THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LUKE 5:1-11

My parents' garage is full of old junk that no longer serves any purpose in my life. As a 46-year-old man, I admit that's pretty lame. Either due to my sentimentality or laziness (or both probably), I just couldn't get myself to throw things away. But a few days ago, by a grace of God, I thought: "I'll hire my nephew Ryan to throw a bunch of my stuff away — he couldn't care less about my junk!" And you know what? It worked. In one day, Ryan chucked the majority of his uncle's useless stuff. I feel so free, ready for a new junk-free chapter in my life.

This kind of thing happens in this Sunday's Gospel. Peter's net is full of useless junk. Luke says he and the others are cleaning their nets after catching no fish. Imagine them dejectedly and impatiently removing a nasty assortment of seaweed, sticks and muck. The Lord teaches and calls them once their nets are cleared out. So it goes with us. Spiritual life begins by removing that which is useless and merely taking up space in our hearts, minds and lives. Then Jesus teaches and acts in a marvelous way in our lives, too.

So what's junking up your net? What habits, attachments, possessions, preoccupations? If, like me, you struggle to clean your nets by yourself, ask the Lord to send you someone like my nephew to be your "Peter" and help you clean it out. It is well worth it. Once Peter's net is clean, he is free to make a wonderful catch.

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, February 16th Readings

Jer 17:5-8/Ps 1:1-2, 3, 4, 6, (40:5a)/1 Cor 15:12, 16-20/
Lk 6:17, 20-26

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, February 16th

- Jeremiah believes it is wise to trust in the Lord. When have you had to place your trust in God?
- Paul challenged those in the Corinthian community who did not believe in the resurrection of the dead. How do you support family or friends who are non-believers?
- We hear today how Jesus brought comfort to those struggling in life and challenged those who lived a life of ease. Is there someone you know who could benefit from your words of comfort this week?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

EUCHARISTIC MINISTER TRAINING NOW AVAILABLE!!

A parish this size needs lots of volunteers, especially for the Masses. Every weekend, 55 lay Eucharistic Ministers are needed to cover all the Masses and to provide Holy Eucharist under both the bread and the cup. Our goal is to have enough Eucharistic Ministers for two complete "crews" for each Mass so that the ministers serve every other week, plus having back-ups in case ministers get sick or are on vacation and are not available.

Throughout February, there are four training sessions for new Eucharistic Ministers. If you are interested in this ministry, you can sign up online through either the parish or school website.

We look forward to sharing this wonderful ministry with you! If you have any questions, please call Beth Thompson of the Worship Team at 262-367-6704.

RECONCILIATION CHANGES

We would like to announce some changes to our Reconciliation opportunities. Our Thursday afternoon Reconciliations will have one priest while our Saturday morning Reconciliations will have two priests due to increased attendance. All are welcome to join us for this sacrament!

Thank you to everyone who joined us at Archbishop Grob's Welcome Mass and reception on January 30! We were joined by nearly five hundred community members that evening who extended a warm Lake Country welcome to him. He took time out to greet and speak with everyone who attended the reception. We'd like to especially thank our Worship and Hospitality Teams for putting together such an incredible evening! Archbishop Grob blessed members of this team at the end of the event and expressed his appreciation for their hard work, as well!
