EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD GOSPEL MEDITATION

Outside Chicago, there is a small cemetery in the woods behind Mundelein Seminary, where I was a student. One night I was exploring it. I looked up and was shocked to see an imposing seventeen-foot angel towering over me and preparing to blow a trumpet. Adrenaline rushed through me. I gasped and uttered, "Oh my God!" Quickly I realized it was in fact a massive bronze statue. I tried to calm myself down. But it still freaked me out.

As we begin to celebrate Easter today, this image might seem a bit unnerving. But please recall that for the first disciples on the morning of the resurrection, it was precisely that. It wasn't joyful at first, it was terrifying. It wasn't peaceful, it was unsettling. In that Jerusalem cemetery, something otherworldly had happened. Angels announced that he was no longer dead but alive. They had blown their trumpets, so to speak, and Jesus had risen. Soon the disciples' shock in that dark cemetery would turn into joy.

We all have our own places of the dead, too, don't we? Deceased loved ones. Our tired patterns of blame. Relationships stuck in resentment. Indifference to the poor. Lost dreams. Despair about our future. Fear of sickness and death. These are our "cemeteries" where we don't expect much to happen. Today we enter — if we dare — those places with the disciples. See the mighty angel standing there, trumpet ready to blare!

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, April 7th Readings

Sunday: Acts 4:32-35/Ps 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24 (1)/
1 Jn 5:1-6/Jn 20:19-31

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, April 7th

- We hear how the early Christians lived in unity and holiness, bearing witness to Jesus, and living in community as friends. Which of these traits do you see at work in your faith community?
- John teaches his community that our faith in Jesus helps us "conquer the world." What struggles are you facing that you need to confront and defeat?
- The risen Jesus meets Thomas in the midst of his doubt and encourages him to believe. Who could you encourage this week to have faith in the resurrection of Jesus?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

Prayer for Easter

*Jesus, you have risen,
so there is hope for me.
You are no longer in the power of sin, of evil! Love has triumphed, mercy has been victorious!
God's mercy always triumphs
because God's love is stronger than evil and death itself.
God's love can transform our lives.
God's love can do this!*

Amen.

~ Pope Francis

EASTER & EASTER SEASON MARCH 31ST

He is Risen! Alleluia!!!

We have journeyed together through the forty days of Lent. We have worn purple, prayed, fasted, and given alms as we focused our hearts ever more keenly on Christ. Our music and our lives have been more sparing as we prepared our hearts for the great celebration of the Triduum and Easter Sunday.

The Easter Vigil, day three of the Triduum, is on Saturday, March 30 at 8:00pm. We then celebrate our regular schedule of Sunday morning Masses on Easter Sunday. At 7:00 am, we have cantors and a string quartet. At 9:00 am, we have the Bell Choir. At 11:00 am, we have the Adult Choir and a Brass Quartet. There is no 6:00 pm Mass on Easter Sunday. In order to help us celebrate lavishly and well, incense will be used at the Easter Vigil and on Easter Sunday at the 9:00 am and 11:00 am Masses.

Of note this year is that we will be welcoming many new members into the church who have participated in Becoming Fully Catholic with Father Ariel. At the Easter Vigil, we have the honor of welcoming Catechumens, who will receive the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist. On Easter Sunday morning, Candidates will be confirmed in the Catholic faith.

Easter Sunday is the start of the Easter Season, which lasts for fifty days, culminating in the Feast of Pentecost. During the Easter Season, the entire character of our worship changes. Our music becomes brighter and more jubilant. We can proclaim once again the joyous refrain of "Alleluia." "Alleluia" comes from the ancient Hebrew meaning, "Praise the Lord!" It is used in the Mass as a superlative expression of thanksgiving, joy, and triumph since Christ has conquered death. We sing "Jesus Christ is Risen Today" with its chorus of Alleluias. We proclaim the Gospel Acclamation, which uses Alleluia as the refrain and then a verse that summarizes the main idea of the upcoming Gospel reading. Lastly, we are dismissed at the end of the Mass with the priest or deacon chanting: "Go in the peace of Christ, Alleluia, Alleluia!" To which we respond, "Thanks be to God, Alleluia, Alleluia!" This ancient chant ties us to our rich tradition and history as Catholics and reminds us every week of Christ's resurrection and triumph over death. He is risen: Alleluia!

ARCHBISHOP JEROME E. LISTECKI EASTER LETTER

EASTER 2024

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

– 1 Peter: 1:3

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace and peace be to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

As we enter this joyous season of Easter, I am filled with gratitude for the many blessings we have received from God throughout this year. Easter is a time of renewal and hope, a time when we celebrate the victory of life over death, light over darkness, and love over sin. No doubt, we've all experienced moments of sadness and grief, yet with the Lord's grace, we've carried on.

As we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, I encourage you to reflect closely on the significance of this great feast. Easter is not simply a historical event that took place more than 2000 years ago; it is a reality that continues to shape our lives today. Through his death and resurrection, Jesus conquered sin and death, opening the way to eternal life for all who believe in him.

This Easter, let us renew our faith in the risen Christ and recommit ourselves to living as his disciples. Embrace the message of hope and salvation that he proclaimed and make a commitment to share it with others. May we all strive to love one another as he has loved us, showing compassion, mercy, and forgiveness to all.

I pray that the joy of Easter fills your hearts and homes, bringing renewed hope, peace, and love. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

With prayers for a blessed Easter,

+ Jerome E. ListECKi

THERE IS STILL TIME TO GIVE LENTEN ALMSGIVING - LA SAGRADA FAMILIA

During Lent, in lieu of Lenten rice bowls, St. Charles was supporting La Sagrada Familia, and there is still time to support the many needs in the Dominican Republic. Please get your almsgiving in by Friday, April 5th to the Parish Office.

TESTIMONIAL BY PARISHIONER LAURA LIEN

Prior to going on this mission to the Dominican Republic last Fall, I was a little nervous to be honest. I had never been on a mission trip before and never saw poverty face-to-face. We all think we know what poverty looks like since we have seen the lives of the poor on TV, in magazines and videos, so I thought I was prepared. Visiting the communities and villages of the people of the La Sagrada Familia Community was eye-opening to say the least.

Visiting the nutrition centers was different than I was expecting. This was basically a daycare setting with the main purpose of providing a warm breakfast and lunch to preschool-aged children five days each week. They seemed to be having fun with their peers and teachers, engaging in some basic learning and singing. Looking into the eyes of these children not knowing what they were going home to and wondering if this may be the only meal these children get all week long—it was heartbreaking!

The people of this community were so full of love, kindness, and goodness, regardless of their lack of "things." Their love of the Lord and willingness to share that with us was heartwarming. They may be poor in material things but are rich in spirit and their faith in God.

As Catholics, we are called to help, serve and provide for those in need, like our Dominican Republic family. Please consider La Sagrada Familia this Lent as your almsgiving. It truly is the gift that keeps on giving!
