THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT LUKE 9:28B-36

St. Thomas Aquinas said that friends share three things: time, possessions and secrets. For example, how do I know if you're my friend? Well, let's say we've been to Mexico together, you've tried my shaky attempts at pasta carbonara, and you know what ridiculous costume I wore in a music video I filmed in my early twenties. We, dear reader, are definitely friends. We've shared time, possessions and secrets.

How does friendship with Jesus develop? The same way. Jesus lives and eats with his disciples. Then he takes Peter, James and John to Mount Tabor and there reveals to them his deepest secret: his glorious, divine Sonship. The majesty of God shines from within his humanity in a way that goes beyond description. God the Father confirms this "secret," saying, "This is my chosen Son, listen to him" (Luke 9:35). It's all so precious that "they fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone." Do we take time to be alone with Christ, to allow him to mystically share this "secret" with us as his dear friends?

Lenten challenge: This week, identify one time when you experienced an awareness of some specific aspect of Jesus — perhaps on a retreat, at Mass, in prayer or in an act of service. Spend ten minutes consciously re-living that experience in your heart. If you can't recall one, set aside at least two hours this Lent as a mini retreat, either alone in nature or in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Focus on him and ask him to share the secrets of his heart with you. He will. Then, as his friend, share the secrets in your heart.

Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence - reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word - adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, March 23rd Readings

Ex 3:1-8a, 13-15/Ps 103:1-2, 3-4, 6-7, 8, 11 (8a)/1 Cor 10:1-6, 10-12/Lk 13:1-9

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings.

Reflection guestions for Sunday, March 23rd

- The Lord God promised Abram land and many descendants because Abram put his faith in the Lord. Why do you have faith in God?
- Paul believed the mistakes of the Israelites in the desert serve as an example and a warning of what to avoid in our journey with God. How might you show gratitude to God this upcoming week of Lent?
- · Gospel Question: Jesus taught one must repent to bear good fruit in life. Can you think of some good fruit you have borne from repenting?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman of ©LPI

Mini Reflection: It's always helpful to get the opinion of someone we trust when we're facing a situation that confuses or alarms us. But we all have a divine confidante that can help us sort through anything we're dealing with. Are we taking advantage of that?

The Divine Confidante

My husband pretty much knows that if he tells me something — anything — he's also telling my sister.

Most of us have that person that we run to when we have important information. I'm not even talking about gossip; I'm talking about stuff we just have to discuss. We joke that I don't really know how I feel about something until I've run it by my sister first.

There's not really anything wrong with that. When we're trying to figure out how to think about something that has happened or how to react to a certain situation, it's always helpful to get the opinion of someone we trust.

But what if we ran as quickly to discuss the situation with God as we did to discuss it with our "person?" Wouldn't that be ideal?

After witnessing the transfiguration — an event that had to have been as confusing as it was astounding — we hear that the disciples "fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen."

When something profound, frightening, or confusing happens, our first confidante should be God. I'm reminded of Luke 2:19: "Mary kept all these things, pondering them in her heart." There is something to be said for taking a moment to keep that information sacred between ourselves and the One who can really help us confront it.

Sure, maybe we don't understand what just happened. Maybe we're scared by it. We don't really know how we feel about it. And that's totally okay. The divine confidante knows how to help us pray through that confusion, that fear.

If you're someone's "person" and they come to you wanting to talk, that's great. Talk it out. But remind them — and remind yourself — to pray about it as much as you talk about it.

Let the love of those things carry you through this Lent and beyond.

MESSAGE FROM FR. KEN

Dear St. Charles Community,

I wanted to let you know that I will be taking some time away from the parish for the next few weeks to focus on my health and wellness. During that time, you will be in the very capable hands of Fr. Ariel with assistance from Fr. Nathan Reesman, Vicar of Clergy for the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, who will be the parish administrator during my absence. I appreciate your thoughts and prayers throughout the coming weeks.

Blessings to you today and always,

For Ken

NEW PARISH GARAGE

We are pleased to announce that our new garage has been completed and is being utilized by our staff. Please do not block the garage doors as Fr. Ariel parks in the garage and needs to come and go as needs arise, such as emergency Annointing of the sick. Thank you for your understanding!

LENTEN ALMSGIVING - LA SAGRADA FAMILIA

Looking for ways to give during Lent? In lieu of Lenten rice bowls, St. Charles is supporting La Sagrada Familia again this Spring. Your Lenten almsgiving will go toward funding their new health and nutrition center. They have a goal of $400,000 and are 60% of the way there. This center will go a long way toward physically and spiritually feeding the people of La Sagrada Familia for years to come. Thank you for your generosity!

TESTIMONIAL BY PARISHIONER DIANNE MERKEL

When hearts are changed, lives are touched. That is what happens in the La Sagrada Familia parish community, our sister parish in the Dominican Republic. I was blessed to visit there last Fall. To see the joy and hospitality these very impoverished people have moved my heart. I was so impressed with what our archdiocese has been doing in this community for the last 40 years. We have built a small health center, a pharmacy, a nutrition center, a recycling plant, a physical therapy center; we have provided scholarships, education and much more. I was especially proud of our parish knowing not only did we contribute to all of this but we also built two houses for single mothers and a church for their community. This is only possible with your generous contributions. Having had the opportunity to see it first hand, I thank you. You have done a beautiful thing. I hope you will consider continuing your generosity and make this your Lenten almsgiving practice for this year. Please keep this community and this mission in your prayers. May you be blessed through your kindness.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Pancake Mix, Ragu Spaghetti Sauce (not Traditional), Variety of Crackers, Mandarin Oranges, Cookies, 12 oz. Canned Chicken Breast

Today is the Second Sunday of Lent. Lent is a call not just to "give something up" but more importantly to "give alms for the poor." Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home. When in need, they contact the St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Charles Parish. In effect, they are ringing your doorbell. Your gifts to the Society of SVDP bring joy, peace, mercy and kindness to the hurting hearts of the poor. In the month of February, we assisted 94 families at the Food Pantry and helped others with rent, electric bills and car repairs.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you know of someone in need of our services, please call us at 262-367-0800.

The food pantry will be closed when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will reopen the following week, weather permitting.
