THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

John 14:1-12

We generally approach life with the question, "What can this do for me?" We try a new workout, a low-carb diet, intermittent fasting, or a new career path, hoping it will make us healthier, stronger, happier. The assumption is that if I invest in this, I'll eventually reap some benefit or I won't do it.

It is easy to think of faith the same way: if I really practice my faith, what will it do for me? Will it make me calmer, more moral, more successful?

But in today's Gospel Jesus says something astonishing. He doesn't present himself as a teacher who shows us the way to life. He says, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life" (John 14:6). He is not merely a guide toward some higher benefit. He is the benefit itself. To know him is to know Life.

Thomas Aquinas explains that every desire in the human heart — love, joy, meaning, all of our restless cravings — is really an indirect cry for life. Even despair testifies to this longing: people despair precisely because they feel they are not, and might never be, fully alive.

The good news is that Jesus is not simply the means to a better life; He is Life itself. To believe in him is to share in God's own eternal vitality. Not simply later but even now. Faith is not a transaction that produces results — it is a union that fills us with joy. To be in communion with Christ is to be truly, fully alive.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, May 10th Readings

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17/Ps 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16 and 20/1 Pt 3:15-18/Jn 14:15-21

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, May 10th

- We hear how even the Samaritans came to believe in Jesus and received the gift of the Holy Spirit. When have you been surprised by God?
- Peter taught his community to learn how to explain their faith to others, even if they are hostile. Do you feel confident defending the faith?
- Jesus assures his disciples that God gives us the Holy Spirit to serve as our Advocate. What might you pray for this week from the Holy Spirit?

 READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

HOLY WEEK REFLECTIONS

HOLY FRIDAY

We began with morning prayer. We sang the compelling words "Over his head, they hung their accusation: 'Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews.'" That short antiphon by Dr. Aaron Mathews echoed in my head all day on Holy Friday. I get chills thinking about it. We all know how hurtful it is to be accused of something we didn't do. Imagine Jesus, innocent, being crucified. It was so unfair and yet he said "yes" to God. He endured the suffering for us willfully. Wow, how undeserving am I for his love and grace, and yet I accept it to save my soul.

At the Solemn Service Fr. Ken recited the words to the famous song: "Were you there when they crucified my Lord? Were you there when they hung him to the tree? Were you there when they nailed him to the cross? Were you there when they raised him from the tomb? Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble, were you there when they crucified my Lord?" His soft, gentle voice and pacing was so compelling. His delivery allowed me to take in those lyrics as if it were the first time I heard them. I sobbed. I felt like at that moment, I was there at Calvary. I flashed back to St. Veronica wiping the face of Jesus as he approached the cross. Simon helping Jesus carry the cross and seeing Mother Mary weep at the foot of the cross. There were no words. A pin drop could be heard. There was complete silence and awe. The music as the Solemn Service continued expressed the deep grief, the mourning, the appreciation for our Lord and Savior's death to take away our sins. Dr. Aaron Mathews and the choir struck a chord that we will remember all year long.

HOLY SATURDAY

The morning prayer began with Deacon Candidate John Van Hecke. It was so fitting to see our future deacon lead us; Alicia, his wife, read the reading, and we all took in what was the Easter Vigil to come. It was a moment of reflection on welcoming new members into the faith; the call to go out and make disciples coming alive tonight with the light of Christ at the center of it all. At the Easter Vigil, it was a windy night, and yet the Easter candle remained lit. Seminarian Tim Heyrman processed with Fr. Ken, Fr. Aaron Siehr, and the altar servers in a slow, reverent line walking into the pitch-dark church introducing the light of the world to us all. The Paschal candle has the 2026 date with its tall stature guiding us as many soon entered into the beauty of the sacraments and became official new members of our Church. The Baptisms along with the spoken promises echoed the "I dos" so fervently as we recalled our own Baptisms. Do you reject Satan and all his works? And all his empty show? I do! In a world where evil is rampant, these words and promises provided me peace and a protection in Christ. Observing the eight Baptisms, the reception for those joining the church, and confirmations were so beautiful. The water, light, chrism oil, white garments all carried such a profound image of the new life in Christ. I think my face hurt from smiling so much. It was a moment of pure joy! The Christian life was not just about myself striving for heaven, it was about welcoming all my brothers and sisters into the Church so they too could meet Jesus in paradise. "The come and follow me" words of Christ echoed in my heart. We are an Easter people. We can experience great joy in the midst of Good Friday. What a hope and promise we have in eternal life with Jesus. Like the white garment of Baptism, our sins through our honest confession and commitment to turn away from sin remove the crimson stains and make us white like snow.

June 15th-20th, 2026 | 9:00am - 4:30pm

St. Jerome Catholic Church, Oconomowoc, WI

Course Description: The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a Montessori-based religious formation program for children, beginning at the age of three. It seeks to create and facilitate a sacred, "hands-on" space for children called an atrium, in which both the children and their catechists can hear, ponder, and celebrate the most essential mysteries of the Catholic faith as revealed in the Scriptures and the Liturgy. Originally developed in Rome by Sofia Cavalletti and Gianna Gobbi fifty years ago, the Catechesis continues to spread world-wide. This course will ground the participant in the theory and praxis of CGS while also concretely preparing him/her to develop and facilitate an atrium for 3-6 year old children.
