THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 26:14-27:66

Just prior to this week's Passion narrative in St. Matthew's Gospel, there is a small, striking story describing a woman's scandalous action toward Jesus: "A woman came up to him with an alabaster jar of costly perfumed oil, and poured it on his head" (Matthew 26:7). The ointment was pure nard, worth more than 300 denarii. A year's wages. Maybe a dowry, maybe a family inheritance. In any case, she breaks it. She does not measure or ration. She pours it all out, irreversibly, over Jesus. Why does this image begin Holy Week?

Because what she does with the jar, Jesus will soon do with his life. The jar must be broken so the fragrance can be released. Jesus' body will be broken so his priceless divine and human love can be poured out. She gives everything, just as he is about to give everything. And He sees it: "She has done a good thing for me" (Matthew 26:10). Her act is lavish, impractical, scandalous in its apparent wastefulness. And he loves it. It is what Holy Week is all about.

What jar are you still holding onto? Your time? Your comfort? Your plan for how life should go? Don't just wave palms today. Let yourself be broken open so your love, too, can be poured out.

Lenten Challenge: Offer something costly to Jesus this Holy Week — not out of guilt but love. Your attention. Your forgiveness. Your time. Break the jar. Trust that nothing poured out for him is ever wasted.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, April 5th Readings

Acts 10:34a, 37-43/Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23/Col 3:1-4 or 1 Cor 5:6b-8/Jn 20:1-9 or Mt 28:1-10 Or Lk 24:13-35

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, April 5th

- Peter testifies to others about what the Apostles witnessed with the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Do you ever share your faith with friends or family?
- Paul encourages the Colossians to see themselves as already risen with Christ, anticipating his return in glory. Does anticipating Christ's return impact any of your daily decision-making?
- Both the angel of the Lord and the risen Jesus greet Mary Magdalene and the other Mary with these words of comfort: "Do not be afraid." Who in your circle of friends or family needs to be comforted this week?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

NEW HEIGHTS SMALL GROUP SUMMIT

May 9, 2026 | 9am-5pm Mass

Meet one of our speakers, Kristin Bird. Kristin is a wife, mother, disciple of Jesus, and on fire Catholic. She is a sought-after speaker, teacher, and consultant with a long history of helping Catholic parishes and schools foster deeper discipleship and authentic conversion. Her gift of teaching, love of storytelling, and passion for the faith fuel her life's mission: to set the world ablaze from the frozen tundra (Luke 12:49).

Kristin and her husband Tony live in Oshkosh, WI with their three teenage children. When she gets out from behind the computer screen, you'll find her quoting movies with Tony, laughing at bad puns with her kids, or with her nose in a book.

Scan the QR code to register by April 26th. Contact Valerie Winkel at vwinkel@stcharleshartland.org with any questions.

CELEBRATING HOLY WEEK AT ST. CHARLES

We begin the observance of Holy Week on Palm Sunday, and it leads us into the celebration of the Paschal Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. This most sacred week of the church year is one in which we are drawn ever-deeper into the mission of Christ on earth and eventually His passion, death, and resurrection. The days between Palm Sunday and Holy Thursday (Maundy Thursday) are known as Holy Monday, Holy Tuesday, and Holy Wednesday (Spy Wednesday). Spy Wednesday is called this because of the Gospel reading (Matthew 26:14-25) where we learn that Judas, one of Jesus' disciples, had become a spy and betrayed Him. After this comes the Triduum, which is seen as one continuous liturgy running from Thursday through Saturday.

Part of St. Charles' rich tradition of worship is Daily Mass and Morning Prayer. During the Triduum, however, there can only be two Masses: one on Holy Thursday and one on Holy Saturday. So instead of Daily Mass on these days, we observe Morning Prayer. During Morning Prayer, we sing multiple Canticles and Psalms and hear Sacred Scripture, then a brief reflection given by a member of the St. Charles community. It is a beautiful opportunity for our priests to pray as part of the assembly and to be fed by the preaching of a lay person, seminarian, or deacon.

