us first. The more deeply we come to know our blessedness and grasp that our blessed state is an outpouring of the grace of God, the greater must be our growth in gratitude, in thankfulness. The life and growth of the steward is of recognizing the blessings and growing in gratitude for them, which leads to our grateful response. The plaque on the wall should read, I believe, "blessed, grateful, thankful." Or better yet, "blessed, grateful, giving."

On our best days, we are keenly aware of the blessings of life: faith, relationships, talents, gifts, and resources. We are awake to and aware of the world around us and see God's hand in all of creation. Yet in our human frailty, we lose sight. We fail to perceive and become blind to the blessings within and around us. We even go so far as to take it all for granted and sometimes yearn for more, searching for more earthly wealth and material riches rather than seeking and finding what is always there — the presence of God in our very midst. In this extended moment of Ordinary Time before Lent, let us be mindful that nothing in this life is "ordinary." All is extraordinarily and abundantly filled with the life and grace of God, which we are called to steward well.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTER TRAINING BEGINS IN FEBRUARY!

A parish this size needs lots of volunteers, especially for the Masses. Every weekend, 55 lay Eucharistic Ministers are needed to cover all the Masses and to provide Holy Eucharist under both the bread and the cup. Our goal is to have enough Eucharistic Ministers for two complete "crews" for each Mass so that the ministers serve every other week, plus having back-ups in case ministers get sick or are on vacation and are not available.

Throughout February, there will be 4 training sessions for new Eucharistic Ministers. If you are interested in this ministry, you can sign up online through either the parish or school website.

We look forward to sharing this wonderful ministry with you! If you have any questions, please call Beth Thompson of the Worship Team at 262-367-6704.

ADORERS NEEDED

We would love to have you join us in our Perpetual Adoration Chapel! We are currently in need of faithful Adorers to spend time with the Lord. Our UPDATED open time slots are as follows:

Mondays (1) - Noon-1pm

Tuesdays (2) - 4-5pm and 11pm-Midnight

Wednesdays (3) - 2-3am, 3-4am and 1-2pm

Thursdays (4) - 5-6am, 10-11am, 1-2pm and 4-5pm

Fridays (3) - 2-3am, 6-7pm (3rd/4th) and 7-8pm

If you are interested in praying with us during these times, please visit the News story on our website.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE YOUR PARISH!

When you come to Mass, isn't it great to have someone open the door and welcome you? We are inviting single people, couples, families, or friends to be part of this wonderful ministry - once a month, every week, or occasionally.

To make it convenient, you won't have to sign up in advance as many of us don't always attend the same Mass each weekend. Instead, just arrive at church 15-20 minutes before Mass starts, sign in and take a nametag or lanyard and go to the door you will be stationed at. Return the nametag or lanyard when Mass starts and attend Mass as usual.

We are excited to offer this opportunity for all ages to enjoy this welcoming ministry! Please email mjromportl@stcharleshartland.org with questions and to receive updates.

SUPPORT OUR GROCERS & HELP ST. CHARLES PARISH

Please save your receipts from Piggly Wiggly in Hartland/Oconomowoc and Sentry in Delafield. St. Charles receives 1% of the receipt totals from these receipts, and only receipts with grocery purchases are valid. Your receipts do pay off.

In 2024, St. Charles received $1,099.98 from Sentry and from Piggly Wiggly $3,754.50!

Please use the drop box located next to the Parish Office to turn them in. Please include the whole receipt; do not cut the top or bottom off because it makes them invalid. Do not staple, tape, roll or rubber band them together and keep them flat. Receipts expire within six months, so be sure to turn them in as soon as possible. Thank you for your help!

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Cereal, Toilet paper, Laundry Soap, Dish Washing Liquid, Bottled Juice

In the Gospel today on the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus shows us that we are called to place gospel values before any other values and to be willing to put our lives on the line for them. Taking care of God's poor is indeed living gospel values. God challenges to understand that things can be different and that we can make that difference.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul proclaims the Gospel of the kingdom and brings healing to the broken hearts of those who live in poverty. To become a member of this ministry of service to the poor and needy while growing in holiness, please contact SVDP at 262-367-0800.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you know of someone in need of our services, please call us at 262-367-0800.

The food pantry will be closed when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will reopen the following week, weather permitting.
