THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 10:26-33

Jean Améry, a Holocaust survivor tortured by the Nazis, later wrote about the abyss of human evil. He described his reaction as an “indignant despair.” Haven’t we all, to some degree, felt that abyss opened beneath us? A sudden loss, a violent headline, a moment of loneliness or panic when the world feels fragile and meaning seems to collapse?

It is to this fear that Jesus speaks in today’s Gospel, “Do not be afraid of those who can kill the body” (Matthew 10:28). He does not deny evil or pretend we will never suffer. Instead he reframes the abyss: do not fear those who can kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Your life is seen, known, and counted by the Father. Even the hairs of your head, even the sparrow’s fall.

This is no superficial comfort. Jesus himself has entered the abyss: suffering, death, even our sense of forsakenness, and he has come through it. That is why his words, “Do not be afraid” hold such weight. They do not erase the abyss but build a bridge across it.

Faith is not pretending everything is fine. It is staring into the abyss and still choosing trust. And in that trust we discover we are never alone. Christ stands with us, and the Father’s care surrounds us. That is the only comfort deep enough for our (often fearful) hearts.

— Father John Muir

SUMMER HOURS

Please note that our Parish Office and the church will be closing at noon on Fridays through August 14. The Adoration Chapel will remain open for regular hours.

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God’s presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, June 28th

2 Kgs 4:8-11, 14-16a/Ps 89:2-3, 16-17, 18-19/Rom 6:3-4, 8-11/Mt 10:37-42

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, June 28th

- The Shunammite woman is rewarded for her hospitality to the prophet Elisha. Is there a friend or colleague who needs your kindness this week?
- Paul teaches the Romans that as believers, we have died and risen in Christ and now look forward to living in “newness of life.” Is there something you are really looking forward to?
- Jesus sets a high standard for those who choose to follow him. What have you found most rewarding about following Jesus?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!
