THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

JOHN 13:31-35

I've always found it amazing that Jesus never says to his disciples the straightforward and bumper-stickery words "I love you" or "I will always love you" (a la Dolly Parton's song). Why doesn't Jesus say, "I love you?"

Well, actually he does but in particular ways. He says, "As the Father loves me, so I love you" (John 15:9) thereby rooting his love for us in the space of the Holy Trinity. This week he commands, "Love another as I have loved you" (John 13:34). He presents his love for us as a completed action which continues into the present moment. How has he loved us? By becoming one of us, one with us, and finally giving his life for us in his suffering on the cross. We weren't there when he did that, but neither were his Apostles (except one). Still, that action is his great "I love you" to us.

His love is also hedged in a command: "Love one another." So how can we practically follow it? The great St. John XXIII wrote in his diary that each day he followed this rule: "Only for today, I will do one good deed and not tell anyone about it." The hidden nature of a good deed is a sign that it is truly loving. This week, take on St. John XXIII's practical method of following Jesus' great commandment of love. It's a splendid way to say, "I love you."

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, May 25th Readings

Acts 15:1-2, 22-29/Ps 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8 (4)/Rv 21:10-14, 22-23/Jn 14:23-2

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, May 25th

- We hear how the church in Jerusalem resolved their conflicts through dialogue and compromise. When has your faith community had to resolve a conflict?
- As John's final vision continues, he sees the splendor and glory of God lighting the city of Jerusalem. Can you think of a time when you felt really close to God?
- Jesus taught his disciples that the Holy Spirit will be sent to believers to teach them and remind them of his words. Can you share a time when you have felt inspired by the Holy Spirit?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Cereal, Bottled Juice, Toilet Paper, Paper Towels, Cleaning Supplies

In the Gospel today on the Fifth Sunday of Easter, Jesus says "I give you a new commandment: love one another...This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." By your gifts to the St. Charles Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you show that you have love for one another, especially the suffering and poor, and that indeed you are a disciple of Jesus.

In the month of April, we were able to bring the love and care of Jesus to the poor by assisting 108 families in the food pantry and helping with rent and utility bills. Thank you for your continued support of our ministry.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is now located on the Church grounds at 313 Circle Drive, Hartland, and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you know of someone in need of our services, please call us at 262-367-0800.

The food pantry will be closed when Arrowhead Schools close for inclement weather. It will reopen the following week, weather permitting.

Prayer for the Newly Elected Pope

O God, eternal shepherd, you govern your flock with unfailing care. You sent us your only Son, Jesus, our Good Shepherd, to gather us into your loving arms.

Jesus told Peter, "You are rock, and upon you I will build my Church." Thank you for sending us a new shepherd, Pope Leo XIV, to serve as a successor to Peter.

May he please you by his holiness and show watchful care over your flock.

May the Holy Spirit fill him with wisdom and compassion to lead your Church with courage and grace.

Strengthen him to stand firm in truth, to defend those who have been made poor and vulnerable, and to foster unity, justice, and holiness among all your people.

Bless him with good health and a long life.

May he, in communion with his fellow bishops, serve you and your people with dedication and joy, deep compassion, profound faith, hope, and charity so that the light of the Risen Christ will continue to dispel the darkness of this world.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

St. Peter, to whom were given the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, pray for us.
