THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

John 20:1-9

Zander Price was the fastest kid at my grade school. He won every race on Field Day. To me, his swiftness meant he was the greatest. Zander was the best.

It's the same with the speediest apostle on Easter morning. John tells us he "ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first." (John 20:4) But only after Peter entered did John go in, see the burial cloths, and believe. Here is a symbol of two dimensions of the Church. John, the beloved disciple, represents the contemplative, mystical life: affection, prayer, and intimacy. Peter, the rock, represents the Church's institutional life: steady, authoritative, structured...but slower.

Of course, John runs faster! Love is the heartbeat of Christian faith, so love will always arrive first. Peter's role is, in a sense, secondary. He arrives later, but is still very much needed. John waits for him. The Church must be built, balanced, protected, and led. Love without structure can vanish; structure without love becomes lifeless.

This dynamic is not just historical — it is personal. In you, there is a John who longs to run to the tomb in love. Let him run! Pray, sing and love Jesus. There is also a Peter, who eventually gets to the tomb and takes charge. The Risen Christ wants both. Remember: if you want to get to the mystery of Jesus' resurrection fast...love him, for love is best.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, April 12th Readings

Acts 2:42-47/Ps 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24/1 Pt 1:3-9/Jn 20:19-31

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, April 12th

- In the immediate aftermath of Jesus' resurrection and ascension, the community of believers in Jerusalem experienced much joy and harmony. In what ways do you help build up your faith community?
- With Jesus' resurrection from the dead, Peter can now speak of an inheritance that awaits all believers and will one day be revealed to us. How should knowledge of this upcoming gift impact our living in the present moment?
- Thomas needed concrete evidence before he would believe that Jesus had risen from the dead. What convinces you that Jesus is risen and alive?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

OFFICES CLOSED

St. Charles' Parish Office & Business Center will be closed on Easter Monday, April 6th. We pray you and your families have a blessed Easter!

A LETTER FROM ARCHBISHOP GROB

EASTER 2026

Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me.

- Matthew 28:10

Hello Everyone,

In Jesus' first words to the women at the tomb, he says three things we can take to heart.

First, he says, "Do not be afraid." We all have something we're afraid of. Jesus' ultimate triumph over sin and death should cast away all our fears and worries. Of course, this is much harder in practice than in theory, but we are reminded to cling to God's promises and not be afraid.

Then he tells them to "go" and tell. The women at the tomb become the first evangelists, and this is the call to us as well. Go! Go tell your children and spouses. Go tell the neighbors who live next to you. Jesus has conquered death and defeated our sin. We are meant to be on the move. Go. Tell.

Lastly, he tells them that they will see him in Galilee. What is Galilee for us? It is our mission field. When you think about your own mission field, you might wonder if you're being called to some distant land, like the prophets of old. For many of us, our Galilee is much closer than we think. Your "Galilee," the place where you will see Jesus — is the home in which you live, the place in which you work, the community in which you are rooted, the Church in which you worship. The people in those places are those in whom you will see Jesus.

Everything has changed. Do not be afraid. Go and tell others that Jesus is alive. Then you will see Jesus in yourself and in others.

Happy Easter!

As I do for you, please pray for me,

Most Reverend Jeffrey S. Grob
Archbishop of Milwaukee

NEW HEIGHTS SMALL GROUP SUMMIT

May 9, 2026 | 9am-5pm Mass

Meet one of our speakers, AJ Garcia. AJ and his family are parishioners of St. Charles. AJ serves as a Parish Regional Director and Director of Priest Accompaniment for FOCUS. As a Regional Director, he gets to support and coach missionaries at three parishes. As a Director of Priest Accompaniment he facilitates small groups with priests to help them develop and to live as missionary disciples through formation, accompaniment, and friendship. AJ supports priests in their efforts, offers coaching in mission skills, and walks with them through the difficulties and joys of daily life as a priest. Overall, he hopes to help the priests teach their parish staff and parishioners how to live more intentionally a life of missionary discipleship.

Scan the QR code to register by April 26th. Contact Valerie Winkel at vwinkel@stcharleshartland.org with any questions.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Kleenex, Toilet Paper, Cookies

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter, we find the challenge of seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice. It is then that we are truly Easter people!

Your generous gifts of food and donations to the general fund of the St. Vincent de Paul Society of St. Charles show that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them Easter hope and joy.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located on the church grounds at 313 Circle Drive, and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5pm and 6:30pm (new evening times).

The food pantry will be closed when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will reopen the following week, weather permitting.

THE DIFFERENCE IS EASTER

At Easter, we celebrate that our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, conquered death, rose from the dead, and remains very much alive. To the world of non-believers: what!? It is quite a big reality to swallow. But for the believer, it is a reality that inspires us to the point where we find ourselves constantly sharing the Gospel with everyone we meet! Right?

So what does Easter mean to you? The question is not what do you believe. The question is what impact does Easter have on you? How do your actions demonstrate the power of Easter? What does it mean when you hear that we, the Church, are an Easter people?

You may be saying right now that you have no intention of becoming an evangelist, passing out Bibles to all you meet. But I would like to suggest that you actually have a more powerful way of evangelizing others: everyday stewardship. Actions speak louder than words and the way you live your life can be a great testimony to all those you encounter. By acknowledging the gifts you have been given, cultivating those so they grow to an increase, and then sharing them fully with God and with others in God's name will give testimony to your belief that Jesus is alive and seeking a relationship with each of his people.

If more of us won't live our lives in this manner, then non-believers and non-intentional disciples will ask the question, "What difference does Easter make anyway?" Jesus died and rose for you and me. To be sure, it DOES make a difference.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
