PALM SUNDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION

PALM SUNDAY

*"So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it.
And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields." Mark 11:7-8*

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD GOSPEL MEDITATION

A few months before they married, my twenty-three-year-old sister and her fiancé planned a cross-country road trip to visit his family. My parents told them that they could only go if they slept in separate hotel rooms, offering to foot the bill. It might sound prudish, but my parents wanted the young couple to understand that their approaching unity was close but not yet. Patience solidifies love.

What could this possibly have to do with Palm Sunday? It's usually overlooked, but the Gospels tell us that, after entering Jerusalem, Jesus "looked around ... and since it was late, went out to Bethany with the twelve" (Mk 11:11) for the night. Who cares? Why include this detail? Jews in those days believed that the new Davidic King would one day re-enter and "marry" the city. A new future marked by fidelity would begin for God's people. Israel's God would be in union with His people forever. Without over-sexualizing the metaphor, perhaps Jesus refused to sleep in Jerusalem to remind us of his marital purpose. He was entering Jerusalem as the bridegroom-king. It was almost time but not yet. Soon he will sleep in Jerusalem in the tomb, and then something new will begin: his one body, his Church.

Lenten challenge: this Holy Week, I challenge you to keep this image in your mind all the way until Easter Sunday: Jesus is the faithful bridegroom who patiently prepares his bride for their new life together. Go to the Good Friday liturgy and kiss the cross. When you do, let that gesture be the long-awaited "I do" to our faithful God, who always waits for us.

~ Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, March 31st

- In his speech, Peter places much emphasis on his personal witness to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. To whom this week could you witness your faith in the resurrection of Jesus?
- Paul taught the believers in Colossae to anticipate the return of the resurrected Jesus. How does your family celebrate Easter Sunday?
- Mary Magdala, Peter, and the Beloved Disciple were the first to experience the joy and mystery of the empty tomb. Do you recall when you first started believing in the resurrection of Jesus?

CELEBRATING HOLY WEEK

CELEBRATING HOLY WEEK AT ST. CHARLES

We begin the observance of Holy Week on Palm Sunday, and it leads us into the celebration of the Paschal Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. This most sacred week of the church year is one in which we are drawn ever-deeper into the mission of Christ on earth and eventually His passion, death, and resurrection. The days between Palm Sunday and Holy Thursday (Maundy Thursday) are known as Holy Monday, Holy Tuesday, and Holy Wednesday (Spy Wednesday). Spy Wednesday is called this because of the Gospel reading (Matthew 26:14-25) where we learn that Judas, one of Jesus' disciples, had become a spy and betrayed Him. After this comes the Triduum, which is seen as one continuous liturgy running from Thursday through Saturday.

Part of St. Charles' rich tradition of worship is Daily Mass and Morning Prayer. During the Triduum, however, there can only be two Masses: one on Holy Thursday and one on Holy Saturday. So instead of Daily Mass on these days, we observe Morning Prayer. During Morning Prayer, we sing multiple Canticles and Psalms and hear sacred scripture then a brief reflection given by a member of the St. Charles community. It is a beautiful opportunity for our priests to pray as part of the assembly and to be fed by the preaching of a lay person, seminarian, or deacon.

There are many beautiful and rich traditions of Holy Week, including the Palm Sunday Procession, the reception of the Holy Oils, the footwashing, the collection for the Holy Land, Stations of the Cross, Adoration of the Cross, Adoration of the Eucharist, the Easter Fire, and the blessing of food for our Easter tables. Through the Scripture readings we hear during Holy Week, we once again experience the history of our salvation as the People of God, from the creation of the world by God through his Son's passion, death and resurrection. And music! So much beautiful music that helps us experience the jubilation, pain, suffering, grief, and then eventually a return to joy! We as Christians believe that Holy Week is truly the holiest week of the liturgical year, and the days of the Triduum are the holiest three days, each one greater than the day before. If you have never experienced Triduum, I invite you to come to all three services. Catholics have been doing this for hundreds of years and coming away renewed and affirmed in their faith in Christ as well as in the beauty of the Church's traditions, prayers and symbolism.

