2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER (SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY) GOSPEL MEDITATION

A Protestant pastor friend of mine was invited to meet Pope Francis with a group of other pastors. He noticed the Pope's chair was especially ornate and set at the head of the group. He somewhat playfully said, "Holy Father, why do you get that special chair?" The group chuckled nervously at my friend's audacious chide.

The following year, the group was invited to return. They entered the room to find only simple chairs placed in a circle. Pope Francis entered, sat down in one of the humble chairs and, looking directly at my friend with a twinkle in his eye, asked, "What do you think of my chair now?" My friend was stunned that the Pope remembered his concerns — and took the time to answer them.

Thomas the apostle was certainly stunned by the Risen Jesus displaying his wounds in person. But he also must have been equally shocked that Jesus knew and answered his particular questions, worries, and even demands related to his faith. How humbled — and perhaps a bit terrified — he must have been to realize God remembers his concerns and cares enough to answer them.

What questions or demands about Jesus do you find in your heart? Like Thomas, will you be bold enough to voice them this week? How wonderful to know that if we do so, God will remember and respond even to our most audacious desires.

~ Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, April 14th Readings

Sunday: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19/Ps 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9 (7a)/
1 Jn 2:1-5a/Lk 24:35-48

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, April 14th

- Peter challenges the religious leaders of Jerusalem who put Jesus to death to repent of their sins and be converted. Have you ever seen someone have a conversion to the faith?
- John tells us that we should turn to Jesus, our Advocate, when we sin and fail to keep his commandments. Can you think of a time when you sought Jesus in a time of need?
- The resurrected Jesus taught the disciples how they were witnesses to the Scriptures being fulfilled in his suffering, death, and resurrection and that forgiveness of sins was to be preached in his name. How might you share your faith this week at home or at work?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY CELEBRATING ON APRIL 14TH

What is Divine Mercy Sunday?

Since the year 2000, the Second Sunday of Easter is also known as Divine Mercy Sunday. This celebration finds its roots in the private revelations of a Polish nun, Faustina Kowalska, who lived in the early part of the twentieth century.

Sr. Faustina, though poorly educated, kept a diary during her short lifetime in which she documented her experiences of visions and conversations with Jesus. In her diary, Sr. Faustina wrote that she experienced an image of the Risen Lord, from whose heart two rays shone, one red (representing blood) and the other white or translucent (symbolizing water) with the words "Jesus, I trust in you" at the bottom. Sr. Faustina claimed that Jesus told her, "I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish."

The Image of Divine Mercy is very familiar to Catholics. It symbolizes God's abundant mercy. Sr. Faustina's diary stresses the importance of God's mercy and our need to be open and accepting of that mercy. According to Sr. Faustina, it was Jesus' own wish that a Feast of Mercy be established on the Second Sunday of Easter, to "be a refuge and shelter for all souls ..."

Sr. Faustina died in 1938 and was canonized by Pope John Paul II in 2000. It was John Paul II who proclaimed during her canonization ceremony that the Second Sunday of Easter would also be known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

Devotion to the Divine Mercy has grown rapidly over the past twenty years, and there are many devotional practices including a novena, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Hour of Great Mercy (traditionally celebrated at 3 p.m.), and a plenary indulgence granted to those who receive the Eucharist and celebrate reconciliation on Divine Mercy Sunday.

Here at St. Charles, there will be a Divine Mercy Service from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. This service will include Eucharistic Adoration, veneration of the Image of Divine Mercy, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, and the opportunity for individual confession. All are welcome to come and pray with us.

*Jesus,
I Trust in You.*

Most Merciful Jesus, whose very nature it is to have compassion on us
and to forgive us,
do not look upon our sins
but upon our trust which we place in Your infinite goodness.
Receive us all into the abode
of Your Most Compassionate Heart and never let us escape from It.
We beg this of You by Your love which unites You to the Father and the Holy Spirit.
Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze
upon all mankind and especially upon poor sinners, all enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus.
For the sake of His sorrowful Passion,
show us Your mercy,
that we may praise the omnipotence of Your mercy
forever and ever.
Amen.
