THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

JOHN 9:1-41

A man looking a bit downtrodden approached me as I filled my car's gas tank. He asked, "May I share with you my testimony about how good God is?" "OK," I skeptically answered. He went on to tell me that he had been an alcoholic and drug addict and that God had healed him; now he was four years sober. He said, "I didn't deserve it, but now I'm a different person. God is so good! Have a terrific Tuesday!" A few minutes later, as I drove away, I saw him smiling and handing a homeless person some money. I was confronted with a choice: either he was a total fraud or God had changed him. Something had happened to him, and it didn't seem fake. Maybe it was God.

When Jesus heals the man born blind, the man becomes a challenge to everyone who meets him. They must decide. Is he the same blind person who they knew before? Who healed him and how? And what is the status of the one who can heal such infirmities? We shouldn't be surprised at the storm of doubt, hatred and animosity that swirls around the healed man — so it often goes when Jesus heals someone even to this day.

Like we often do, the religious leaders confronting the healed man declare that God is not at work. They ask with mocking superiority and dismissive disdain, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" (John 9:34). And they cast him out. When Jesus clearly works in our lives, in us or around us, we should accept it, and give praise and thanks for this wonderful manifestation of his goodness.

Lenten challenge: Think of one way the Lord has healed you. Perhaps he healed a form of selfishness, a physical ailment, or something else. This week, find a person to whom you can share that testimony and share it. Don't worry if they don't accept it was God who did it.

Father John Muir ©LPi

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, April 6th Readings

Is 43:16-21/Ps 126:1-2, 2-3, 4-5, 6 (3)/Phil 3:8-14/Jn 8:1-11
Scrutiny: Ez 37:12-14/Ps 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8 (7)/Rom 8:8-11/
Jn 11:1-45 or 11:3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, April 6th

- The prophet Isaiah teaches us that the Lord forgets our sins and offers us a new beginning so that we might praise him. What could you do today to honor and praise the Lord?
- Paul tells the believers in Phillipi of his deep desire and hope to know Jesus and the power of his resurrection. In what ways have you drawn closer to Jesus during this season of Lent?
- Jesus showed mercy toward the sinful woman when others were quick to judge her. Is there someone in your life who you could show mercy over judgment this week?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

LENTEN ALMSGIVING - LA SAGRADA FAMILIA

Looking for ways to give during Lent? In lieu of Lenten rice bowls, St. Charles is supporting La Sagrada Familia again this Spring. Your Lenten almsgiving will go toward funding their new health and nutrition center. They have a goal of $400,000 and are 60% of the way there. This center will go a long way toward physically and spiritually feeding the people of La Sagrada Familia for years to come. Donations can be made online or in our Parish Office by cash or check with La Sagrada Familia in the memo line. Donations will be taken until Holy Thursday, April 17. Thank you for your generosity!

Are you interested in improving your prayer life throughout Lent? Adoration is a perfect way to do that.
