THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

The best way to understand the Eucharist is to recall God's long, careful teaching process beginning in the Old Testament. This week in Exodus 24, we learn the basic pattern. Moses reads the dictates of God's law to the people, who profess their allegiance to it. Then Moses takes representatives of Israel's twelve tribes and splashes the sacrificed blood of animals in two directions: on the altar and on the people. It's clear and serious business: clear, because the participants are entering a blood-bond with God Himself; serious, because the dead animals symbolize the life-and-death stakes at play.

Many centuries later, God uses the experience at Sinai to teach us something new. At the Last Supper, like a new Moses, Jesus proposes to "pour out" blood as a new covenant. It will land on the altar of the cross and the lips of his disciples. They have promised to be obedient to him who is God's law in flesh. This renews and elevates the breath-taking romance God wants with His people, unfolding from Sinai to this Supper. The Body and Blood of Christ is the sacrificial action whereby this covenant is strengthened.

How hopeful that, like us, the Israelites and the apostles repeatedly fail to live up to their promises and discover that the blood of the covenant continually renews and refreshes them. Today the Blood of Christ faithfully flows, to unite and renew, moving us forward toward where our great teacher is taking us. This week, we should say a renewed "amen" to God who so carefully teaches us how to be one with Him in this new covenant.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, June 9th Readings

Gn 3:9-15/Ps 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8 (7bc)/2 Cor 4:13—5:1/
Mk 3:20-35

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit

Reflection questions for Sunday, June 9th

- We hear how Adam and Eve disobeyed God and listened to the serpent, who tricked them into eating the forbidden fruit. How can you more intentionally listen to God's voice this week?
- Paul urges the Corinthians to be confident that despite our current afflictions and discouragements, God has given us an abundance of grace and has prepared for us eternal glory. Who might need to hear this message of hope from you?
- As he began his public ministry in Galilee, Jesus redefined "family" as whoever does the will of God. What would you say is "the will of God?"

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

SUNDAY CONNECTION

Background on the Weekend's Gospel Reading

© 2024 Loyola Press

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, the Latin words for "the Body of Christ." In the most recent revision of our liturgical rites, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology.

In our reading for today, we read the account of the Last Supper found in the Gospel of Mark. It begins with the instructions that Jesus gave to his disciples to prepare their Passover celebration. It then goes on to give an account of the Last Supper. On this Sunday, however, our Lectionary reading omits the verses between these two passages; in those omitted verses we hear Jesus predict his betrayal by one of his disciples.

The Gospel of Mark describes Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples as a celebration of the Jewish feast of Passover. The Jewish celebration of Passover is a memorial to and a ritual participation in the defining moment of Israel's history. It celebrates God's deliverance of his people from slavery in Egypt. The Passover meal includes many ritually important elements, such as unleavened bread, lamb, and bitter herbs. Each food item recalls an aspect of the Exodus event. The instructions for the preparation of this meal are carefully prescribed in the Law of Moses. It is a central obligation of the Jewish faith tradition to celebrate this meal and to give thanks to God for his deliverance and protection.

In the description of the Passover meal found in today's Gospel, however, Mark omits many elements of the Jewish Passover meal. Instead he describes only those elements he believes to be most essential to the Christian Eucharist: Jesus took bread, blessed the bread, broke the bread, and shared it with his disciples. Similar words and actions follow as Jesus shares the chalice with his disciples. This bread now shared is Jesus' own body. Those who drink from the chalice are invited to share in a new covenant which will be sealed by Jesus' own blood. Mark's Eucharistic theology looks forward to the Kingdom of God that Jesus inaugurates.

The Gospel for today reminds us that the Eucharist is a memorial of Christ's sacrifice on the cross. We believe that Jesus is truly present to us in the elements of bread and wine. Each time we celebrate this sacrament, we prepare for the Kingdom of God. This celebration, as the Second Vatican Council taught us, is the source and summit of the Christian life.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman ©LPi

This Is My Body

A friend in high school once asked me why I wore a Crucifix around my neck. She was a Christian and very devout so I was surprised at her confusion. "To remember Jesus' sacrifice," I said.

Her upper lip curled in disgust. "The cross is a sign of Jesus' sacrifice," she said. "He's not on the cross anymore. It's really weird that you wear his dead body."

