THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

In the days after the awful 2020 killing of George Floyd, a Catholic friend remarked, "Racism is today's great evil. We should put all our energy into fighting it." I admired her intuition that the church must stand firmly against evil. Amen, I thought. At the same time, something felt wrong. As months went by, I saw her steadily slide into bitterness and anger. Soon, despondency. She spoke of giving up the fight. Don't we too wonder how to fight evil without losing our joy or energy?

Jesus' words this week help. He says, "Rejoice not that you have power over demons, but that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). Notice the asymmetry in where he wants our focus: on the latter, not the former. Should we confidently embrace our God-given power to overcome evil? Absolutely. But even more so, we should emphasize the positive element of our relationship to God. It is tempting but dangerous to define ourselves by what we oppose. It is better to define ourselves by—to rejoice in—what we celebrate: in Jesus, God has written our names in heaven. This sustains our battles.

This week, our marching orders are: fight evil. But more deeply, rejoice that God knows and loves us personally, individually. We allow this joyful knowledge to undergird our fight against the darkness of our day. Then we enjoy long-term stability to be cheerful warriors, who never forget the reason for the contests we are called to fight and win: love.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, July 13th Readings

Dt 30:10-14/Ps 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37 (see 33)/Col 1:15-20/Lk 10:25-37

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, July 13th

- Moses taught the Israelites that the Lord is not remote but nearby to each of us. When was a time you felt especially close to God?
- Today's reading is a poem composed by Paul to describe the divinity and supremacy of Jesus. How do you express your thoughts about Jesus to others?
- In the parable of the good Samaritan, Jesus teaches the lawyer that a neighbor is anyone you treat with mercy. Who might you treat with mercy this week?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

FOOD PANTRY NEEDS: Bush's Baked Beans, Chili (NO Beans), Chef Boyardee Beef Ravioli and Lasagna, Syrup, Toilet Paper & Paper Towels

In the Gospel today on the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. In this spirit, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul members "go out two by two" to visit those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice and render assistance. Know that the members of the Society bring your donations directly to the poor and suffering in our community.

The St. Charles SVDP Food Pantry is located on the Church grounds at 313 Circle Drive, and it is open Tuesday mornings between 10am and noon. It is also open on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of the month between 5:30pm and 7pm. If you know of someone in need of our services or if you would like to become a member of SVDP, please call us at 262-367-0800.

PARISH OFFICE HOURS

Please note that our Parish Office will close at noon on Fridays throughout the month of July.

Our Adoration Chapel will remain open, and all are welcome to stop by to spend quiet time in prayer.

MARRIAGE DIVORCE HEALING & RESTORATION

Navigating Divorce, Annulment,
Reconciliation and Re-marriage
in the Catholic Church

A CANDID DISCUSSION SERIES FOR ALL MEN 7:00 P.M. WED 9 JULY 2025

Since the 1990s divorce rates among those 50 and older have doubled, and for those 65 and older, rates have tripled—a phenomenon often referred to as gray divorce. With women initiating more than two-thirds of divorces, many men are left searching for ways to deal with separation, a pathway to reconciliation, or annulment and re-marriage.

Are you the man in that scenario?

Men of Christ will host the first small group, interactive series led by Dave Durand. The presentation and discussion will cover:

1. Divorce stages and possibilities for reconciliation
2. Understanding inevitable emotional and relational stressors
3. Avoiding common mistakes
4. Adjusting to life with peace and healing
5. Implementing strategies to ensure eternal happiness
6. Understanding the annulment process

Space is limited.
Because of the sensitive nature of this topic, attendance will be capped at 30 men, and the meeting will not be livestreamed. This will enable open discussion and small group interaction. If you are divorced, or seek to help other men better cope with their divorce, you will find answers with this group.
