THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

John 10:1-10

"I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." John 10:11

My most boring job was working at an insurance company as a college student. My main task? Filing. Now imagine if I had told my supervisor, "I just want you to know, I'm willing to die for these files." She would have called a psychiatrist — or at least security.

There is something absurd in Jesus' words in today's Gospel: "I am the good shepherd... I lay down my life for the sheep" (John 10:11). It sounds noble until you think about it. No one dies for sheep. Not a hired hand. Not even a good shepherd. Sheep are important, sure, but not worth a human life.

And yet, Jesus insists: I will die for them. The crowd understandably responds: "He is out of his mind."

C.S. Lewis once said that Jesus does not leave us the option of calling him merely a good teacher. If someone speaks like him, he is either lying, crazy, or telling the truth. John's Gospel won't let us stay sentimental. Jesus means it. He reveals a love that surpasses logic — a love that measures worth not by strength or success but by the willingness to suffer unto death.

The Good Shepherd's madness is mercy. His cross makes no earthly sense and yet it makes divine sense. He lays down his life not for kings or saints but for sheep — for the ordinary, the unworthy, for you and me.

Think of someone who may feel unworthy of love. Do something simple and generous for them, not because they deserve it but because Jesus did the same for you.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, May 3rd Readings

Acts 6:1-7/Ps 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19/1 Pt 2:4-9/Jn 14:1-12

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, May 3rd

- We hear how the Apostles selected men filled with the Holy Spirit and wisdom to help serve the widows in the growing Jerusalem Church. Is there a family member or friend you could help this week?
- Peter speaks of the resurrected Jesus as a "living stone." How do you sense that Jesus is alive in your life?
- Jesus is patient with Thomas and Philip when they are slow to understand him. Who or what challenges your patience?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

HOLY WEEK REFLECTION

PARISH RECONCILIATION (Prior to Holy Week)

The Saturday prior to Holy Week at the Parish Reconciliation, Fr. Ken shared a compelling homily on the health benefits of forgiveness. He shared how years ago, he attended a lecture at UW-Madison that shared the compelling scientific results that come when people choose to forgive: they lost weight, lessened the effects of illness, and felt a release from anxiety and more peace.

It was a compelling homily as we approached the final confession before Holy Week. I was inspired. I found myself reaching out to family and friends to make peace. I apologized for my part in the disagreement and expressed my love for them and desire for God's peace for both of us come Holy Week. I confessed to the priest my wrongdoing and found a new pep in my step. Praise the Lord, and thank you to Fr. Ken for the homiliac inspiration; he set the tone with a challenge of forgiveness for a beautiful Holy Week to come.

HOLY THURSDAY

The day started with the humble and true words from Seminarian Tim Heyrman at Morning Prayer. It was inspiring to see an aspiring priest giving the mini homily to prepare us for the Lord's Supper that evening. It was a day nodding to the beautiful sacrament of priesthood in so many ways.

That evening, Fr. Aaron Siehr shared the most vulnerable homily with us, sharing of his first impressions as a youngster observing the washing of the feet at his home parish, remembering his late father, and feeling a call early on to the priesthood. How beautiful!

At the Lord's Supper at the altar, Fr. Aaron's words were so delicately shared with tearful eyes, like it was the Lord Jesus himself was speaking. There was not a dry eye in the church. It was a true "wow God" moment. We felt the love of Jesus outpoured in the priesthood, in Fr. Aaron's 'flat' to God to follow those Holy Spirit tugs from childhood on. The night sky fell and thunderstorms entered in anticipation of Good Friday.

ST. CHARLES DESIGNATED AS PILGRIM SITE FOR YEAR OF SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

This year (2026) is a special Jubilee Year of Saint Francis of Assisi proclaimed by Pope Leo XIV in honor of the 800-year anniversary of the saint's death. In this time of spiritual renewal, the faithful have the opportunity to obtain plenary indulgences – a special grace of God's mercy – under the usual conditions:

sacramental confession, detachment from sin, Holy Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the pope by making a pilgrimage to a designated site anywhere in the world. You don't have to travel far, though, because Archbishop Grob has declared St. Charles along with several other sites in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee as a pilgrim site!

You will find all the information you need to know about this Jubilee Year on the Archdiocese of Milwaukee website at <https://www.archmil.org/saint-francis-of-assisi-jubilee>. There you will find information about the pilgrimage sites, prayer and formation resources, and suggestions for action and service in the spirit of St. Francis of Assisi – a saint who chose a life of extreme poverty, humility, and service to the disadvantaged.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE NOMINATION

Paul has been instrumental in the business operations of St. Charles as well as advancing the mission and goals of our community.

John Stellmacher and his wife Laura moved their young family to St. Charles several years ago. John has been an active member of the St. Charles Finance Council and School Commission. He has been an integral part of the St. Charles budgeting process as well as providing input in the vision and direction of our parish school.

Both Paul and John have graciously accepted Fr. Ken's nomination. Parish members may nominate parishioners for a trustee position. Please call the Parish Office for information and qualifications of nominees. Nomination forms are due May 18, 2026.

CATECHIST TRAINING

Interested in becoming a Catechist for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)? Do you love children and are you eager to share the essentials of our faith with them?

There is an upcoming Adult Formation Course to become a catechist for children ages 3-6.

June 15th-20th, 2026 | 9:00am - 4:30pm

St. Jerome Catholic Church, Oconomowoc, WI

Course Description: The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a Montessori-based religious formation program for children, beginning at the age of three. It seeks to create and facilitate a sacred, "hands-on" space for children called an atrium, in which both the children and their catechists can hear, ponder, and celebrate the most essential mysteries of the Catholic faith as revealed in the Scriptures and the Liturgy. Originally developed in Rome by Sofia Cavalletti and Gianna Gobbi fifty years ago, the Catechesis continues to spread world-wide. This course will ground the participant in the theory and praxis of CGS while also concretely preparing him/her to develop and facilitate an atrium for 3-6 year old children.

If you are interested, please contact Children's Discipleship Lead Shelly Buchan at sbuchan@stcharleshartland.org for more information.
