3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was a kid, a friend at my home parish told me, “If you get to Mass by the Gospel reading, it counts!” As a lifelong late arriver, it’s something I have told myself many times, especially in my earlier years as a Catholic. If the “it counts” is justifiable on a pathetically minimal scale of liturgical legalism, then the Gospel reading today shows how insanely wrong-headed it is and how helpful it is to rethink the Mass in its light.

The famous “Road to Emmaus” story recounts, on that first Sunday of the Resurrection, the basic two-fold structure of the Mass: Word, followed by Eucharist. Jesus spends a significant period of time with two dismayed disciples as he connects a wide swath of the Hebrew scriptures with his own suffering, death, and resurrection. They would later report that this Liturgy of the Word touched their hearts with an inexplicable fire. This Word-induced flame alone is what leads the two disciples to discover Jesus’ presence in the “breaking of the bread.”

With this in mind, how can we possibly think that the Liturgy of the Word is unnecessary or incidental? The two disciples needed the Scriptures explained to them in order to experience Jesus alive in the eucharistic breaking of bread. Sure, we say, but they had the Risen Jesus. But that’s precisely the point: Jesus is risen and accompanies us in both parts of the Mass. Imagine how much our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist would deepen if we (preachers and listeners) took even more seriously that Jesus himself sets our hearts ablaze with his Word so that we know him in the Eucharist. That Word-induced fire counts, too!

~ Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God’s presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, April 21st Readings

Sunday: Acts 4:8-12/Ps 118: 1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29 (22)/Jn 3:1-2/Jn 10:11-18

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, April 21st

- Peter bore witness to the Sanhedrin that it was the crucified and risen Jesus who healed the crippled man and through whom we are saved. Have you ever told someone else about your faith in Jesus?
- John tells us that as believers we are destined one day to be like the resurrected and glorified Jesus. How do you think we can best prepare for such a future?
- As the “Good Shepherd,” Jesus speaks of the power given to him by the Father to lay down his life for his sheep. What could you do this week for the benefit of another?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

We now have Adoration in our new chapel from Sundays at 7 p.m. through Saturdays at 3 p.m. As we fill our open Adoration hours, we will shift to having Adoration twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. Please visit the News story on our website for more information.

THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU DO

Thank You!

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

On behalf of the Parish Hospitality Team, we want to thank everyone who graciously helped in any way to make the Dedication Weekend a beautiful celebration! We hosted seven receptions between Friday evening and Sunday evening, and each one was filled with an atmosphere of excitement, camaraderie, and great food! We had several moments throughout the weekend that we felt the presence of our dear Lord working with us.

We couldn't have done this without an awesome amount of teamwork, and we are very grateful for those who stepped up to donate food items, prep, serve and clean up for each reception - it was amazing how everything came together!

Blessings on you and your families as we begin this new era at St. Charles!

March 31, 2024

Dear parishioners and friends of Saint Charles Borromeo,

Happy Easter!

Easter is a time where the risen Christ challenges us to new life – to believe, precisely, that there are surprises hidden at the heart of death: that every scream, tear, and cry is redeemed, and that God's joy is stronger than death.

I've always loved thinking about how, in the wake of Easter Sunday, the disciples' fear turns into amazement and then into courage. Indeed, this is one of the greatest "proofs" of the Resurrection: the transformation of the disciples. Easter reminds us that our crucified hopes and dreams are resurrected because nothing is ever beyond the power of God's grace.

On behalf of the parishioners and staff at La Sagrada Familia Parish, we would like to wish you a blessed and happy Easter Season. We would also like to thank you for your generosity, through your Lenten almsgiving, toward our parishioners in the communities of Cañada de Piedra and Altagracia. Your generous hearts will turn sadness into joy!!!

May the Risen Christ fill your lives with joy and remind you that nothing is impossible with God!

With all our heartfelt affection and love,

Fr. Javier Guativa
Pastor of La Sagrada Familia Parish

ALL THE CHURCH SHARES YOUR JOY!

St. Charles had three Catechumens (non-baptized persons seeking communion with the church) and sixteen Candidates (baptized Christians seeking full communion with the church) fully initiated into the church this Easter. Congratulations to them, their sponsors and their families!

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Jelly (not Grape), 1 lb. Canned Hams, Mustard, Canned Pineapple, Jello

In the Gospel of the Third Sunday of Easter, Jesus explains the meaning of the scriptures. Like the disciples, when we offer and receive forgiveness, our hearts burn because we encounter the risen Christ within us. Have you considered answering the call to "help the poor find forgiveness and healing in their life" by joining the St. Charles Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

In the month of March, the St. Charles Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting seventy-seven families in the food pantry and helping with rent and utility bills. Thank you for your continued support.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you are in need of assistance, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL #3562 IN ACTION

Once again it was a pleasure for the Knights of Columbus to present a $200 check to St. Charles Knitting and Crochet Ministry. Accepting the check on behalf of the ministry is Ann Hansen, chairperson. From April of 2023 through March of 2024, the ministry has made 1097 items such as Premie hats for babies, Elizabeth Ministry, St. Vincent de Paul Jail Ministry, Right to Life blankets, Christ Child Society, and many other needy organizations.

Jesus, you told us that we were to clothe the naked, shelter the homeless and comfort the sick and needy. Bless our hands as we take yarn, needle and hook to create for the poor and those in need of caring, that with your grace and love they may weather life's storm.

Dave Vogt, on behalf of the Knights of Columbus, presents Ann Hansen our financial stipend to purchase many needed supplies. Contact Ann Hansen at hansendairy97@gmail.com to learn more about this loving ministry.
