THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

John 3:16-18

I was 16 years old on a youth group retreat in the mountains. One night, I opened my heart to the message being proclaimed: that God so loved the world that He sent His Son for us. Later, I lay under the pine trees and looked up at the countless stars. They seemed different. No longer cold, distant balls of chemical reactions, they appeared as an expression of God's love, as if He were giving those stars directly to me. The truth of God sending His Son changed how I saw the whole universe.

That is what today's Gospel reveals: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son" (John 3:16). The universe is not just a whirl of impersonal forces or empty space. At its heart is a gift: the Father eternally giving the Son, not to condemn but to bring life.

This is not abstract doctrine but deeply personal. God gives His Son for you and me. Each human life is precious enough to be caught up in that eternal gift.

It is in the Mass where we encounter this most directly. In the Word proclaimed, in the assembly gathered, in the priest, and above all in the Eucharist, the Father once again gives His Son. What looks like bread and wine is the drama of the Trinity, laboring to love us here and now.

The Trinity is not a puzzle to solve but the blazing Truth at the center of everything: the Father gives the Son for you and me. Lord, help us to see this more clearly.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, June 7th Readings

Dt 8:2-3, 14b-16a/Ps 147:12-13, 14-15, 19-20/1 Cor 10:16-17/Jn 6:51-58

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, June 7th

- Moses instructs the Israelites to never forget their 40-year journey in the desert and the Lord's deliverance of them from slavery in Egypt. What has God done in your life that you will never forget?
- Paul reminds the Corinthians that the Body and Blood of Christ unite us as one body. Do you see your faith community united by the Eucharist?
- Jesus teaches the crowds that whoever eats his body and drinks his blood will live forever. Who could you invite this week to attend Sunday Mass and receive the Eucharist with you?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

MOVE THE BUS

Our "Move the Bus" Fundraiser is back! This weekend our popular fundraiser from years past returns to get our 16 campers to Camp Cana!

How can you help "Move the Bus" you ask? The bus will be displayed in the narthex of the church filled with envelopes marked with a number and a week our teens are attending camp.

We invite you to take an envelope, fill it with the amount listed, and return it the following weekend OR by June 14th. If a number is taken, you can choose any number and fill it with the desired amount.

In addition to financial support, we would ask you to pray for our teens at camp the week written on the outside of the envelope.

Envelopes can be mailed, dropped off at the Parish Office, or placed in the collection basket - just be sure you note the donation is for the Life Teen Fundraiser/Camp Cana.

Checks can be made payable to St. Charles. If you put cash in the envelope, please write down your name so that we are able to thank you and give you credit on your tax contribution statement.

Donors will be invited to a dinner in their honor after our trips to camp so we can thank you and share what we experienced.

If you have questions, please contact Tiffany (ttopel@stcharleshartland.org) or Caroline (ccoiner@stcharleshartland.org) in the Student Discipleship Department. Thank you for your support!

MEET. KNOW. LOVE. SERVE.

St. Charles has been home for our family since 2012, and over the years it has become a place where my faith truly comes alive. When I sing with the choir or cantor at Mass, I'm not just singing—I'm praying and hopefully helping others pray, which draws me closer to Christ. Writing music with our director has deepened that connection even more, as we create something meaningful for our parish to share. The people here make it feel like family, with a genuine sense of care and faith. Serving on the Parish Council has opened new ways to listen, give back, and support others. Through all of this, I continue to grow in knowing, loving, and serving Christ.

STEWARDSHIP: YOUR TIME, TREASURE & TALENTS

OUTREACH
TEAM

Dear Friends & Parishioners of St. Charles,

Greetings from La Sagrada Familia Parish! Happy and blessed Easter!

Here we have a saying that Easter is always the season that reminds us of the joy of God and marks the beginning of the summer heat. It is during this time of the year that the fans start going faster than usual, and we begin changing the Mass schedule to a summer schedule (i.e. 5pm Sunday Mass instead of 4pm Mass). Many of our parishioners walk to church, and they truly appreciate being able to walk at a cooler time of day.

We recently celebrated two beautiful and joyful occasions that I would like to share with you.

May 15 is the Feast of Saint Isidore the Farmer. One of our chapels is under his protection and the farmers from the parish came with a handful of soil from their farms to be blessed during Mass. They also brought bananas, plantains, mangos, guanabana, and other fruits that are produced in this part of the world.

This past Sunday, Fr. Daniel Luna, OFM, celebrated his Mass of Thanksgiving. Fr. Daniel is a son of the parish and the sixth priest that this parish has given to the universal Church. Fr. Daniel was ordained two weeks ago in Guatemala, and most of his formation with the Franciscan Order was outside of the Dominican Republic. It was a blessing to have him back and pray with him in thanksgiving for the priestly ministry he just started.

With a grateful heart,

Fr. Javier Guativa
Pastor of La Sagrada Familia

This Sunday is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity which emphasizes the unity and distinct persons of the Trinity: the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. As we celebrate the mystery of the Trinity, we also realize the mystery of how much God loves and cares for us each day. Believing in this our lives can then overflow in thanksgiving and praise.

Your gifts to the SVDP Food Pantry and our general fund will help the poor to believe in the mystery of God's love for them.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located on the church grounds at 313 Circle Drive, and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5pm and 6:30pm (new evening times).
