THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus asks us a stunning question this week: "How can Satan cast out Satan?" To enter into this question opens up the often-hidden dynamics of what Jesus has done and is constantly doing. If we're honest, our response to some degree is: "How else can we cast him out? Satan is precisely how we cast out Satan!" But Jesus wants us to see this finally does not work. Here's what I mean.

Satan names the demonic mechanism by which we render wholeness through accusation. When we face a threat, we seek something to protect us (e.g., more money, social status, security, power, etc.). Rivals inevitably arise for these things and so do tensions. Accusation presents itself. "I'll never be successful unless I get ahead of that guy." "She's already trying to get ahead of me." "That group of immigrants is trying to take our jobs." And so on. The accusation grows into a fear-inducing threat — things will break apart — no, they already are! Hurry! We inflict violence on the victim and — as if by magic — peace ensues. For a time. Soon fresh accusations are required to hold new chaos at bay, until there is no community left at all. This is essentially humankind's sad history in a nutshell.

Jesus' cross and resurrection unmasks this broken system of "casting out Satan by Satan" and ushers in a new one he calls "the Kingdom of God." He reveals that the dynamic of accusation is nothing compared to his power of divine mercy and love. The cross (and not Satan) is the real power to tear down strongholds of sin and cast out Satan. This is why he describes himself as the "stronger man who ties up the strong man to plunder his house." This week let's notice the ways we "cast out Satan by Satan" and then refuse to do it anymore. Because in the long run, that divided house cannot stand.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE Lectio Diving

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, June 16th Readings

Ez 17:22-24/Ps 92:2-3, 13-14, 15-16 (see 2a)/2 Cor 5:6-10/ Mk 4:26-34

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings.

Reflection questions for Sunday, June 16th

- During their captivity and exile in Babylon, God assured the Israelites He would restore them into a mighty majestic cedar tree. How do you find comfort in times of despair?
- Paul teaches the Corinthians to aspire to please the Lord, no matter your present circumstances. What could you do this week at home or at work to please the Lord?
- We hear how Jesus often spoke in parables about the kingdom of God, stretching people's thinking and imaginations. Where do you see the kingdom of God at work?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman ©LPi

In the Family Way

Look here: there is no one more family-oriented than me. I drive a minivan. I wear mom jeans. I wipe unidentified gunk off of kids' faces without a second thought.

I'm all about family, but I'm not always a fan of what "family" has come to mean in the modern lexicon. Family values. Family-friendly. Family-oriented. It's usually a synonym for "non-offensive." Soft. Moderate. Nice.

It's all fine, I suppose. But is it genuine? Creating a family, bringing that family physically into the world, was the hardest and most painful thing I ever did. The care and keeping of that family — the teamwork with my spouse, the feeding and watering of the children, the teaching of the writing and the reading and the praying — it's very hardcore. It's not all stuffed animals and peekaboo. It's a mental, spiritual, and physical challenge that daily brings me to my knees.

I'm not even talking exclusively about parenting young children. I'm talking about being part of a family in any way — being a son, being a daughter, being a sister and cousin and uncle. Families are complicated and strange and messy. Sometimes boundaries need to be drawn, or they need to be crossed. Sometimes walls need to be put up or torn down. It's never easy. It's never simple.

But I've never known someone who didn't want to be part of a family in some way, whether that's a blood family or one created by circumstance. And there's a reason Christ creates a family ("Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother") and not a club.

A family is a crucible, yes — but what comes out is so much more beautiful than what went in. For all the effort and even pain that is sometimes involved in a family relationship, there is nothing more defining, more fulfilling.

We are part of Christ's family, and what we can expect from that is certainly not a life of simple, clear-cut, undemanding discipleship. We can expect confusion. We can expect discomfort. But we can expect to be perpetually drawn to the heart of one who loves us without hesitation, without condition.

In the end, we're family.

"Here are my mother and my brothers." — Mark 3:33

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE COMES TO ST. CHARLES

As the Blessed Sacrament is processed across the United States this summer, St. Charles is honored to be one of the Pilgrimage Stops on June 20. All parishioners are invited to join in the Pilgrimage, which begins for us at Centennial Park in Hartland at 4:30 pm. This will be a fun and memorable experience for spouses or families to do together. It is a gentle 1.5 mile walk along the Ice Age Trail and city sidewalks. The walk ends at 5:30pm at St. Charles.

