THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 11:25-30

This weekend, our nation celebrates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Unlike most nations, the United States was not founded primarily on a shared ethnicity, language, or culture. Instead, our founders built a political community out of diverse peoples united by a shared vision of liberty. That vision echoes something deep in the Christian mystery revealed in today's Gospel.

Jesus returns to his hometown. The people see only what is familiar: the carpenter, the son of Mary, one of their own. As Mark tells us, "They took offense at him. Jesus said, 'A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.'" Their narrow vision blinds them. Jesus has come to inaugurate a new communion that transcends geography, bloodlines, and culture. He has come to unite all people in himself.

At its best, America's national unity reflects this possibility, which fully subsists only in the Catholic Church. Our unity is not based on ancestry or tribe but on a shared commitment to higher ideals. For this reason, we can love our country with gratitude while situating patriotism within the broader horizon of faith.

Rooted in Christ, we are less vulnerable to the unholy tribalism that threatens civic life and faith. This weekend, let us thank God for our nation and pray that we also live as citizens of Heaven in Jesus Christ.

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence — reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word — adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, July 12th

Is 55:10-11/Ps 65:10, 11, 12-13, 14/Rom 8:18-23/
Mt 13:1-23 or 13:1-9

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit
<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings>.

Reflection questions for Sunday, July 12th

- Isaiah encourages us to trust in the reliability of God's word and purposes. When do you find yourself trusting in the Lord?
- Paul places his hope in God's promised future, when both people and creation itself will be freed from corruption and decay. Is there something you or your family have been hoping for lately?
- Jesus teaches his disciples to be open (be "rich soil") to the often mysterious meaning of the parables about the kingdom of Heaven. Are you someone who is open to new or different ideas?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

MEET. KNOW. LOVE. SERVE.

My family and I came to this parish seventeen years ago. We were so moved by the first homily we just kept coming back.

My relationship with Christ has continued to be enhanced through His presence in the Mass, my small group, and Adoration.

I have been led to participate in many ministries. Whether I am baking cookies for a funeral or accompanying someone through Grieving with Great Hope, Becoming Fully Catholic, or Home Communion, my heart is warmed and I am blessed. I also find much joy in the social ministries, in being a part of Hospitality and Christian Women.

This community has allowed me to meet, know, love and serve Christ in many ways.

-Dianne Merkel
