PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, March 17th Readings

Sunday: Jer 31:31-34/Ps 51:3-4, 12-13, 14-15 (12a)/Heb 5:7-9/Jn 12:20-33 Scrutiny: Ez 37:12-14/Ps 130: 1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8 (7)/Rom 8:8-11/Jn 11:1-45 or 11:3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, March 17th

- Through the prophet Jeremiah, God promised Israel “a new covenant”: the Lord’s law will be written in our hearts and known by all who believe. Do you know people who seem to have a heartfelt faith?
- Hebrews teaches us that Jesus struggled with his own impending suffering and death. During this Lenten season, what has been a struggle for you?
- Jesus taught that through his own suffering and death, he would drive out the “ruler of this world” (Satan) and draw everyone to himself. In what ways are you drawn to Christ?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT GOSPEL MEDITATION

Our national pastime isn't baseball. It's what the Bible calls “condemning the world.” We generally enjoy pronouncing curses upon those whom we see as trouble, wrong, or evil. Don't believe me? Listen to almost any podcast, cable news network, or social media platform to hear it. It will be some version of: “We all agree that if they are eradicated, things will be great.” Condemning is almost always clothed in virtue. It basks in its good intentions. That's why it is so attractive. Condemning seems like our best path to saving what is good.

What a shock, then, to hear Jesus announce: “For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him” (Jn 3:17). He comes to save the world, as we all want, but he will accomplish it without an act of condemnation. How hard it is to accept this! Condemning feels godlike. I judge who and what must be lost to protect the good. But in the light of Jesus' endless mercy and love, this is the least godlike thing we can do.

Lenten challenge: This week, I invite you to give up the delicious experience of condemning whomever in the world you most would like to see gone. Perhaps write down their names. Secondly, I invite you to consider fasting from any media that feeds the tasty but deadly tendency to condemn.

~ Father John Muir ©LPi

JOURNEY FROM LENT TO EASTER

LENTEN ALMSGIVING - LA SAGRADA FAMILIA

Looking for ways to give during Lent? In lieu of Lenten rice bowls, St. Charles is supporting La Sagrada Familia. Your Lenten almsgiving will go to support one of the following projects: water lines connecting the water supply to houses (about $600 per home), home repairs, food pantry, child care center, dental supplies, medical supplies, student scholarships, and for the purchase of liturgical items for their chapel.

TESTIMONIAL BY PARISHIONER MATTHEW GIZELBACH

You go into the mission trip expecting to find at least some people glum and/or bitter over their lot in life, but I could not have been more wrong. They were so happy with what I naively saw as so little. I witnessed what 'true' happiness looks like when it is entirely centered on the Lord, family, and friends. Another thing I loved about the country is how you would find several generations of family living amicably under the same roof. One may say they do this out of need, but I can confidently state they do this out of love; wanting to ensure both their elders and children are cared for.

Every community we visited had such strong faith. The residents of each village can be summed up as one large family where everyone looks after one another. You saw the Lord everywhere. In preparing for a Mass in their streets, everyone brought chairs from their homes and stores. Others handed out programs while others prepared drinks and snacks for afterwards. The sign of peace consisted not of handshakes but rather long embracing hugs that exuded love. They bent over backwards to give us their very last lawn chair for the outdoor Mass. I recall an older gentleman who insisted I take his chair for the Mass while he would stand for the service. In the end we both received chairs. Love bounded everywhere and with everyone one!

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Kleenex, Pasta Sides, Saltine Crackers, Ketchup, Mayo, Campell's Chicken Noodle Soup

In today's Gospel on the Fourth Sunday of Lent, God demonstrates great love for us by sending his Son so that we may believe in Him. We demonstrate our great love for God by doing good works, reaching out to others and acting in justice and charity.

Through your almsgiving you are performing a good work: far greater than you think. Know that your donations to the St. Charles SVDP Conference general fund and food pantry are helping those in the community that are in need. During the month of February, we assisted 79 families with food, electric bills, car repairs and rent.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you are in need of assistance or know someone that is in need, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

The food pantry will be closed when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will open the following week, weather permitting.

PRO-LIFE QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"We are facing an enormous and dramatic clash between good and evil, death and life, the 'culture of death' and the 'culture of life.' We find ourselves not only 'faced with' but necessarily 'in the midst of' this conflict: we are all involved and we all share in it, with the inescapable responsibility of choosing to be unconditionally pro-life."
