THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

John 20:19-23

“He breathed on them and said to them, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained’” (John 20:22–23).

For those of us who go to confession regularly, there is often a familiar frustration: “Why do I keep confessing the same sins?” It can feel like a loop, cleansed but unchanged.

Pentecost reveals a hopeful perspective. When the Risen Jesus breathes on his ashamed and fearful disciples and gives them the Holy Spirit, he echoes Genesis, when God breathes life into Adam. This is not just primarily the removal of guilt but new creation.

In confession we receive more than forgiveness. We receive a fresh outpouring, the breath of the Spirit, and a renewed mission. Jesus does not say to us, “You’re forgiven, now go back to your old life.” He says, so to speak, “As the Father has sent me, so I send you” (John 20:21).

That is why penance is not just saying a few prayers. It is reorientation. It is the Spirit summoning us to live differently: with mercy and healing.

Just as Adam was sent into the world, and the Apostles were sent out after Pentecost, so too we are sent from the confessional — not just clean but consecrated.

Pentecost Challenge: After your next confession, ask the Holy Spirit for one way you can participate in Christ’s healing will for you. Then take one small, concrete step, and do not look back.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God’s presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, May 31st Readings

Ex 34:4b-6, 8-9/Dn 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56/2 Cor 13:11-13/Jn 3:16-18

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, May 31st

- We hear how God proclaims His name as “Lord” to Moses on Mount Sinai, describing Himself as merciful, gracious, kind, and faithful. How would you describe your experience of God?
- Paul speaks of the grace, love, and fellowship of our triune God and encourages the Corinthians to treat each other likewise. Who needs your love and fellowship this week?
- Jesus speaks of God’s love and commitment to both people and planet. What do you imagine a “saved” world will look like?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

How can you help "Move the Bus" you ask? The bus will be displayed in the narthex of the church filled with envelopes marked with a number and a week our teens are attending camp.

We invite you to take an envelope, fill it with the amount listed, and return it the following weekend OR by June 14th. If a number is taken, you can choose any number and fill it with the desired amount.

In addition to financial support, we would ask you to pray for our teens at camp the week written on the outside of the envelope.

Envelopes can be mailed, dropped off at the Parish Office, or placed in the collection basket - just be sure you note the donation is for the Life Teen Fundraiser/Camp Cana.

Checks can be made payable to St. Charles. If you put cash in the envelope, please write down your name so that we are able to thank you and give you credit on your tax contribution statement.

Donors will be invited to a dinner in their honor after our trips to camp so we can thank you and share what we experienced.

If you have questions, please contact Tiffany (ttopel@stcharleshartland.org) or Caroline (ccoiner@stcharleshartland.org) in the Student Discipleship Department. Thank you for your support!