As someone raised Catholic, the Corpus was an image I knew intimately. We had Crucifixes all over our home, everyone in my family did. And for reasons I couldn't quite explain, I actually preferred them over the plain crosses I saw elsewhere. The crosses seemed more elegant, more refined — but the Crucifixes felt more complete. More to the point.

My friend's disgust compelled me to reflect, in a way I never had before, on the image of Christ's body, wounded and twisted and tortured. Why was this a visual that compelled me? It didn't make a lot of sense for someone who abhorred dead bodies so much that I found it difficult to look into a casket at a wake. So, what was different about this?

My friend wasn't wrong: Christ is no longer on the cross. The sacrifice has been made. But does that mean it is over? We represent it in every single Mass. It's the point of everything that we do. Jesus did not sacrifice his spirit; he sacrificed his body. He bought us with every tear of the flesh, with every drop of blood.

The cross is crucial, yes. But that wood didn't bleed for us. If the body wasn't the point, Jesus would not have become human at all. Jesus needed the body. We need it, too.

"While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.'"
~ Matthew 26:26

MAKING A STOP AT ST. CHARLES

For the first time in history, the Blessed Sacrament will travel in procession across the entire United States. The Pilgrims will move through the Milwaukee area on June 18-26 and will make a stop at St. Charles on Thursday, June 20. Once here, the pilgrims will celebrate a Holy Hour from 5:30-6:30 pm and then host an Encounter Night from 7:00-8:00 pm, which includes Adoration and Reconciliation. This will be followed by a brief social before the Pilgrims travel to their next stop, which is the Schoenstatt Retreat Center in Waukesha. CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION & ADORATION

Sunday, June 2, is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, also known as Corpus Christi. In honor of Christ's ultimate gift to us, his very Body and Blood, there will be a brief procession at the end of the 11 a.m. Mass, and Adoration in the Church from Noon until 3 p.m. All are invited to come and pray before the Lord in gratitude for the gift of His Body and Blood.

GET TO KNOW THE NEW CHURCH!

I want to sincerely thank all of you for your patience as we continue to settle in to our new church. As with any new home in the first year, there are tweaks to be made, items to be repurposed and items to be acquire. For example, we have had many inquiries about the vigil candles. We have a candle set on order to compliment the existing ones in the old church and will move them in as soon as we are able.

Another inquiry about our new church is where are the restrooms? There are restrooms to the left as you enter the main entrance in the Narthex. Parishioners also have asked where the parish drop slot is for those who are unable to walk to the Parish Office. You may give items like registration forms, donation envelopes and grocery receipts to our ushers, who will then put them in the drop slot for you. Also, if you stop by on a weekday, our church's doors are open from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. You are welcome to come in and pray during that time.

We will keep you informed as we continue to move in during the next year.

KIPSONGO PROJECT 5K RUN/WALK JUNE 29TH AT LAPHAM PEAK

Ten years ago this December, Krystina Finn, our sweet and loving daughter, was called home at the young age of 22. Though her time on earth was brief, it was filled with extraordinary purpose.

Krystina's compassion knew no bounds. At just 22, she co-founded The Kipsongo Project, a non-profit dedicated to empowering women and children in Kenya's Kipsongo slum. True to her character, when Krystina saw a need, she took action.

Please consider supporting the 13th Annual Kipsongo Project 5K Run/Walk at Lapham Peak on June 29, 2024. All proceeds benefit The Kipsongo Project. Sign up early to snag a limited-edition Kipsongo t-shirt. Sign up at <https://runsignup.com/kipsongo>.

Become a sponsor: For sponsorship inquiries, email runkipsongo@gmail.com

Make a charitable contribution: Donate directly to the Kipsongo Project at <https://www.thekipsongoproject.org/>.

Krystina's passion for helping others extended beyond The Kipsongo Project. In her memory, we established The Krystina Finn Foundation to offer comfort and support to those facing hardship, focusing on areas like education, medical care, nutrition, and alternative therapies.

If you'd like to contribute to The Krystina Finn Foundation, please send a check payable to "The Krystina Finn Foundation" 551 E. Capitol Drive, Hartland WI 53029. With love, The Finn Family