There are many beautiful and rich traditions of Holy Week, including the Palm Sunday Procession, the reception of the Holy Oils, the footwashing, the collection for the Holy Land, Stations of the Cross, Adoration of the Cross, Adoration of the Eucharist, the Easter Fire, and the blessing of food for our Easter tables. Through the Scripture readings we hear during Holy Week, we once again experience the history of our salvation as the People of God, from the creation of the world by God through his Son's passion, death and resurrection. And music! So much beautiful music that helps us experience the jubilation, pain, suffering, grief, and then eventually a return to joy! We as Christians believe that Holy Week is truly the holiest week of the liturgical year, and the days of the Triduum are the holiest three days, each one greater than the day before.

If you have never experienced the Triduum, we invite you to come to all three services. Catholics have been doing this for hundreds of years and coming away renewed and affirmed in their faith in Christ as well as in the beauty of the Church's traditions, prayers and symbolism.

PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

Pope Leo has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few.

The pandemic had hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. The war and now the Iranian conflict have made their situation even more dire. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. Thank you for your generosity.

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org or www.custodia.org.

CELEBRATING THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM AT ST. CHARLES

Many Catholics have never experienced the Paschal Triduum in its entirety. The Triduum is one continuous Rite, consisting of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday when we celebrate the Easter Vigil. Each of the three days of the Triduum is rich with Sacred Scripture, powerful rituals, and beautiful music.

HOLY THURSDAY AT ST. CHARLES

The Triduum begins on Holy Thursday, April 2 at 7:00pm. After the Gathering Song, we experience the Reception of Holy Oils, which were consecrated on Holy Tuesday by Archbishop Grob at the Chrism Mass at the Cathedral. First is the Oil of the Sick for healing in body, mind, and soul. Next is the Oil of Catechumens for anointing those preparing for Baptism. Lastly, the Oil of Chrism, which is used to anoint babies and adults after Baptism, those who are being confirmed, Bishops and Priests at Ordination, and altars and churches when they are dedicated. In the Gospel, we hear the story of Jesus sharing a Passover meal with his disciples but first tenderly washing their feet. During our Mass of the Lord's Supper, twelve members of the St. Charles community will have their feet washed by our priests. Next, the collection is for the St. Vincent de Paul food pantry. Music selections include "Lift High the Cross," "Ubi Caritas," and "Panis Angelicus." At the end of Mass, there will be a procession of the Blessed Sacrament to the Borromeo Hall, where Adoration will take place until midnight. We will sing Pange Lingua, and all are invited to adore the Blessed Sacrament. Lastly, the entire sanctuary is stripped of furniture and decoration.

St. Charles Holy Week and The Paschal Triduum material was written by members of our Worship Team.

GOOD FRIDAY AT ST. CHARLES

On Good Friday, we gather at 1:00pm in silence. Baskets will be available in the narthex for the collection for the Holy Land. Good Friday is not a Mass, and it is not a Holy Day of Obligation. The observance begins with a silent procession, and the priests prostrate themselves in front of the altar. Then, in the Liturgy of the Word, we hear the psalmist lead Psalm 31: "Father into your hands, I commend my spirit." We proclaim the Passion reading. We sing the Solemn Intercessions. We then have the opportunity to adore and reverence the cross.

During the adoration of the cross, we sing "O Sacred Head," "Were You There," "Behold the Wood," and "Jesus Remember Me." Holy Communion, which was reserved from the previous night's Mass of the Lord's Supper, is distributed. If you are unable to come to the 1:00pm service, you are invited to participate in Stations of the Cross that evening at 7:00pm.

HOLY SATURDAY AT ST. CHARLES

On Holy Saturday, there is a blessing of the Easter foods at 4:00pm in church. At 8:00pm, we gather outside at the front entrance of the church for the Easter Fire. The Easter Vigil is the high point and holiest day of the entire church year. The church begins in darkness, and the Exsultet will be chanted. The Paschal Candle is lit, and from that one light of Christ, we too light our taper candles until the entire church shines with the light of Christ. In the Liturgy of the Word, we hear the story of our faith from Genesis to the Resurrection: nine scripture readings and eight psalms. Music will be led by the Adult Choir accompanied by a brass quartet. There will be a Sprinkling Rite to remind us all of our own Baptism and several new members will be baptized. Then, we are finally able to proclaim "Alleluia! Christ is risen!" and Easter has begun.