CELEBRATING THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM AT ST. CHARLES

Many Catholics have never experienced the Paschal Triduum in its entirety. The Triduum is one continuous Rite, consisting of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday when we celebrate the Easter Vigil. Each of the three days of the Triduum is rich with sacred scripture, powerful rituals, and beautiful music.

HOLY THURSDAY AT ST. CHARLES

The Triduum begins on Holy Thursday, March 28 at 7:00 pm. After the Gathering Song, we experience the Reception of Holy Oils, which were consecrated on Holy Tuesday by Archbishop ListECKi at the Chrism Mass. First is the Oil of the Sick for healing in body, mind, and soul. Next is the Oil of Catechumens for anointing those preparing for Baptism. Lastly, the Oil of Chrism, which is used to anoint babies after Baptism, those who are being confirmed, Bishops and Priests at Ordination, and altars and churches when they are dedicated. In the Gospel, we hear the story of Jesus sharing a Passover meal with his disciples but first tenderly washing their feet. During our Mass of the Lord's Supper, twelve members of the St. Charles community will have their feet washed by our priests. Music selections include "Lift High the Cross," "Ubi Caritas," and "Panis Angelicus." At the end of Mass, there is a procession to take the Blessed Sacrament to the chapel. We will sing Pange Lingua, and all are invited to adore the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel until midnight. Lastly, the entire sanctuary is stripped, and the crosses are removed from church.

GOOD FRIDAY AT ST. CHARLES

On Good Friday, we gather at 1:00 pm in silence. Baskets will be available in the narthex for the collection for the Holy Land. Good Friday is not a Mass, and it is not a Holy Day of Obligation. The observance begins with a silent procession, and the ministers prostrate themselves in front of the altar. Then, in the Liturgy of the Word, we hear the psalmist lead Psalm 31: "Father into your hands, I commend my spirit." We proclaim the Passion reading. We sing the Solemn Intercessions, and then the cross, which has been covered, is unveiled. We then have the opportunity to adore and reverence the cross. This year we will do so by genuflecting or bowing. During the adoration of the cross, we sing "O Sacred Head," "Were You There," "Behold the Wood," and "Jesus Remember Me." Holy Communion, which was reserved from the previous night's Mass of the Lord's Supper, is distributed. All are invited to participate in Stations of the Cross that evening at 7:00 pm.

HOLY SATURDAY AT ST. CHARLES

On Holy Saturday, there is a blessing of the Easter foods at 4:00 pm in church. At 8:00 pm, we gather outside in the parking lot for the Easter Fire. The Easter Vigil is the high point and holiest day of the entire church year. The church begins in darkness, and the Exsultet will be chanted by Deacon David Sweeney. The Paschal Candle is lit, and from that one light of Christ, we too light our taper candles until the entire church shines with the light of Christ. In the Liturgy of the Word, we hear the story of our faith from Genesis to the Resurrection: nine scripture readings and eight psalms. Music will be led by the Adult Choir accompanied by a brass quartet. There will be a Sprinkling Rite to remind us all of our own Baptism and our call to live that out in our daily lives. Our joyous music tells the story of resurrection as we are finally able to proclaim "Alleluia! Christ is risen!"

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Pasta Sides, Saltine Crackers, Mayonnaise, Kleenex, Toilet Paper

Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of the holiest of Christian weeks. Let us pray for the grace to take up our own cross and to follow Jesus through death to new life. During Lent, through your gifts of food for the pantry and cash donations to our general fund, our St. Charles St. Vincent de Paul Conference was able to bring the mercy of Jesus into the hearts of the poor. Thank you for your generosity and continued support of our ministry.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you are in need of assistance or know someone that is in need. please contact us at 262-367-0800.
