THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

John 20:19-31

It's common for Catholics to hear the question, "Why do I have to go to a priest to have my sins forgiven?" I've never liked that question because not only is it clunky (confession is the ordinary way for the pardoning of serious sins, not lesser ones). But it misses the larger context: the wonderful origins of the sacrament itself. And this context is deeply Jewish.

Ancient Jews associated forgiveness of sins with priests offering sacrifices in the Jerusalem temple. It was a solemn, public, and tangible way to access God's mercy. So when the risen Jesus breathes on the Apostles and says, "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained" (John 20:23), the upshot is remarkable: he is the new temple and his Apostles are the new priests. Jerusalem is no longer the place to find forgiveness from sin. Jesus' body, the Church, is.

So why should we go to the Sacrament of Confession? For the same reason ancient Jews went to the temple in Jerusalem: to experience the intimacy, joy, and life-giving power of God's eternal forgiveness.

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, May 4th Readings

Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41/Ps 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11-12, 13 (2a)/Rv 5:11-14/ Jn 21:1-19 or 21:1-14

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, May 4th

- The Apostles "rejoiced" when they suffered public dishonor for preaching that Jesus rose from the dead. Have you ever found joy amid your own suffering?
- John has a vision of the whole created order worshipping and praising Jesus as the slain and risen Lamb. In what ways will you praise and worship Jesus this week?
- The resurrected Jesus reveals to Peter that the cost of following him and leading the disciples will be his own martyrdom. How are you sometimes challenged in following Jesus?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

JESUS, I TRUST IN YOU.

Most Merciful Jesus, whose very nature it is to have compassion on us and to forgive us, do not look upon our sins but upon our trust which we place in Your infinite goodness.

Receive us all into the abode of Your Most Compassionate Heart and never let us escape from It.

We beg this of You by Your love which unites You to the Father and the Holy Spirit.

Eternal Father, turn Your merciful gaze upon all mankind and especially upon poor sinners, all enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus.

For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, show us Your mercy, that we may praise the omnipotence of Your mercy forever and ever. Amen.

CGS UPDATES

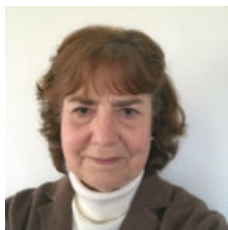

We are blessed at St. Charles to have designated spaces for the religious education program called Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. These beautiful spaces are prepared environments, using Montessori principles with biblical and liturgical materials for the children to use to help them develop their relationship with God, understand their Catholic faith, and develop their personal prayer life.

ERIKA WOOD

Hello! I'm Erika Wood, and I am one of the new Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Teachers serving St. Charles School and Parish. I am so excited to bring more children into the atrium to listen to God through scripture and work. I have been volunteering in CGS atria since 2021. I have a background in hazardous waste management and soil science.

SHARON TOBOLSKI

I am a retired, certified Montessori teacher having devoted my career guiding children ages 3-6 in Children's House and ages 6-9 in lower elementary classrooms. I have completed training for CGS Level 1 and look forward to beginning Level 2 training. I have assisted and now serve as a lead teacher in a Level 1 atrium at St. Charles as a volunteer. As CGS becomes available to more children, I am so excited to be given the opportunity to serve them in the capacity of part-time Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Staff Catechist. I am grateful for Father Ken's vision and support as well as Shelly Buchan's leadership and experience in further implementing Catechesis of the Good Shepherd at St. Charles.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PROM DRESS & COMMUNION CLOTHING DONATIONS

Words are not enough to convey our thanks for your clothing drive donations. Many children receiving their First Holy Communion at St. Anthony School in Milwaukee have you to thank for sharing your child's clothing to help make their day special.

Principal Rose Martin of their High School stated, "Your donation offers our students the opportunity to select a dress for prom at no cost to them. In these difficult financial times, these dresses are a welcome and unexpected surprise for our girls! Once again, thank you!"
