THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The world is filled with people whose basic needs aren't met, whether for clean water, nutrition, safety, education, meaningful work, stable family life, basic medical resources, religious freedom, and the right to life. So how can we possibly believe what Psalm 145 says to us this week, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, he answers all our needs"? Does he? What about the countless poor? Can't we identify at least a few unmet needs in our own lives right now? Is the Bible promoting wishful thinking and laziness in helping others?

No. The psalm flows from Israel's experience of God's relentless fidelity again and again —especially in the Passover from Egypt. This divine providence is recalled when Jesus feeds the needy multitudes in the Gospel of John. Passover arrives once again, and the people are hungry like the ancient Israelites on the wilderness journey. What is new is that in Jesus, God not only provides for their needs but He learns what it's like to have those human needs. He shares them, too. He feeds them bread and fish; and even more, He hungers to provide them, and us, much more than just that kind of perishable food.

Our deepest need is for God. Like the multiplied bread, all earthly provisions ultimately fail, for we all finally die. Of course, our obligation to meet the needs of the poor is basic. But Christ promises to feed us with the one bread that never fails: God Himself. He is humanity's eternal food. If we eat this bread, we taste the faithfulness of God who answers all our needs, even when every earthly thing fails.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE
Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, August 4th Readings

Ex 16:2-4, 12-15/Ps 78:3-4, 23-24, 25, 54 (24b)/Eph 4:17, 20-24/Jn 6:24-35

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, August 4th

- God heard the plea of the Israelites who feared they would die of starvation in the desert and in response, God sent them quail and bread to eat. What will you pray for this week?
- Paul taught the Gentiles of the Ephesian church to give up their former way of life and live with renewed minds in the truth of Jesus. What have you gained by being a believer in Jesus?
- Jesus teaches the crowds in Capernaum that he is "the bread of life" who feeds all who believe in him. Is there someone you know hungry for Jesus?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

CHARITIES WEEKEND
JULY 27TH & 28TH

Join us in the West Corridor after all Masses this weekend for Charities Weekend! Come and see how parishioners are helping the parish and greater Catholic community.

NET Ministries Scotland: NET Ministries challenges young Catholics, through relational ministry, to follow Christ and embrace a life of community in the Church. Dominic Van Hecke has been given the great opportunity to be a missionary for NET Ministries Scotland this coming year! He would love for you to take part in this ministry by both your prayers and financial support. Reach him at dominic.vanhecke@netusa.org or see him after Mass at Charities Weekend. To donate visit give.netusa.org/dominicvanhecke.

Brew City Catholic: Christina Van Hecke will be serving at UW-Milwaukee as a campus missionary with Brew City Catholic (for the next two years). Her team will support students in their faith journey and be witnesses for living as disciples of Jesus. She'd love to tell you more about this mission and invite you to join her! She'll be available after all Masses at Charities Weekend or you can email her at stinavanhecke@gmail.com. For more info visit www.brewcitycatholic.com/missionary-overview.html

The CFR Franciscan Friars of the Renewal: The Franciscan Friars are in need of donations for their Harlem, NY friary. Their 100 year old friary needs repairs for the foundation and restroom. The 15 friars greatly appreciate your donation at <https://www.franciscanfriars.com/donate>. Contact parishioner Eirik Pellock for more information at Charities Weekend or epellock95@gmail.com or 651-500-8952.

St. Charles SCRIP: A representative of our SCRIP gift card program will also be in the West Corridor after all Masses this weekend to answer any questions about this program including how to get set up online to place orders, which supports St. Charles.
