THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 16:13-19

What do you call brothers who are born on the same day? Twins, of course. That is what we celebrate today in the inestimable saints, Peter and Paul. Wait: twins? Yes. The early Church believed that Peter and Paul were martyred in Rome on the same day. Since the day of martyrdom is celebrated as a saints' birth into eternal life, the result is striking: Peter and Paul are twins in God's family, the Church.

Who should care about this? Well, anyone who longs to live in a world marked by love and peace. Remember, the Romans believed that twins, Romulus and Remus, founded their city through an act of fratricide, the former murdering the latter. Sadly, the structures of this fallen world emerge through violence between those who should love each other. But in the Church, a new city has been founded upon this new set of twins, embodying the non-violent power of Jesus' cross and resurrection.

That's why traditional icons represent Peter and Paul in a fraternal and warm embrace. Contrasted with the violence of Rome's founders, it challenges us with a bold claim: do we believe that structures of merciful love are more powerful and lasting than those based on power, violence, and domination? Am I willing to see others in my life as my "twin," with whom I am called to give my life for Christ, or as my rival? Am I committed to living what is embodied in Romulus and Remus or in Peter and Paul?

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, July 6th Readings

Is 66:10-14c/Ps 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20 (1)/Gal 6:14-18/Lk 10:1-12, 17-20 or 10:1-9

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, July 6th

- Isaiah speaks of God's love and care for Jerusalem as a loving mother who feeds and comforts her child. What are some favorite memories or images you have of your mother?
- Paul ends his letter to the Galatians emphasizing that believers are part of God's "new creation," no longer defined by circumcision and uncircumcision. How does your faith community encourage or energize you to think differently?
- The 72 followers of Jesus succeeded in their work to preach the kingdom of God and heal the sick and demon possessed. What does a successful parish look like today?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

A NOTE FROM FR. AARON SIEHR

"If we wish to make any progress in the service of God we must begin every day of our life with new eagerness. We must keep ourselves in the presence of God..."
-St. Charles Borromeo

As I begin my assignment here, I want to express my eagerness to work with and for all of the parishioners of St. Charles Parish in imitation of our Patron. I already feel at home here in Hartland thanks to your prayers and hospitality. I hope I can make this parish a home where everyone can remain in the presence of God.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Toilet Paper, Paper Towels, Chicken Broth, Mac & Cheese, Cereal, Cleaning Supplies, Mayonnaise

Today's Gospel provides us with a glimpse into the remarkable lives of two early Christians, Peter and Paul, who endured persecution because of their faith. Peter recognizes Jesus as the Christ, the Son of the living God. On this rock of faith, He will build His Church. May we follow the example of Peter and courageously help to build the Church.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located on the Church grounds at 313 Circle Drive, and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you know of someone in need of our services or if you would like to become a member of SVDP, please call us at 262-367-0800.

HOPE CENTER MEALS

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who helped with the June Hope Center Meal! There were fifty guests served, and they thoroughly enjoyed the delicious meal! Our next Hope Center Meal is on Saturday, July 5.