There will be Welcome Tables where pilgrims can get their passports stamped and enjoy some refreshments. A Holy Hour begins at 5:30 pm. From 7:00-8:00 pm there will be an Encounter Night in church. This consists of Adoration, a message from one of the pilgrims, scripture, and praise and worship music. There will be opportunities for confession and also Prayer Teams available to pray with you for any specific intentions you may have. The evening concludes with a brief social in the Parish Hall from 8:00-8:30pm. Come and be part of this moment in history as we continue to mark the year of the Eucharistic Revival! For more details, visit the Archdiocese website at archmil.org/evangelization/Eucharistic-Pilgrimage.htm.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING A EUCHARISTIC MINISTER?

Join us for training! We have several opportunities throughout June and would love for you to attend. Please visit our website to register for training. Contact Elizabeth Thompson, Liturgist, with any questions.

Come enjoy family time after Mass and mingle with other parishioners while sipping on the beverage of your choice! The Discipleship Team will provide yogurt and granola and everyone is welcome to bring your own beverage. We hope to see you there!

ST. CHARLES MOM & TOTS SUMMER SPLASH EVENT

at Nixon Park Splash Pad on Wednesday, June 19th from 10am-noon & Wednesday, June 26th from 4:30pm-6:30pm

This is a great opportunity for young moms of St. Charles to connect while their children enjoy playing and cooling off at the splash pad!

Don't forget to bring swimsuits and towels. The event will be cancelled if raining.

HIKE AT LAPHAM PEAK

Saturday, June 22nd at 9am

Meet at the Homestead parking lot at Lapham Peak

All parishioners are invited to an easy, two-mile morning hike on Saturday, June 22nd at Lapham Peak. The trail is paved and stroller-friendly, so parishioners can bring their families, kids and furry friends. This hike on the Kame Terrace Trail is also a great chance to meet other parishioners and encounter God in nature!

If you do not have a Wisconsin State Park annual pass, please bring $8 cash for the entrance fee and a car with WI license plates.

ST. CHARLES SUMMER NIGHT SOCIALS

Join fellow parishioners at Nixon Park's Beer Garden on the following Thursdays for St. Charles' Summer Night Socials - June 13th, July 11th, August 8th! Look for the St. Charles tent located behind the Band Shell. Members of the Discipleship Team will be there between 6:30-8pm. We hope to see you and your family there!

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Manwich, Mandarin Oranges, 5lb. Bags of Sugar, Cooking Oil (Vegetable or Canola)

In today's Gospel on the Tenth Sunday of Ordinary Time, Jesus looking around those seated in the circle said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Have you considered answering the call to join the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? As members of the SVDP, we are not simply "volunteers." Rather, ours is a vocation. It is more than a set of activities, or a membership in a club. Our vocation is a call from God, an invitation to follow a pathway towards the perfection that He wishes for us. You may not always recognize His voice every time, but when He calls you, you answer, and you pass His call to our "Neighbors" by living your faith and loving the Neighbors as yourself. If you are interested in becoming a member of the SVDP ministry of service to the poor and needy, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located at 229 Lawn Street, Hartland and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you are in need of assistance or know of someone in need, please contact us at 262-367-0800.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL #3562 EXEMPLIFICATION CEREMONY

On May 9th, it was an honor for Council #3562 to welcome Keith Alexander and Eric Neubert as third degree members in the Knights of Columbus Brotherhood. The Knights of Columbus was established in 1882 by Father Michael McGivney, now Blessed Father McGivney, as he is on his way to becoming a saint. Taking the pledge of becoming a Knight involves embracing our core principles of Charity, Unity and Fraternity. Our new third degree members will be involved with many activities embraced by the Knights, such as Pro Life, Family, School, Community, and assisting those individuals with special needs. All of these principles find their origin and meaning in the Holy Eucharist. Come join the largest Catholic men's organization in the world and discover why since 2023 over 28 men have become members in Council 3562. To learn more about the Knights of Columbus, contact our Membership director Dale Sitek (St. Charles Parishioner) at 262-649-6853 or camperdale@gmail.com
